

ROCKWOOD

Interesting services were held at the church last Sunday, with Sunday school at 10:30 under the superintendency of Dr. C. L. Haynes, and preaching at 7:30 in the evening by the newly appointed pastor, the Rev. J. Stanford Moore. A meeting of the Ladies' Aid will be held at the church on next Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the principal business being the election of officers for the ensuing year.

Hall's Catarrh Medicine will do what we claim for it—rid your system of Catarrh or Deafness caused by Catarrh.

PLEASANT HOME

Word has been received from the Rev. George Berreman, who went recently with his family to Colorado for the benefit of his health, that he has received a charge in northern Colorado consisting of a circuit of three points, in a wheat country, 15 miles from the corner of Nebraska and 60 miles from Cheyenne, Wyoming. His address is Keota, Colorado. Mr. Berreman is greatly pleased with the high altitude and the clear, dry atmosphere and plans to remain there for a year or two and hopes later to attend Iliff School of Theology at Denver. Mr. and Mrs. Berreman are comfortably situated and are entering upon the new year with enthusiasm.

FAIRVIEW

The board of the Fairview school found it necessary to employ an additional teacher on account of the large number of pupils attending this year. Miss Chezum started work yesterday as teacher of the third and fourth grades. Mrs. Earl Taggart is principal again this year and has charge of the 7th and 8th grades, while Mrs. Louis Stone has charge of the 5th and 6th grades and Miss Clara Sales of the primary grades. Nearly 100 students are enrolled this term.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Robertson and daughter Mildred of Toledo, Oregon, are visiting the former's sister and brother-in-law, J. H. Peterson and family.

A large crowd of relatives and friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Moore on Sunday where a basket dinner was held in honor of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Robertson.

P. J. Savage and son Lloyd of Woodland, Washington, were week-end guests of J. W. Mollar and family.

Miss Dorothy Woods of Portland spent the week-end with Miss Lillian Heslin.

A party was given at the home of Miss Lillian Heslin Saturday night in honor of Miss Allene Dixon.

Mr. and Mrs. Kester Chevron of Odell, Oregon, Roy and Mildred Robertson of Toledo, Oregon, visited their aunt Mrs. Dora Peterson and family. Mrs. Chevron was formerly Miss Ivy Robertson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Robertson formerly of Fairview. She was married on September 12 in Portland.

A party consisting of R. Simpson, D. Lewis, J. W. Mollar and family, Mrs. C. Buckner and family, Mrs. J. Mahaffy all of Fairview, Mrs. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Lockwood of Portland motored to The Dalles Monday and returned Tuesday evening.

"A Real Revival vs. Counterfeit Revivals" will be the theme of a sermon by Rev. E. R. D. Hollensted Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at the Presbyterian church. Sunday school starts promptly at 10 o'clock. The church as well as the Sunday school will hold a Rally Day on Sunday, October 7. A program will be rendered during the Sunday school hour and at the service following special music by the Luscher Brother's quartet and also by the Chinese Women's quartet of Portland. The pastor will give a brief talk on "A 100% Christian."

The social given under the auspices of the Women's Society of the Presbyterian church at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Stone last Friday, was well attended. A pleasant evening of social fellowship was enjoyed by all. Several vocal and instrumental selections were rendered and the pastor made a brief address on "Our National Constitution," after which refreshments were served.

BORING

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Coates and family of Portland were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Palmer.

Clarence Dayton and Lorrie Childs returned home Sunday night after attending the Pendleton Round-up.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hays and small son of Portland were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Maulding and family.

Funeral services for Mrs. David Hedderman, who died at the home of her son in Portland last Saturday night, will be held Tuesday with interment in the Rose City Park cemetery.

F. M. Morgan and Kenneth Childs returned the last of the week from Bend, Oregon, where they have been visiting for the past two weeks.

I. S. Hedden is home suffering with a broken arm and a badly sprained ankle as a result of an accident while doing carpenter work in Portland last week. A scaffolding on which he stood gave way, letting him fall several feet to the pavement below.

SANDY BLUFF

Mrs. Joe Caldo is home after nearly four months' visit with friends and relatives in and around Chicago.

Mrs. Arnold is driving around in a new "divver."

