GRESHAM LOCALS

Unexpected guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alf. O. Nelson this week were Leonal Nyhagen, K. L. Knutson and Joe Henning of Dunn Center, N. Dakota, the former home of the Nelsons. The visitors were delighted with what they have seen of the west and particularly of this section.

Mrs. L. T. Lusted has had as guests for a few days her niece, Miss Merle Owen, and Miss Ella Hilgenson of Algona, Iowa. They, with Miss Inez Lusted, enjoyed a trip over the Columbia river highway yesterday.

Guests of Mrs. H. C. Larson for two days this week were her niece, Mrs. Morris Wilmarth and four children of Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Larsen entertained at dinner Sunday their granddaughter, Miss Florence Hill and W. Brown of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Wood.

The dramatic club will meet on Tuesday evening at the library, when a good program is expected to be given. Mrs. D. M. Donough will be present and all are invited to take part in this informal literary club.

Miss Gertrude A. Rankin of Tiffin, Ohio, who has been connected with government service in Washington, D. C., and Miss Marie Saletta, of Toledo, Ohio, a children's librarian of that city, were recent visitors at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. D. Q. Barry. They are now in their way to California and Mexico for a sightseeing trip.

Miss Elizabeth Johnson returned Wednesday from her vacation trip to California, where she went early in October. While in San Francisco Miss Johnson received the remnants of a letter sent her from Gresham which had been in the mail car which was damaged by fire and dynamite on October 11. The letter was about one-third burned away but contained enough of the address so that it was delivered to her, in a government official envelope.

Word has been received of the birth of a 9-pound daughter to Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Fall in Portland on October 29. Mr. and Mrs. Fall were Gresham residents for several months, where he was employed by the Pack Products company.

Gresham Chapter, O. E. S., will entertain the matrons and patrons of Portland and vicinity on Tuesday evening, November 6, at 8 o'clock. The meeting will be in the Masonic hall and a program will be given of special interest to Eastern Star members after the completion of the work of the evening.

Mrs. Olive Bouchet of Portland visited early this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Towle.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Curcher and family spent Wednesday at the J. E. Schenk home.

The Sunday afternoon meetings at the Odd Fellows hall will continue in the lower room of the building. The Rev. S. F. Pitts will preach next Sunday at 2:30 on "The Kindness of God." All are invited to enjoy these denominational services.

While the new schoolhouse is as nearly as possible fireproof yet for safety and the discipline of the pupils occasional fire drills are held. Yesterday, in the presence of assistant fire chief Floyd Mack, an unexpected practice alarm was turned in by Principal Quicksall. In exactly 50 seconds the rooms and halls were emptied and all in perfect order. In less than two minutes from the time the alarm was given all were back in their places. This was the second practice drill in the new building.

Where He Was.

The minister met Tom, the village ne'er-do-well, and much to the latter's surprise, shook him heartily by the hand. "I'm so glad you've turned over a new leaf, Thomas," said the good man.

"Me?" returned Tom, looking at him dubiously.

"Yes, I was so pleased to see you at the prayer meeting last night."

"Oh," said Tom, light breaking in on him, "so that's where I was, was it?"

Naturality.

"Tremendous crowd up at the church last night."

"New minister?"

"No, church burned down."—Nebraska Awgwan.

Farmers Mutual Fire Relief Assn. Does Flourishing Business.

The Farmers Mutual has grown to be the largest farmers' company in the Northwest. Farmers who consider their own welfare prefer it. President Snashall reports the Association has over $16,000,000 in force and over 10,000 members. In the past year it has paid over $33,000 in losses with one assessment only at 30c per hundred dollars. There is no reason why farmers should pay high rates when they can insure in a Farmers' Association. Anyone wishing to insure will call on H. W. Snashall at the Fair Grounds, Gresham. Notice to Autoists.

Any person parking in front of a fire plug will be fined.

TROUTDALE

The pastor, the Rev. E. G. Ranton, will preach Sunday evening at 7:30. Everybody is cordially invited to be present at this service.

