

GRESHAM LOCALS

Mrs. W. K. Hamilton is in Good Samaritan hospital in Portland where she underwent a major operation yesterday. Today her condition was reported to be satisfactory.

The general meeting of the Methodist Ladies' Aid society will be held at the home of Mrs. W. A. Winters on next Wednesday afternoon at 2:30. Matters of great importance will be under consideration and a full attendance of members is desired. Mrs. Winters will be assisted by Mrs. C. M. Zimmerman, Mrs. Gertrude Alexander and Mrs. James Sterling.

Mrs. Steve. Marston, who has been assisting in the H. L. St. Clair home for the past two years as housekeeper, has been obliged to give up her work on account of ill health. She is at her home near Palmbad station but may go later to the logging camp near Cherryville where her husband is employed.

Mrs. L. A. Wack and children have gone to Los Angeles, California, for the winter on account of the ill health of her daughter, Lucile.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Premo and two children of Long Beach, California, who have been visiting with the former's sister, Mrs. J. A. Gray and with other relatives in Portland, have returned to their home.

Robert McCarter, with the McCarter garage, will spend a week's vacation on an auto trip to Seattle and Vancouver, B. C.

N. J. Anthon, recently from Portland, has moved with his family into the Altman house on Second street, next to the L. A. Wack & Company's store where Mr. Anthon is a clerk.

The C. N. Taylor family has moved from Pleasant View avenue to Portland for the winter, where the children are attending school. Mr. Taylor, who is one of the buyers for the Fleischner & Mayer company of Portland, returned this week from New York where he had been for his firm. The new location is Gordon Court apartments, 530 Montgomery Drive.

Members of Dorcas circle of the Methodist Ladies' Aid to the number of 25 enjoyed a picnic dinner at the fair grounds at 1 o'clock Wednesday and spent a few hours sewing. Besides the women there were ten children at the dinner, which was an enjoyable social occasion. A business session was also held during the afternoon.

Thomas Ginder has gone to Hillsboro to make his home with his son, Wm. Ginder.

Rev. H. R. Gebhardt in addition to his church work as pastor of Zion Evangelical church is taking the post graduate course in philosophy at Reed College. He makes the trip to the college five days in the week in his Ford sedan recently purchased of Raker & Son.

An enjoyable evening was spent last night by about 40 members of Rebekah and Odd Fellow lodges and their friends, in celebration of the 72d anniversary of the Rebekah lodge. A pot luck lunch was enjoyed early in the evening, which was followed by a good program which included a talk on the anniversary by W. E. Ogilbee, solos by Miss Myrtle Rusher, Miss Martha Hagberg and Leslie Walrad, readings by Mrs. C. A. Hill and Miss Vida Cemer. All expressed themselves as pleased with the events of the evening.

The district rally of the Queen Esther circle will be held at the Portland Settlement center next Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Bowles, district superintendent, has invited the local circle to participate and announced that matters of much importance and interest would be discussed. The Gresham organization is recognized as the banner circle of the district.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Fieldhouse and daughter Jane of St. Helens visited the former's mother, Mrs. Martha Fieldhouse on Wednesday evening on their way to Pendleton to attend the Round-up. Jane was left with her grandmother while her parents are away.

Many subscribers to the Outlook are taking advantage of the fine offer of the Hardy Studio of Gresham of a free photograph to yearly subscriptions paid in advance.

Judge and Mrs. George W. Stapleton left this morning for Pacific City, where they will remain for a time in quest of rest and recuperation for the judge. Miss Georgie is staying with her sister, Mrs. J. A. Haley, during her parents' absence.

Alf. O. Nelson of Gresham addressed the congregation of Our Savior's Lutheran church, Portland, last Sunday, on the constitution. Mr. Nelson's speech was characterized as clear and patriotic and was well received by the church folk. His subject was "The Constitution and the Dangers Lurking in the Path of Our Government." "Grievances are not corrected by radicalism or by inciting class hatred, but at the ballot box," he said.

Willamette University students from this locality who took up their studies the first of this week are the Misses Violet Coe, Caroline Tallman, Eva Tacheron, Marjorie Lyman and Anna Lennartz and Ourey Hisey. The latter is the business manager of The Collegian, student publication.
