

COUNCIL WILL HOLD ADJOURNED MEETING

An adjourned meeting of the city council will be held on Tuesday evening, July 10, when several matters of importance will be considered, among them the final reading of the milk ordinance and matters with reference to retaining the prior rights filed on a power site by the city on the Sandy river in 1917, which is expiring at this time.

At the regular meeting on last Tuesday night a few bills were passed upon. It was reported that some misunderstanding has arisen as to the provisions of the ordinance recently passed specifying the legal mixture for cement walks. The new specifications call for one part of cement to two parts of sand and four parts of washed gravel or crushed rock. This is for the foundation. The top dressing must be composed of one part of cement to one and a half parts of sand.

FRED T. MERRILL IS TRIED IN GRESHAM

The case of the state against Fred T. Merrill, proprietor of the Plantation Inn at the 12-mile corner, on the charge of maintaining a nuisance under the state prohibition law is being tried in the justice before John Brown and a jury today. The jury consists of Mrs. Eliza Stone, Mrs. Maud Howitt, William Stanley, C. C. Anderson, Augustus Watson and H. L. St. Clair.

Mr. Merrill is represented by Attorney Barnett Goldstein and the case is being prosecuted for the state by Deputy District Attorneys Mowery and Hammersley.

PRESIDENT'S VISIT WAS GREAT EVENT

The president came and went and then it rained. Had it rained Wednesday the regret of all concerned would have been inexpressible. If the president could have remained in Portland five days it would have been fitting to have one of the five days rainy as that is about the proportion of rainy days to non-rainy days throughout the year in this part of Oregon.

Apparently the celebration at Gresham did not detract noticeably from the splendid reception given the president, Mrs. Harding and the president's associates. Many persons heard Governor Pierce deliver his stirring patriotic address on the fair grounds and later heard and saw the president at Multnomah field.

But most wonderful is the fact that thousands of and around Gresham, in their homes or on their lawns, in larger or smaller groups, heard more or less distinctly the president's masterful address. Even the hundreds in the grandstand at the fair grounds and other hundreds gathered near watching the races and sports, during lulls between the din of the music and cheering, caught audible portions of the president's speech and heard the repeated applause of the thirty thousand spectators.

Elsewhere in this paper the president's address is reviewed.

Without doubt the celebration of 1923 was the most notable in the history of Portland and of Oregon and will long be referred to with enthusiastic and justifiable pride.

GRESHAM LOCALS

Edward Strong won the harmonica radio contest arranged by The Oregonian last Monday night. This was in the senior division. His brother Ray won the same honor in the junior division a week before. The award in each instance was a cash prize of $15.

Mrs. H. C. Larsen entertained Mrs. R. E. Myers of Montavilla at dinner on Thursday. The Rev. Mr. Myers, who has been ill for some time, has returned from the sanitarium greatly improved.

Plans are being made by the combined forces of the West End and the Sew and So circles of the Methodist Ladies' Aid society to place an abundant supply of food stuffs on sale at the Walrad Mercantile store on next Wednesday at 1 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Cushman and children, Arthur and Elizabeth, from Oakland, California, arrived in Gresham Monday for a visit with Mrs. Cushman's mother, Mrs. Marion Johnson. Other guests at Mrs. Johnson's home on the 4th were her son, E. A. Johnson and family of Portland.

Miss Miriam Inglis returned Wednesday from eastern Oregon where she had been visiting friends for a few weeks.

Miss Addie Pullen has gone to Umatilla for a two-weeks' visit with her sister, Mrs. R. A. Starbald.

Mrs. W. E. Beegle has been laid up for several days with a sprained ankle but is able to get about again.

Sergeant and Mrs. C. A. Gebhardt spent a few hours at the home of the former's brother, the Rev. H. R. Gebhardt last Monday, while on their way to Alaska, where Sergeant Gebhardt will be stationed at Chilkoot Barracks. He had been stationed at Fort Winfield Scott, San Francisco, since 1915.

