GRESHAM LOCALS

The program and pot luck supper put on last night by the Gresham Rebekah lodge in honor of the men of their families was well attended, there being more than one hundred present. A delightful time was reported by those who were in attendance.

Mrs. S. J. Bennison had as guests for the past few days Mrs. Will Adams and son of Fairfield, Washington, the Misses Mary and Martha Bennison of Waverly, Washington, who left for California today. Mr. Bennison who has been employed for several months as a timber cruiser in Tillamook county, enjoyed a few days' visit at home and has gone now to take up work at Prineville.

The Gresham baseball team will play the S. P. & S. boys on Stapleton field next Sunday.

Mrs. Clara Wolff of Portland attended the Rebekah entertainment last night and visited with relatives here.

The Rev. H. R. Gebhardt, pastor of Zion Evangelical church, delivered the address at the commencement of the Cottrell school last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Hall went to Corvallis this morning to spend a few days at their Alma Mater. Mr. Hall is a member of the board of directors of the Alumni association of Oregon Agricultural College. He and Mrs. Hall are among the sponsors of the alumni dance.

The Areme club will meet at the home of Mrs. O. J. Brown, Baseline road, Monday afternoon, June 4. The hostess will be assisted by Mesdames R. Tegart, H. V. Adix and Gladys Hoyt. There will be no meetings of the club during July and August. All O. E. S. ladies are cordially invited.

Overall and Coveralls

Friends of Miss Georgia Stapleton enjoyed a very pleasant evening on Wednesday, when they gathered at the home of her parents, Judge and Mrs. George W. Stapleton. Games, music and refreshments made it a very delightful affair. Those present were the Misses Golda Adams, Rose Potter, Leona Bailey, Mary Wold, Clara Mason, Marie Blom, Dorothea Smith, Beatrice and Mabel Jackson, Mildred Metzger and Doris Zimmerman.

Miss Katherine Honey left last Saturday for an extended visit in Los Angeles and other California cities with relatives and friends, among them Miss Laura Davis, formerly of Gresham. She took the ocean route, going on the steamship Cuba.

Eric Enquist of Warrendale was a business visitor in Gresham yesterday and a caller at the Outlook office. Mr. Enquist is extensively engaged in salmon fishing on the Columbia river, having three fish wheels on the Oregon side of the river and six on the Washington side. He says that fishing has been disappointing as the spring run has been light but a big run is expected in June or early July. He sells his fish to the canneries.

Margaret St. Clair has gone to Salem to spend a few days with her sister, Winifred.

Mr. and Mrs. James Elkington and daughter Jean have returned from Prosser, Washington, where they went for a few days' visit with Mrs. Elkington's Mother, Mrs. J. C. Hessel and sister, Mrs. Grace Hickenbottom.

Hokan Truedson was home from O. A. C. to spend Decoration day with his parents, the Rev. and Mrs. John Truedson of Powell Valley.

The Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Wood received a flood of congratulatory messages today, on the occasion of their 62d wedding anniversary. Mrs. Wood has been ill for the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Kilgore have returned from a trip to Chicago, where they went several weeks ago on a visit.

Two former Gresham young people have received marked honors in connection with the closing of Oregon Agricultural College. Miss Edna von Readen received the Clara Waldo cash prize of $50 and Merrill Good the A. J. Johnson prize for the same amount. Both were for excellency in scholarship.

The W. C. T. U. will meet on Thursday, June 7, at 2:30 in the afternoon, with Mrs. W. T. Hensley. Mrs. Ella Beecher Gittings of Portland, assistant editor of the White Ribbon Review, will be the speaker. A flower mission program will be given, the details of which will be published in the Tuesday's Outlook. Automobiles will be provided for those wishing transportation and will leave the library from 2 to 2:15.

Miss Lucy Adams leaves tonight for an extended visit with relatives and friends in Waynesburg, Pennsylvania, going over the Canadian Pacific. She will return early in September.

Miss Norma Lee Peck has been temporarily transferred to the Sellwood branch library in Portland, where she will spend June and July. She will take her vacation during August and be ready to resume the charge of the Gresham branch September 1. Miss Grace Ogilbee will have charge here during the summer.
