

GRESHAM LOCALS

In the children's department at the library will be found many new books that will delight and entertain the children.

There is at the library this week an exhibit of books suitable for one to buy. The collection is large and should be seen by all.

A business meeting of the Parent-Teacher association will be held at the Gresham grade school next Monday evening at 7:30. A program of meetings will be prepared for the year. All members are urged to be present. The work of the association is felt to be very important in its relation to the school and it is hoped helpful programs can be arranged and that many parents will assist the teachers in this work.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Thom of Portland visited Mrs. Thom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Burch, on Sunday. Mrs. Burch returned with them. The Thom's are moving to Salem.

Last Thursday evening Rev. and Mrs. M. A. Christenson and sons, Emil and Walter, of Portland, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alf O. Nelson.

J. H. Cone has been laid up for a week or two with an attack of heart trouble. He is improving and expects to be around as usual in a few days.

Uncle Tom Ginder, who has been making his home with his son William at Hillsboro, is back in Gresham for a short visit. He is well and seems to enjoy getting back to his former home.

Recent Maxwell purchasers are Guy D. Jones and Glenn Davidson. The purchases were made through W. A. Hessel, local Maxwell dealer.

An unusually interesting meeting of Gresham grange was held on last Saturday, with a good attendance of members, also the first meeting of masters, overseers and lecturers of the county since their organization recently. During the lecture hour talks were given by Attorney C. G. Schneider, the Rev. A. S. Hisey and Judge George W. Stapleton, and Miss Gertrude Brugger played a piano solo.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hepp of Woodburn and Mrs. Ida Hepp of Sellwood visited with Phil Hepp in Gresham Monday.

Miss Pauletta Dowsett spent the week end with her sister, Miss Gertrude, at O. A. C.

Among the local students at the University of Oregon who came to Portland to attend the big football game between Oregon and Stanford were Louis Maulding, Victor Adix, Mary Cogswell and Harry Wostell. They visited over the week-end with relatives here.

Bessie Camp Marshall of Eugene is here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Camp, her brother, Albert Camp, and her sister, Mrs. Melvin Sunday.

James Lawrence left Sunday for California to spend the winter with relatives and friends in Sacramento, Lodi and Los Angeles.

A bake sale will be held at the Walrad Mercantile store on Saturday, November 17, by the Gresham Rebekahs. The sale is to begin at 1:30 and those who are contributing are asked to have their articles there by that time.

In a recent letter from Miss Mae Donley from Guayaquil, Ecuador, South America, she tells of seeing a small boy on a trail some distance from the camp in which she is a nurse looking at the "funny strip" from a copy of the Gresham Outlook, which he had probably taken from her back door.

A joint meeting of Gresham and Boring Odd Fellow lodges will be held next Thursday evening, November 15, at the Gresham I. O. O. F. hall, for work in the first degree on three local candidates. A large attendance of Odd Fellows is expected on that occasion. Thirty-five were present at the meeting last week.

Mrs. J. N. Clanahan has returned from Seaside, where she went several weeks ago. She has been greatly benefited by the trip, being much improved in health.

A. W. Metzger has returned from Yakima, where he went last week to attend the meeting of the Winchester dealers of the Pacific northwest, which was in session on Wednesday and Thursday. About 40 dealers from this district attended. One of the features of the convention was the presence of J. N. Campbell of Bowling Green, Missouri, national "Winchester" president, who gave an address. Yakima people showed every courtesy to the visitors, taking them to the famous orchards and other show places of that vicinity. Mr. Metzger drove to the convention.

Mrs. Carrie Hansen has returned from Umatilla, where she went two weeks ago to assist in the home of her brother, Sabin Alexander, whose wife was ill. Mrs. Alexander is somewhat improved.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Rusher, in company with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lansdowne of Oregon City, went to Seattle to visit over the week-end with relatives. They went by automobile and report a wonderful trip. They passed through the famous Holstein dairy country and saw the Carnation condenser. While there they visited with Mrs. Myrtle Myers Chester and talked over the telephone with Mrs. H. H. Eling, both former residents of Gresham.

The meeting of the American Legion, the Auxiliary and their families at the grange hall last night was a very pleasant affair. A delicious dinner was served by the Auxiliary, after which a short program was carried out. A. W. Metzger, commander of the Legion, made some important announcements and urged the cooperation of all members in the activities of the Post. Mrs. O. A. Eastman gave a report of the national convention and Leslie St. Clair of the state convention.

C. E. Pilant, wife and child have moved into rooms in the C. Gordy house.

Mrs. J. C. Peterson of Shaw, Oregon, is ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. G. M. Davidson, where she came last Wednesday. She is much improved.

SPECIAL COMMUNICATION of Gresham Lodge No. 152, A. F. & A. M., Thursday, November 15, 1923, at 7:30 p.m. Work in the F. C. degree. Visiting brothers welcome.

J. E. METZGER, W. M.
W. L. GORSAGE, Sec'y.

A happy party of cradle roll babies and their mothers was held at the Methodist Episcopal church last Friday afternoon, under the direction of a committee headed by Mrs. Arthur Parker. A brief program of talks, stories and games was followed by light refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Peterson were in Gresham Monday visiting Mr. Peterson's mother at the home of the latter's daughter, Mrs. G. M. Davidson.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ebinger, of Tillamook, visited their nephew, Dr. E. Rosenberger on Saturday and Sunday. This is the first time the doctor has seen his uncle since his arrival in this country 22 years ago.

Chas. Wilson, for some time a resident of Gresham and an invalid, died at the county hospital in Portland on Thursday. The burial was on Saturday.

A group of jubilee singers from Mt. Olivet colored church of Portland will sing at the Bethel Baptist church next Thursday evening, November 15.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Larsen went to Wauna on Saturday, where they visited with the latter's niece, Mrs. Oscar McClung, who has recently returned to her home from a Portland hospital. Mrs. A. J. McClung of Boring, who has been there caring for her daughter, will return to her home soon. Mr. and Mrs. Larsen went to Astoria on Sunday morning to attend church and were dinner guests of the Rev. and Mrs. Melville T. Wire.

Mrs. T. J. Gordon, mother of Mrs. P. F. Black, who has been caring for the latter's children during her illness, returned to her home in Portland Saturday. While riding with Mr. Black's brother in a light delivery car on Monday, Mrs. Gordon had a fainting spell and fell onto the pavement, fracturing her skull. She has been in a critical condition but was reported improved this morning.

Mrs. P. F. Black has been ill for a few days with grip.

A Tip From Nature

Nature made her WILD CREATURES wise. The Bee stores up honey for the winter; the Beaver ricks up his woodpile; the Squirrel hoards his nuts.

The Squirrel that lives in comfort during the winter of life did not eat all his nuts as fast as he found them. The Bee, the Beaver, the Squirrel all live within their income—and Bank the difference.

Are you preparing for the winter of life by banking something out of every paycheck or are you eating your nuts as fast as you gather them?

Anybody can make money; any one can spend it; it takes a wise man to SAVE it.
