L. A. WACK & CO.
SUCCESSORS TO BISHOP BROS.

Gresham had a fine display of roses in the annual competitive rose show, although they did not win a prize, standing fifth in line. Arleta won first place, which honor was Gresham's last year. The women who worked in gathering and arranging the roses for the three-day show were Mrs. Frank Peak, Mrs. A. McManus, Mrs. H. S. Clow, Mrs. E. Davidson, Mrs. Frank Heiney and Miss Mabel Thomas. They are grateful for the fine cooperation of local rose growers.

Gresham people who attended the commencement exercises of Willamette University in Salem on Wednesday were the Rev. A. S. Hisey and Mrs. Hisey, Mrs. H. L. St. Clair and Mrs. C. P. Tallman. The students who returned were Miss Winifred St. Clair, who has completed the course, Miss Violet Coe, Miss Carole Tallman and Ourey Hisey. The latter has been elected manager of the Collegian for next year. Oliver Gill, who has been studying in Kimball School of Theology, returned to his home last week.

The Baptist Mission Circle will meet at the home of Mrs. G. W. Guile on next Tuesday, June 19, at 2 o'clock. "The American Indian" will be the subject for study and Mrs. H. S. Clow the leader. Mrs. J. N. Clananhan will lead the devotions.

The Outlook is indebted to Mrs. W. H. Black of Hogan station for a beautiful bouquet of gum, a beautiful crimson perennial said to be a native of China.

Mrs. Clyde Runion was severely hurt in an automobile accident on Wednesday on 82d street at one of the hills in Clackamas county. She was riding with a friend who attempted to pass a Standard Oil truck and was crowded to the concrete railing of the bridge. The light car struck the railing and hung on it. Mrs. Runion was badly cut about the face and head and is being cared for at her home in Gresham. The driver of the car was uninjured.

The Gresham Rebekah Welfare club will meet with Mrs. H. J. Puffer next Monday, June 18, in the afternoon. Mrs. Calla Kenney and Mrs. A. McManus will assist the hostess. Mrs. A. B. Ketchum of El Verano, California, and Mrs. Wilbur Sons, nee Lena Ketchum, and little daughter Virginia of Delano, California, are spending the summer with relatives and friends in this vicinity and Portland.
