GRESHAM LOCALS
 Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Kern entertained last night Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Hollenbeck of Rupert, Idaho, who are going through to California by automobile. They are the parents of W. J. Hollenbeck, son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Kern.
 A. G. Volbrecht and bride of Spokane, who have been visiting for several days with the former's mother, Mrs. F. Volbrecht, have proceeded to San Francisco, where they will make their home.
 Word was received yesterday of the death in Seattle on May 23 of Donald W. Moore, after an illness of more than a year from tuberculosis, contracted during the war. He was a navy man and was cared for at the Walla Walla government hospital for several months but was permitted last February to go to the home of his parents, where he died. He was an only child. His widow, formerly Miss Marguerite Volbrecht, will have the sympathy of a large circle of friends here. She was at his bedside during the last months of his illness.
 Mr. and Mrs. Etsel Jones of Bremerton, Washington, are spending a few days with the former's father, Frank C. Jones, and sister, Mrs. Floyd Mack and family.
 Mr. and Mrs. Henry Latourell were in Gresham yesterday visiting with relatives and friends. They arrived recently from southern California to attend to matters on their farm at Latourell and will soon return to their home in the south.
 Arrangements have been made to furnish two busses and a large number of private cars to take the people to the Baptist Sunday school picnic at Laurelhurst park tomorrow. The start will be made from the church at 10 o'clock. Each person is asked to provide cup, spoon and fork with the basket lunch. All are invited to join the picnic.
 The last regular sessions of the Daily Vacation Bible school were held in the various churches this forenoon and an exhibition of the work accomplished will be given by the pupils this evening at the Methodist Episcopal church, to which all are invited.
 Frank Jones is doing a thriving business in septic tank building these days. He has just finished one for Henry Latourell at the garage building on Powell street and one for Geo. Kenney on Hood avenue at Third street.
 L. L. Kidder is reported on the sick list.
 Guy Cox, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Cox, was seriously hurt in a logging camp at Bridal Veil last week Tuesday. He was falling a tree and as it was about to go down he attempted to run but caught his foot and fell across a log. The fall stunned him and prevented his getting out of the way before the falling tree hit the log over which he was lying and threw him into the air with considerable force. He came down head first in the brush and was severely scratched and bruised. He was taken to Good Samaritan hospital where it was found that five bones were broken in his right foot. He is reported to be getting along well but will not be able to work for a long time to come.

GRESHAM MASON'S HOLD SERVICES AT HOME
 A large number of Gresham Masons and Eastern Stars drove to Forest Grove last Sunday afternoon and held services at the Masonic home. The Rev. A. S. Hisey preached the sermon. Mrs. Clyde Ruegg played a voluntary, Miss Gertrude Alexander sang a solo, Miss Norma Lee Peck gave a violin selection, and a quintette composed of Miss Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Aylsworth, Mrs. Bruce Hoyt and Dr. Will Ott sang, "Hark, Hark My Soul."
Gresham Young Men Acquitted.
 Maitland Geddes and Robert Kerslake, both charged with statutory offenses, have been acquitted of the charges in the court of domestic relations in Portland.
 The Geddes trial was held on Monday before a jury composed of six men and six women, who deliberated but a few minutes before taking the vote. C. G. Schneider was attorney for the defendant.
 The Kerslake case was tried several weeks ago.
DAMASCUS YOUNG MAN DIES OF PNEUMONIA
 The Damascus community was shocked by the death on Wednesday, May 16, of Harold Norton, who had been taken a short time before to a Portland hospital for treatment for influenza-pneumonia. His friends knew of his illness but did not realize its seriousness until the word came of his death. He had lived during the winter at Lents, where he was employed.
 Norton was 25 years old. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Elsie Norton, two small children, the youngest four months old, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Norton and a sister, Mrs. Agnes Brodie of Damascus.
 Funeral services were held last Friday at Lents and the interment was in the Mt. Scott cemetery.
