GRESHAM LOCALS

Dramatic club enthusiasts met at the public library last Tuesday evening, when an impromptu reading of William Dean Howells' farce "The Mousetrap," furnished the evenings' entertainment. Miss Vida Cemer and Miss Myrtle Rusher in the leading roles gave such a spirited rendition of their parts that the audience was convulsed with merriment. They were ably supported by Misses Genevieve McAllister, Virginia Currin, Letitia Pulfer, Florence Rosin and Mrs. Annabell Kirkwood in the minor parts. The next meeting of the club will be Tuesday evening, October 9. Mrs. Lillian Moreland, Virginia Currin and Beatrice Jackson are in charge of the program for the evening.

At the regular meeting of the general Ladies Aid society held at the home of Mrs. Walter Winters last Wednesday the election of officers resulted in the re-election of Mrs. Jackson Jones as president, Mrs. B. L. Walrad as vice president, and Mrs. C. E. Rusher as treasurer. Mrs. A. S. Hisey was elected secretary. The society will give a dinner in the basement of the church on the evening of October 25. This date was chosen instead of the 18th on account of many other events in the earlier week. The ladies are planning for a bazaar to be held on December 5.

A meeting of Gresham Rebekah degree staff will be held on Monday evening, October 1, for drill practice. All members are requested to be present.

Mrs. W. K. Hamilton, who recently underwent a surgical operation in a Portland hospital, is rapidly improving and will likely be brought home within a few days.

Mrs. D. Q. Barry, who was stricken with a nervous attack last Saturday, is reported improving and is now in condition to receive callers.

J. E. Metzger and family and their guest, Miss Dolly Strang, and Dr. W. J. Ott and family spent four days on a trip to the coast by way of the Tillamook beaches, Seaside and return over the lower Columbia river highway. While at Manzanita salmon fishing was the topic of chief interest and a number of the Gresham people went fishing on the Nehalem bay. It remained for Bobby Metzger, however, to catch the only fish of the party and he caught three fine salmon, aggregating nearly a hundred pounds. When he hooked a 47-pounder there was some question as to whether the boy would join the fish in the bay or the fish would swamp the boat. By careful rowing on the part of Mr. Metzger the fish was safely landed.

O. A. Bosserman, a former resident of this vicinity on the Webb Cherry farm, was in Gresham yesterday on business and called on a number of old friends. Mr. Bosserman and his family are now located in Northwood, Iowa, where he is engaged in the hardware business.

RECENT BOOKS AT THE GRESHAM LIBRARY

The following books have been received at the Gresham library:

"Through the Shadows," Cyril Alington. A comedy of impersonation in which every character assumes the part of some one else, resulting in the most amusing situations and surprising escapades.

"The Man Who Knew too Much," Gilbert Chesterton. Stories of Horne Fisher, gentleman detective, who never brought his man to punishment because he "knew too much."

"Faint Perfume," Zona Gale. The love story of Leda Pergrin, sensitive and refined, who is dependent upon her commonplace, almost vulgar relatives.

"Practical Rabbit Keeping," E. I. Farrington. "The government has urged nationwide rabbit raising to reduce the cost of living and help solve the meat problem." Here is a book which tells you how to do it.

"My Experiences at Scotland Yard," Sir Basil Thomson. More startling than ordinary mystery stories are the chronicles of these exciting cases which Sir Basil, as head of the British Secret Service, handled during and after the great war.

"Beasts, Men and Gods," Ferdinand Ossendowski. Melodramatic, unbelievable, horrible are the experiences of this man who flees for his life from the inquisition of the Russian Reds.

Half a Million Mourners

The U. S. Postal department estimated that 500,000 Americans have been flied out of $100,000,000 in the past five years by fake oil promoters in Texas alone.

This represents but a small part of the whole number of mourners in this country who have lost their savings by unwise investment.
