The Boring baseball club is getting up a home talent play to be given at the club house the last of the month for the benefit of the ball team.

Three auto loads of Idaho people arrived in Boring the first of the week and expect to make this their permanent home. They are Mr. and Mrs. S. Frost, a son, S. A. Frost and four children and Mr. and Mrs. B. O. Marrs, a daughter, and two children. They have traded their Emmet, Idaho, property for property here belonging to Z. H. Duncanson, recently occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Delco and that occupied by Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Armstrong and family. They have toured through several states and the Yellowstone Park and say the scenery of the Columbia highway far surpasses any other encountered anywhere on the trip.

Arthur Rich made a trip to Gresham Thursday of last week to have Dr. Adix remove a sliver of steel, off a sledge from his left forearm, received while cutting wood at his home here.

Mrs. Leroy Tanner, nee Buena Childs, returned to Portland the first of the week after spending a few days at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Childs. Mr. Tanner is in the Sellwood hospital having recently undergone an operation for appendicitis. He is reported rapidly improving.

Mrs. E. V. Maulding went to Portland Thursday of this week to have an operation performed on her nose.

Donald Morand celebrated his 15th birthday Wednesday evening with a dinner party to a number of friends and relatives.

Miss Edith Anderson is visiting this week in Newberg at the home of Mr. and Mrs. McDougal. Mrs. McDougal (Eva Dodd) was a resident of Boring for several years.

At the Boring M. E. church next Sunday, the Sunday school will convene at 10 o'clock. The attendance was 55 last Sunday. All are hoping to make it larger next Sunday. The church service follows the Sunday school. The pastor, the Rev. E. G. Ranton, is preaching a series of sermons on "The Characteristic Men and their Times." The subject for next Sunday is "Abraham, the man who was not from Missouri."

COTTRELL

The Rev. M. V. Whetzell of Gresham will preach at the community church next Sunday at 11 o'clock.

FAIRVIEW

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Morrill, their son Malcolm and Donald Grant left yesterday for Manhattan beach where they will spend two or three weeks.

A group of young friends of Donald Grant gave him a surprise party on Tuesday evening, bringing their lunches with them. A happy evening was spent by the young people.

The men of the Smith Memorial Presbyterian congregation will meet Monday evening at 7 o'clock to clean up and beautify the church ground.

ADD FAIRVIEW

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Ledbury was the scene of a family reunion on July 4th, long to be remembered by all who took part in it. Their children and grandchildren gathered and enjoyed a visit, a fine picnic dinner was a feature of the occasion, which was finished off with ice cream, the gift of Grandfather Ledbury. Dinner was served under the old cherry tree. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Ledbury, Mrs. Jessie Sherwood, Mr. and Mrs. James Jesse and son Alvin of Milwaukie, Mr. and Mrs. Art Ledbury and daughter Ruby of Boring, Mr. and Mrs. William Ledbury of Fairview, Mr. and Mrs. George Ledbury and children, George, Emma and DeLoris of Barton, Alfred Ledbury, Velma Mehaffey, Mr. and Mrs. J. A few neighbors surprised Mrs. Lingvall Wednesday afternoon in honor of her birthday.

E. Lundbom is at his home on account of an accident which left him with a very badly bruised and lacerated foot. He is able to be about on crutches.

HALEY

The B. Y. P. U. will hold its semi-annual business meeting on Saturday evening, July 14, at the church, for the purpose of electing officers. Every member is requested to be present.

Next Sunday forenoon the pastor will speak on the subject, "The Gospel and Divine Healing." It will be shown that modern "healing" is not the kind of healing that Christ and the apostles performed. It will be shown that Paul was unable to either heal himself or three of his friends who were sick. All are invited to put away every hobby and prejudice and come. Miss Martha Hagberg will sing. The pastor, Rev. Andrew Johnson, challenges any "divine healer" to a debate on the following proposition: "Resolved, that modern so-called divine healing is not the kind of healing performed by Christ and the apostles."

PLEASANT VALLEY

Mrs. E. P. Evans has returned from a few days' visit with friends at Agate beach.
