Mrs. H. Pratt is very ill at a Portland hospital, where she was taken a few days ago.

H. Wagner and family will move on Saturday to Rainier, where Mr. Wagner is working. They have purchased property there and have sold their property here to Mr. and Mrs. W. Wilson.

PLEASANT HOME

At the M. E. church the Sunday school meets at 10 o'clock under the supervision of G. H. Bickford. Classes for scholars of all ages. At 11 the pastor will speak to the boys and girls on the subject "Habit." At 11:15 he will speak to the adults on the subject, "God's Supreme Desire in this World at this Time." There will be special singing at this service. Following the church service there will be a meeting of the officers and teachers of the church and Sunday school.

Thursday, November 8 instead of Wednesday, November 7, the Methodist Ladies' Aid will meet all day with Mrs. A. Hayworth. The reason for the change in the date is that November 8 is Mrs. Hayworth's birthday. She will serve lunch to the ladies at noon. The choir will meet for its regular practice Wednesday evening at 7:45. Everybody is requested to be on time.

DAMASCUS

The regular meeting of the Damascus Farm Bureau will be held at the new Union schoolhouse on Saturday evening, November 3, promptly at 8 o'clock. State Market Inspector Spence will be present and speak on the income tax measure. There will be a good program and special music, followed by a social hour. This is an important meeting which all are urged to attend.

ROCKWOOD

Ed. McCann met with a serious accident last night while riding his motorcycle on the Rockwood road, when he met a car driven by a Mr. Ohmit, in a head-on collision on the railroad crossing at Rockwood station, where the grade is so high that neither driver saw the other until they met on the track. Mr. McCann sustained a serious break of the leg near the hip and was taken to a Portland hospital in an ambulance.
