PORTLAND CHOIR AT METHODIST CHURCH

Sunday evening the Portland Concert company will make its second appearance at the Methodist Episcopal church in the presentation of the cantata, "The Ninety-first Psalm." This splendid choir is under the leadership of Prof. J. A. Finley, well known in Gresham and the community. A number of local music lovers are members of the organization.

The cantata will occupy about 40 minutes of time and will be the principal part of the evening service. The pastor will also make a short address on an appropriate subject.

At the morning service the Rev. A. S. Hisey, pastor of the church will occupy the pulpit. The subject of his sermon will be "The Joy of Faith." A short sermonette for the children is now a regular feature of the morning service. A surprise is in store for the children next Sunday. They are promised that they will see something no one ever saw before, and no one will ever see again.

The topic of the Epworth League devotional service will be "What is Sunday For?" Edward Stubbs will be the leader.
