GRESHAM LOCALS

Community services will be held as usual in the Odd Fellows hall next Sunday afternoon, November 25, at 2:30. S. F. Pitts, pastor of the Cottrell community church preached to a large audience last Sunday and the meeting was greatly enjoyed by everyone. All are invited to attend.

Work has commenced on a modern 5-room bungalow which is being built for Mrs. Ella Hornish next to her residence on First street. Mrs. Hornish plans to occupy the new house when completed. This will vacate the lower part of the house which she now occupies, which will be fitted up for rent. H. C. Bell of Corbett, a brother of Mrs. Hornish, is in charge of the work. He is assisted by Gus Eklund of Portland.

The auxiliary to the American Legion will meet on Tuesday evening, November 27, in Metzger's hall. This is the regular business meeting and a good attendance of members is expected.

A union Thanksgiving service will be held Thanksgiving Day at the German Evangelical church at 10:30 a. m. The choir of the local church will provide the music. The Rev. A. S. Hisey of the Methodist church will preach the sermon. The services will be held within the limits of one hour. The public is invited to attend this service and return thanks to Almighty God for the prosperity and plenty of a bountiful year.

The junior and primary departments of the Methodist Sunday school are busy preparing an attractive little cantata, "How Santa Explained." This will be given at an early date in December.

H. W. Adrian, former motion picture show man here, was a business visitor in Gresham today and was a caller at the Outlook office. Mr. Adrian, who is in the furniture business in Woodstock, is adding to his business by the purchase of a stock of hardware. Some of his friends here may not know that last summer he married Miss Nellie Lee Jones, who had been here a number of times.

A daughter was born last Tuesday morning to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Busick.

Edward Schwedler, who joined the navy about three weeks ago and left for San Diego, California, plans to get some preliminary training and later attend Annapolis Naval academy.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Anderson have as a guest this week Miss Katherine Johnson, an old neighbor in North Dakota.

The committee of the Woman's Home Missionary society to look after packing the supplies for the Portland Settlement center consists of Mrs. C. J. Lundquist, Mrs. D. E. Towle, Mrs. W. E. Beegle and Mrs. A. W. Shipley. They expect to do the work tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. T. R. Howitt.

20TH CENTURY GROCERS AND COFFEE ROASTERS

Mrs. M. E. Gilmore, who was sick the early part of the week, is reported improved.

Mrs. Will Williams of Amity is visiting her mother, Mrs. Fietta Hibbard, and other relatives this week.

A little daughter, Virginia May, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Earl Stanley on November 15. Mother and daughter are doing fine.

Mrs. P. A. Gould was given a birthday shower yesterday, the occasion being her 71st birthday. Postcards, letters and gifts, including a beautiful birthday cake, continued to come in all day. Mrs. Gould expressed her deep appreciation to all who had remembered her.

A pleasant surprise party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Spence on Saturday evening when about 40 of their friends came to spend the evening with them. Dancing was the principal entertainment of the evening, and refreshments were served at a late hour.

"Universal Brotherhood is the Goal"

"Come thou with us and we will do thee good."

DAVID Q. BARRY, B. Th., Pastor.

Could You Blame Dad?

? With fear and trembling the YOUNG MAN waited for a good opportunity and finally asked HER FATHER.

"I know you and like you. You are clean and straight, but let me see your Savings Account book, please," the father replied.

The YOUNG MAN blushed violently and confessed that he had NONE.

"If you mean business, young man," continued the father, "come back a year from now and show me your pass book. You can have no daughter of mine until you show me that you have got backbone enough to save a substantial amount out of every pay check."

"The power a man puts into saving, measures the power of the man in every-
