JEFF YOCUM HIT BY AUTOMOBILE

Jeff Yocum, the nine-year-old son of Austin Yocum, living near Pleasant Home, was run into by an auto last Friday morning on East 15th street, near Prescott, Portland.

Mr. Yocum delivers milk in Portland and was being assisted by Jeff. The boy passed in front of the delivery car probably to run across the street not knowing that an auto was approaching so near.

With Leader of Party Gone, Many Senators Become Ambitious.

By Robert Fuller (Autocaster Service) With the next national convention less than a year off one of the big problems confronting the republican party in selecting a presidential candidate is determining the type of man to be nominated.

With the internal struggle now evident, each of the various divergent groups—progressives, conservatives, old guard, radicals and other elements—are anxious to influence the selection of a candidate for president and the determination of the platform of principles and policies.

The majority of leaders felt confident that President Harding would be nominated at the 1924 republican convention.

As president he held in check many of these divergent elements of the party and influenced the progressives and conservatives alike to such an extent that they stayed in line on major matters of party policy.

Now that this actual and titular leader is gone, a political turmoil of almost unprecedented proportions has been precipitated in the republican party.

Almost overnight the 1924 nomination situation changed from that of a placid affair as planned to nominate Mr. Harding, to a wide open free-for-all with no less than a dozen ambitious candidates in the field.

Coolidge's New Prestige Heading the "sure to run" candidates is President Coolidge, who's new prestige disconcerts the plans of many republican chiefs.

However, during the year and a half President Coolidge has to serve he will become the arbiter of his own fate. He has inherited the Harding administration, has pledged himself to carry out its policies, and there are many progressives who sympathize with his difficulties.

Favor Progressive Candidate While it is early to forecast, however, considerable portion of the party's leading men seem to favor giving the honor to some prominent republican who appears to be reasonably progressive but not radical.

Secretary of State Hughes in the cabinet, was defeated by the history making hairbreadth margin in 1916. Hoover has been a loyal supporter of late President Harding and has made the department of Commerce a business organization.

It is regarded as certain that Senator Hiram Johnson, former running mate for Theodore Roosevelt on the Progressive ticket, will become an active candidate.

Johnson was blocked at Chicago three years ago in the famous three-way deadlock between his forces, those of Governor Frank O. Lowden and General Leonard Wood.

It is probable that Senator LaFollette of Wisconsin, will enter the ring with the radical forces concentrating him.

Shaw Compromise Possibility. Among the farmers and publishers, many leaders see in Dr. Albert Shaw, noted editor and publisher of "Review of Reviews," and successful "dirt" farmer, a strong possible convention compromise nominee for president.

National political leaders at this time are casting covetous eyes on Pennsylvania's 76 votes for the next convention and are wondering where they will go.

Plenty of Favorite Sons A number of republicans are expected to be brought forward as favorite sons.

Since pedestrians are causing autoists so much trouble how would it do to require each person desiring to walk on the public ways to be examined and if found capable granted a walker's license?

Editor Outlook:—There appeared in last Tuesday's Outlook an article under the caption, "Proving the case against Dr. Abrams and ERA."

ERA is saving thousands of suffering humanity from pain and premature death. The world progresses despite the efforts of the skeptic and non-progressive.

There was a public lecture held at the high school gym last Friday night on ERA and I strongly suspect "A Subscriber" was not there.

Waiting to hear from this mysterious subscriber I am for progress and service.
