

DEEP CREEK

Deep Creek school organized a literary club Friday afternoon. Anita Anderson was elected president, Ina Richey, vice president, and Dorothy Hanson, secretary. The following were appointed on the program committee: Ethel Berglund, Evelyn Hedden and John Krebs.

Otto, Amelia and Ernest Krebs went to Mt. Angel Saturday night where they attended a big dinner Sunday night.

Misses Lillian, Ruby and May LeKander spent the week-end with their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson and family spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Smith. Mrs. Anderson remained as her daughter is ill with the small-pox.

The following children have been out of school due to illness the past week: Laurence Hanson, Evelyn Hedden, Wilbur and Clifford Fosberg, Ira DeWitt and Werner Krebs. Some are back and others are expected soon.

All are looking forward with pleasure to a party which is to be given at the Mowery Tuesday night.

The LeKander family attended the bazaar at Powell Valley.

Mrs. Hanson and Lee Bartlemay spent the past week at Bible institute. Mildred Anderson is ill and all wish for her an early recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. LeKander spent Sunday afternoon with their daughter, Mrs. W. G. Bednar.

Miss Ruby LeKander spent the week-end at Rufus, Oregon, where she attended a silver wedding.

Mildred Anderson spent a few days in Portland having dental work done.

John Krebs, one of the seventh grade boys, is doing janitor work so as to be able to take music lessons.

Mr. Krebs had the misfortune to lose a good work horse last week. It fell over a log and broke its leg, making it necessary to shoot it. Mr. Krebs is using a horse for logging belonging to Plas Douglas.

ORIENT

The Orient school will give a basket social at the grange hall next Friday evening November 23. The proceeds will go toward the final payment to be made on the school piano. A program will be given by the school, after which the baskets, which will be provided by the women and girls, will be auctioned off. No admission will be charged.

Shooting Match at Orient.

A shooting match will be held in Johanson's field at Orient on November 24 and 25. Rifle, shotgun and pistol. Plenty of fat turkeys, geese, ducks and chickens. Sandwiches and hot coffee will be served on the grounds. Professionals will be handicapped.—Adv.

VICTORY

The Victory Parent-Teacher association will meet Friday evening, November 23, at the schoolhouse. The social part of the evening will be in honor of the club children of the district who have made remarkable showings and won many honors at all the fairs. A program will be given and refreshments served. The meeting was postponed from last week because of chicken pox in the school.

KELSO

The Kelso school district voted down the proposition of securing more land for the school grounds at a special meeting called to decide the question last Saturday. The Kelso Women's club will proceed with their plans for the building of a play shed for the school and will meet one day this week to discuss plans.

TROUTDALE CLUB WINS MANY FINE PRIZES

Troutdale Poultry club has ended a most successful year under the leadership of A. J. Krueger and will meet on November 27 at 2 in the afternoon to plan for next season's work. The club ended the year with 100 per cent records in recognition of which fact the local leader was presented with a handsome pin from the United States Department of Agriculture and Oregon Agricultural College Extension work. Robert Harlow is president and Dale Parsons secretary of the club. The season's premiums and awards amounted to $165, including a four-day free trip to the fair and two weeks' summer school for Dale Parsons at Oregon Agricultural College. Following are the awards won by the members and teams of the club.

At the Multnomah county fair poultry judging team, second; Dale Parsons, first, Chas. Howard, third, John Robinson, fifth on pens of Anconas.

At Oregon State fair, poultry judging team, second; Dale Parsons first, and silver cup; Chas. Howard, fourth, on pens of Anconas. The Anconas won over 45 pens, including 11 different breeds.

At the Pacific International, Dale Parsons, first and Chas. Howard, second on Anconas. The poultry judging team tied for first place. It consisted of Dale Parsons, John Robinson and Robert Harlow. The egg judging team, consisting of Clyde and Arnold Daum and Chas. Howard won second prize.

The three high scoring boys for the season were Dale Parsons, John Robinson and Clyde Daum.

POWELL VALLEY

The Ladies' Aid society of the Swedish Mission church will hold a bazaar on Saturday evening, November 24, at the church.

The people of the Swedish Lutheran church wish to publicly thank all those who contributed to the success of their bazaar Saturday evening. Mr. Palmblad of Forest Grove was the auctioneer for the articles. About $150 was realized which will be expended in missionary and other lines of work.

Frank Anderson of Kelso, Washington, is visiting with his sister, Miss Myrtle Anderson, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Lindgren.

Miss Grace Welch was the hostess for the Up and Doing Sewing circle of the Mission Sunday school Saturday afternoon. Sixteen were present and a pleasant afternoon was enjoyed by all. Refreshments were served.

Rev. Oscar Wilner, the new pastor of the Mission church, with his family are now comfortably located in their new home in the parsonage, and express themselves as being very much pleased with their surroundings. About 200 attended the reception which was given them a short time ago in the church, at which time an interesting program was rendered.

Saturday evening three young men of this vicinity had a narrow escape when the framework of the Ford in which they were riding gave way. Sam Christensen, Ernest Satterstrom and Arthur Nystrom were in the machine when a part of the frame dropped onto the wheels, causing the Ford to turn over. Mr. Nystrom was pinned beneath and suffered a fractured collar bone and possible injuries to his back. The others escaped with minor cuts and bruises. The machine was a complete wreck.

The basket social given by the Parent-Teacher association at the school house Friday evening was a great success. Among the pleasing numbers on the program were a piano duet by Misses Sigrid Alm and Frances Arvidson, a vocal duet by Mrs. Axel Johnson and Miss Marian Robertson, and a violin solo by Miss Peck, accompanied by Miss Honey. The proceeds of the social, nearly $30, will be applied to the purchase of a new Victrola for the school.

Mrs. Augusta Palmblad returned last Saturday from Oak Grove, where she has spent the past two and a half months with her sons, Dave and Paul Palmblad and families. She is now with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Gustafson and family.

SANDY

Sandy grade school will give an entertainment at the Union high school auditorium on Thanksgiving eve, November 28. Refreshments will be served following the entertainment. Miss Lottie Tomlinson is the principal of the school.

The Rev. E. G. Ranton of Pleasant Home preached last Sunday at the Methodist church by invitation of people of the community. He also gave several violin selections and he and Mrs. Ranton sang a duet. Their services were well received.

R. C. Frace of Sandy is employed at Bull Run building two new bungalows for the P. R. L. & P. company.

Harry Mitchell of Sandy, special in civil engineering, is recovering from an injury received during homecoming week-end, when a circular saw fell on his foot, according to word received from Oregon Agricultural College. Mitchell is a member of Sigma Gamma fraternity.

Ford Four-Door Sedan

Fully equipped, $665, f. o. b. Detroit

Inside and out, the new Ford Four-door Sedan shows improvements of far more than usual importance.

It is lower and sturdier in appearance. New cowl, hood, radiator and apron add size and finish to the front. Sun visor, and wide, well-finished aluminum doors with bar handles perfect the design of the body.

Silk window curtains, deep broad-cloth upholstery; dome light, door lock, window regulators and handles, all finished in nickel, complete a refinement you would expect only at a far higher price.