Dr. and Mrs. H. V. Adix, Victor and Jean visited with friends in Seaside on the 4th.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Grass and daughter Virginia and Miss Sylvia Weston joined a party of Portland friends who went to Seaside for the Fourth.

The regular meeting of the Baptist Ladies' Guild will meet at the home of Mrs. D. P. Millikin on next Tuesday at 1 o'clock. Every member is expected to be present to help make the final arrangements for fair week, when all are pledged to cooperate in making the fair a success.

Mrs. C. A. Carothers returned early this week from Baker, Oregon, where she spent three weeks visiting with a daughter and son and other friends.

Among the many family parties and neighborhood gatherings on the 4th was one at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Metzger, where about 40 people enjoyed a picnic dinner under the trees on the lawn and where the President's speech was heard perfectly by the use of the radiophone with amplifier.

The party included Mr. and Mrs. Metzger and children, Mrs. R. R. Carlson, Mr. and Mrs. K. A. Miller, Bayard and Virginia Miller, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Moreland, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Kidder and children, Miss Mina Gilbert, Miss Edella Towle, Miss Ruth Heinrich, Miss Martha Hagberg, Miss Esther Gardner, Guy D. Jones, Leslie Walrad, Roy Crabtree, William Ruthertford, Dr. and Mrs. Frank Peak, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Sterling and children, Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Ott and children, Mrs. M. Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Cook of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Walrad, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Thorne and Betty, Mr. and Mrs. A. McManus.

FREE CANNING LESSONS TO BE AT LIBRARY

Free canning demonstrating in charge of Miss Jeanette P. Cramer, home economics editor of The Oregonian will be given at the Gresham library on July 10, 11 and 12, from 2 to 4 o'clock each afternoon. This is the first of a series of similar activities which have been planned to extend the services of that department as thoroughly and closely to the homes of the people as possible. There is said to be absolutely no commercial connection with this work. All women who are interested in the most modern scientific methods of canning are invited.

Miss Cramer is a graduate of Oregon Agricultural College, where she ranked very high in home economics work. She is a writer and lecturer of ability.

Mrs. George W. Stapleton is in charge of local arrangements for the demonstrations.

Bethel Baptist Church.
The Bible school will meet at 9:45. The men's adult Bible class will repair to the parsonage for the study hour. Preaching by the pastor at 11 o'clock. Theme for consideration, "An Oriental Marriage Scene." Mrs. J. N. Clananah and Mrs. D. Q. Barry will render a duet as a special number.

The B. Y. P. U. will meet at 7:15 p. m. Leader, Miss Clara Mason. The evening sermon at 8 p. m. A full orchestra of 14 pieces is expected from Portland to assist the choir. A rich treat is in store for the people of Gresham. The pastor will consider the question, "The Greatest Discovery of the Ages."

Free Methodist Church.
At the Free Methodist church next Sunday the morning sermon will be by the Rev. B. Y. Yates, former pastor here, at 11 o'clock, following the Sunday school. All are welcome. There will be no evening service on account of the tabernacle meetings in progress at the fair grounds.

Zion Evangelical Church.
Services at the Zion Evangelical church will be held next Sunday as follows: Sunday school at 10 o'clock, divine worship in the German language at 11 in the forenoon, and in the English language at 8 in the evening, when the pastor, the Rev. H. R. Gebhardt will preach. Special music is being prepared for both services.

Methodist Episcopal Church.
The services at the Methodist Episcopal church on Sunday will be conducted by the pastor, the Rev. A. S. Hisey, who will preach the sermons at both the morning and the evening services. His topic for morning will be "The Soul's Vision." For evening, "The Eyes of the Lord." There will be special music by the choir at both services.

The Epworth League is planning for a series of events for the summer months that will prove attractive to the young people. The devotional meeting will be held Sunday evening, weather permitting, at the top of Gresham Butte. They will leave the church at 5 o'clock, taking a sandwich along.
