

Loyal to Dad.

Little John was sent alone to the barber shop for a hair cut. The barber in his joking way inquired what kind of a hair cut he wished and then pointed to the man in the chair, "Do you want one like this man is getting?" "No, sir," the little fellow returned after he had looked at the man. "If you have to cut it like somebody's, just cut it like my dad's, with a little hole in the middle."

That's Fair Enough.

She—"What is the shape of a kiss?" He—"I dunno—but give me one and we'll call it square."

SUNDAY SCHOOL GROUP WILL HOLD CONVENTION

The convention of the Pleasant Home District Sunday School association will be held at the Cottrell community church on next Sunday, April 22, from 11:45 to 4 in the afternoon. The three Sunday schools of the district will meet in their usual session and will then proceed to the Cottrell church, where an address will be given by Mrs. Clara Esson on "Religious Education in the Home."

In the afternoon the program will be a round table discussion on "A Man's Responsibility to the Boys of the Community," by J. A. Caldo, G. Nasshahn and Dawson Smith, with a summing up of the discussion by the Rev. A. J. Ware. The matter of the daily vacation Bible school will be taken up at the business session which follows the discussions. The basket dinner at noon is an enjoyable social feature of these meetings.

Nobody ever added up
The value of a smile;
We know how much a dollar's worth,
And how much is a mile;
We know the distance to the sun,
The size and weight of earth,
But no one here can tell us just
How much a smile is worth.

A Nice Home.
Little Ruth was sent to school for the first time and the teacher asked her what her father's name was.
"Daddy," she answered.
"Yes, dear," said the teacher, smiling, "but what does your mama call him?"
"She don't call him nuthin'," Ruth answered earnestly. "She likes him."