Mrs. C. I. Thomas, president, and Mrs. A. D. Kendall, secretary of the local Parent-Teacher association, and Mrs. L. A. Harlow returned from Medford, Oregon Saturday, where they have been attending the annual state convention of Parent-Teachers. Mrs. Harlow has served as state corresponding secretary for two years and as state secretary four years. She was endorsed for re-election but declined.

Herman Blaser and W. W. Robinson have returned from Hood River valley where they have been picking apples for some time.

Miss May Van Schviack and Miss Georgia Summers of Portland were Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. Clara Wallace.

Mrs. H. F. Parsons arrived home from Kansas City Saturday after a three-months' visit with relatives there.

Hot lunch for the school children is being served at the schoolhouse now. The school board has installed gas plates and the Parent-Teacher association has purchased the dishes and cooking utensils necessary to serve the children, and will supply a cook to serve the meals. The small sum of 5 cents is charged each child for one hot dish each day, the children bringing their own sandwiches. The children enjoy the new arrangement very much.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bondesson have purchased a small tract of land adjoining Troutdale from Wm. Powell and will erect a modern dwelling at once. Mrs. Bondesson was formerly Miss Grace Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kidder and son Wallace made a short visit this week at the home of Mrs. Kidder's mother, Mrs. Clara Wallace. The Kidders were returning to their home at Garibaldi, Oregon, after a three months' visit with relatives in Wisconsin.

W. W. Robinson and family spent Sunday in Vancouver, Washington. Mr. Robinson is employed in the paper mills there.

Mr. and Mrs. Markell from Pleasant Home will reside the coming year in the Dr. Cornelius residence adjoining Troutdale.

Clark Stillion has returned from La Grande, Oregon, and Harold Hudson from Bend, Oregon.

Jay Moore of Bend, Oregon, is here on account of the serious illness of his mother, Mrs. M. J. Tiller.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Kummer and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cheney of Portland were Sunday visitors at the J. R. Knarr home.

Mrs. C. Nelson of Canby, Oregon, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Jno. Laudan.

Word was received here on Wednesday of the death of Mrs. Frances Allard on her 75th birthday, October 30. Mrs. Allard has been a resident of Troutdale for many years, going to Portland only a few weeks ago to spend the winter with a daughter.

The Parent-Teacher association will hold its regular monthly meeting at the schoolhouse on Friday, Nov. 9.

The Value of Livestock to a Community. No. 4.

Where Livestock Is Shown at Its Greatest

MANY have not yet come to realize the size, importance and influence the Pacific International Livestock Exposition wields for the welfare and upbuilding of livestock raising in the Northwest. Nor does every stockraiser appreciate the opportunities offered for his own development and profit.

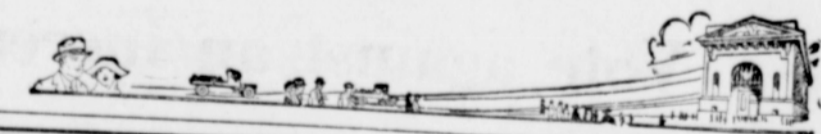

In 13 years the Pacific International has grown to be one of the great livestock exhibitions of the world the largest under one roof in America until this year, November 3 to 10, it will exhibit about 4000 head of purebred dairy and beef cattle, hogs, sheep, goats and horses; also 2500 chickens and rabbits, offering $90,000 in premiums and showing many world's champions as well as other notable stock. The exposition combines:

- Gigantic Livestock Exposition
- Dairy Products Show
- Land Products Show
- Northwest Hay and Grain Show
- Western Winter Poultry Show
- Night Horse Show
- Industrial Exhibits
- Daily Auction of Dairy and Beef Stock

More than 100,000 people attended last year. Why don't YOU attend and come in contact with the breeders and purebred animals that are doing so much for livestock development in the West? Then come in and tell us of your impressions here at the First State Bank.