Mr. Brook and daughters, Mrs. Carrie Chandler and Miss Myrtle Brook, left one day last week for Hood River to pick apples.

Thomas Caldo, brother of William Caldo, passed away Friday night after a long illness.

Cottrell school opened on Monday, September 19, with Mrs. E. E. Van Fleet as principal. Twenty-one children enrolled in the upper grades. Miss Snider, the primary teacher, has 25 pupils.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Watkins spent the week-end at The Dalles visiting with friends and relatives.

Mrs. L. Radford was quite sick for several days of last week but is much better now.

CORBETT

The new Corbett Union High school No. 1 was dedicated Saturday evening, September 22. State Superintendent Churchill was the speaker of the evening. Prof. J. A. Finley had charge of the music.

Mrs. Ethel Smith Stewart and Miss Pauline Rickell were in Portland Friday night and Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rickert motored to Pendleton Round-up last Thursday.

Mrs. Macey and children were recent visitors at the Geo. Chamberlain home.

Miss Arlie Kincaid left for Monmouth Friday, where she expects to enter the Oregon Normal.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Evans were in Portland Friday.

George Chamberlain has his new auto bus for carrying the grade children to school in the consolidated district.

Mrs. Hubbard of Kenton is spending several weeks at the Ward Evans home.

Fred Benfield had the misfortune to injure his hand quite badly while working on his new barn.

An interesting meeting concerning Trapper Creek Water district was held at the schoolhouse Monday.

Corbett Public Library Station.

Corbett again has the advantage of public library service. After the fire last year there was no available place to house the library books so this service had to be discontinued. The station was opened Friday in the new high school with Miss Agatha Harding in charge. Books may be borrowed every Monday and Friday from 3 to 4:30 p. m. Any resident of Multnomah county may be borrowers from this station. Fresh books will be brought out the last Friday of each month, and special books will be sent out on request. In this collection will be found books for all tastes, adventure stories, biographies of interesting people such as the Americanization of Edward Bok, gardening books, sea stories, radio books and many of the late books of fiction.

One of the most interesting of the new novels is "One of Ours" by Willa Cather, which won the Pulitzer prize for 1921 for the best description of American life. The characters are real people and the description make lasting pictures.

"In the Eyes of the East" by Greenbie is a very personal book of travel in which the story of the author's romantic courtship and marriage is told, along with her impressions of the Orient.

"The Iron Puddler" by J. J. Davis is the dramatic story of the "poor but plucky" Welsh lad who rose from boot-black to member of the Harding cabinet.

Radio News Promised Farmers.

A year round series of weekly talks on farm and home subjects for Oregon citizens will be broadcast from the Oregonian station in Portland by the O. A. C. extension service beginning Thursday, October 4. Facts on the recent agricultural survey of production and distribution of Oregon farm produce, some half dozen lectures by Paul V. Maris, director of college extension, will start the series. Timely articles of practical value to farmers and of interest to cooperating bankers and business men will follow. The hour for this service has been set at 8 o'clock to 8:30 every Thursday evening.

Oscar Tells the World He Knows a Thing or Two
by Terry Gilkison
AUTOCASTER

I TELL YOU HE'S A FRIEND TO BE PROUD OF. HE MAY BE A LITTLE STINGY BUT HE HAS A SENSE OF HUMOR.

YES IT'S A GIFT. THAT'S WHY HE HAS IT.

THERE YOU GO—WITH THOSE SMART REMARKS ABOUT HIM— I TELL YOU HE WAS WELL PLEASED WITH YOUR COOKING.

HE TOLD ME I HAD A WONDERFUL WIFE. THEN YOU SAY THOSE THINGS ABOUT HIM. I'LL DEFEND HIM!

I'LL TELL THE WORLD I KNOW A THING OR TWO ABOUT CHOOSIN' MY FRIENDS. YOU DON'T LIKE HIM BECAUSE HE MADE A MISTAKE AND GUESSED YOUR RIGHT AGE.

WELL HE DOESN'T LOOK HONEST ANYWAY.

THERE YOU GO. RUNNING DOWN MY FRIEND! YOU MUSTN'T JUDGE BY APPEARANCES OLLIE.

I DON'T. I JUDGE BY DISSAPPEARANCES! WHEN HE LEFT THERE WAS SIX SILVER SPOONS MISSING!
