LUCK

Luck—rises early to catch that morning train; is busy at the forge, bench or desk; is persistent; wastes no time; is not easily discouraged.

Luck—fastens the door before the horse is stolen; keeps that scalding water out of baby's reach; has forethought; is prepared for opportunities; has plans and executes them.

Luck—denies himself that auto until he can afford to buy and maintain it; avoids luxury; pays cash, respects himself and is respected.

Luck—laughs at misfortune; has all the good positions; draws all the big salaries; spends less than he earns—has a SAVINGS ACCOUNT and is financially independent!

"Man is not the creature of circumstances. Circumstances are the creatures of men."—Disraeli.

A STRONG BANK

Floyd Mack, while on a fishing trip at Bull Run early this morning in company with G. A. Cox, received a painful injury when he slipped on the rocks and his weight fell on a grappling hook which he was carrying on his fish basket. He was severely bruised and the flesh broken but it is thought that no bones were broken. The hook struck him just below the heart and the pain was so severe that he left his car there and came home on the trolley car for medical treatment.

John Hepp joined the George Moulton family of Lusted in a trip to the beaches which extended over a period of ten days. They journeyed leisurely up the coast from Pacific City to Astoria, stopping where their fancy dictated, and returned by way of the lower Columbia river highway.

Mrs. R. E. Cannon has returned from her trip to Indiana where she went early in June with Mr. Cannon, who returned some time ago to make preparations for school work.
