

Kelso Women Will Repeat Play.
On Saturday, April 21, at the Orient grange hall, the Women's club of Kelso will repeat the plays given so successfully at the Kelso school last week. Dr. Cure All surely accomplishes wonderful miracles and Aunt Susan Jones is a wonderful detective. Those who hear it will enjoy a good hearty laugh. Refreshments will be served at the close of the program.

GRESHAM LOCALS

Mrs. Donald Morse spent last week in Gresham visiting her mother, Mrs. F. Volbrecht. She left on Sunday morning to join her husband, who has been transferred from Walla Walla to Seattle to the home of his parents on account of illness.

The Ladies' Aid of the Zion Evangelical church will hold a bake sale on Saturday, April 21. The place of the sale will be announced later.

The Rebekah Welfare club will meet at the home of Mrs. Calla Kenney on next Monday afternoon. The hostesses will be assisted by Mrs. Lena Needham and Mrs. A. Allshouse.

The meeting of the Gresham Parent-Teacher association has been postponed from April 16 to April 30. This will be the last meeting of the school year. The program will be announced later.

Mrs. Mary Conway of Deer Lodge, Montana, visited Mrs. L. P. Manning last week.

Mrs. Jessie White of Portland was a dinner guest of Mrs. L. P. Manning last Sunday.

Miss Marguerite Bailey is assisting Mrs. Gertrude Schanno in her confectionery store.

H. Wicke, sales manager for Raker & Son, was operated on for appendicitis at a Portland hospital Wednesday. His condition is favorable and his physician reports that he will be on the job again soon.

H. W. Snashall reports that the first campers appeared on the auto park camp grounds at the fairgrounds on Wednesday night. The party consisted of a family of five. They were from near Medford and were on their way to eastern Washington.

A ceremonial meeting of the O' You Camp Fire girls, at which their mothers were present, was held last Saturday evening at Miss Honey's studio. Initiation of Eleanor Botkin, Doris Bailey, Doris Zimmerman and Mildred Metzger took place during the early part of the evening. The ceremonial was conducted by Mrs. Elizabeth J. White, who gave an interesting talk on camp fire spirit and camp life.

Betty, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Meyers, has been very sick with flu for the past week or two but is now improving.

The Rev. A. S. Hisey is sick with grip but expects to be out in a day or two. Mrs. Hisey was down with the same disease last week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hansen of Portland were guests on Wednesday of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Kern.

Beth Zimmerman celebrated her 12th birthday yesterday by a party in which about 35 of her young friends joined. Games, luncheon and a jolly good time were enjoyed. The young hostess received a large number of birthday gifts.

Sales amounting to $92 were reported at the meeting of the W. C. T. U. held this week of the bazaar recently in Portland by the local union for the benefit of the Children's Farm Home. Numerous garments, useful and fancy articles were left over, which will be placed on sale at a social to be held in Gresham on April 26.

Poultry raisers, and all interested in chickens for pleasure or profit, will be glad to take advantage of the free lecture to be given by Prof. J. T. Layton in Metzger's hall next Tuesday night. Any having sick chickens are invited to bring them for examination and suggestion as to treatment and prevention. A fine set of poultry pictures will be shown.
