THANKSGIVING AND LIFE.

Thanksgiving is at hand. "What have I to be thankful for?" you ask We reply, Everything. What? Everything? Yes, everything; because everything that has come into your life during the past year, or years, has been intended by an all-wise Providence for your good.

It is indication of lack of faith and confidence to say you can be thankful for some things—the pleasant conditions and happy experiences, the comforts of life, joys of friendships, successes in business, etc. and not for all things.

In fact you may make curses out of the so-called blessings of today and you may make blessings out of the so-called curses of today. But undoubtedly God wills to make blessings out of all that touches our human lives.

In order that we may realize the full benefit of the divine plan it is necessary that we believe that all things work together for good and that we be thankful.

Here then is the broadest, surest possible basis for thanksgiving.

Thanksgiving Day is, of course, a recognition of national blessings, an acknowledgment that the hand of our God has been upon us for good and a confession of our dependence upon the God of heaven.

We do not all see things alike. Some do not look as deeply into existing conditions as others, some do not look as hopefully into the future as others, but all, at this Thanksgiving season, can find abundant causes, both personal and national, for thankfulness and unnumbered ways of giving outward expression to a sincere inward gratitude.

Undoubtedly the most sincere and lasting way of expressing thanksgiving is by thanksgiving, doing something for someone whom you consider less favored than yourself.

WHY WORRY?

If you were always accompanied by a giant to protect you, you wouldn't worry.

If you always had the wisest person in the world to counsel you, you wouldn't worry.

If you had a guide who could always lead you in the safest way, you wouldn't worry.

If you had a bank account sufficient for your every need, you wouldn't worry.

If you had plenty of loyal friends, you wouldn't worry.

If you had abounding health and strength, you wouldn't worry.

If you had good common sense and trust in God, without any of these others, you wouldn't worry.

WHAT'S IN A COLOR.

The Creator made the ripened Italian prune a purple color. Not long ago a campaign was started to sell prunes in China because they go so well with rice. But purple is the Chinese color for old age and death, and the campaign struck a snag. A pink or yellow label will sell more prunes in the land of the rising sun.

A Portland man claims to have crossed a peach tree with a strawberry vine. He has a tree about 40 inches tall, with 16 branches, that show the strawberry characteristics. He hasn't any fruit yet but expects the tree will come into bearing ere long. Will he get peaches with a strawberry flavor, or strawberries the size of peaches, or a new fruit with hitherto unknown characteristics?

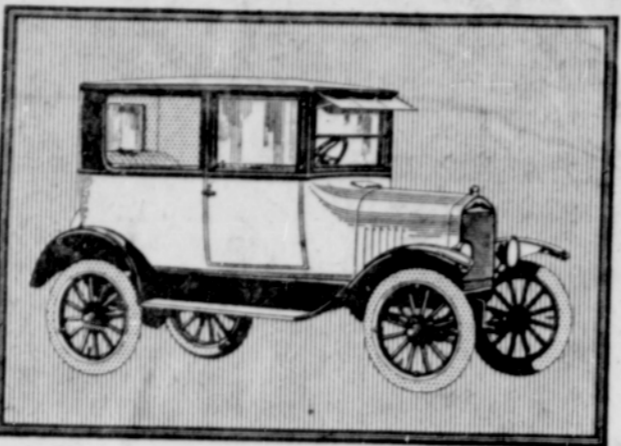

A friend of the Outlook living at a distance sends a check with the remark that he hopes it will reach us before Thursday and be an additional reason for thanksgiving. It sure am, as the account was long over due.

"In Oregon we have roads and climate and scenery and low living costs that cannot be equalled in all America."—Dudley, in Oregon Business.

If the price of bread were reduced perhaps more wheat would be consumed.

KELSO

The Woman's club of Kelso will have a sale of handmade articles on Saturday evening, December 8. An entertaining program will be given. Coffee, cake, sandwiches, homemade candy and pop corn will also be sold. Everything will be reasonably priced. Proceeds will go toward the playshed fund.

The Women's club met last Thursday at the home of Mrs. E. V. Erickson. There were present Mesdames Erickson, Herz, T. Dunn, J. Matthews, Peterson and Jonsrud, and Mrs. Paul Dunn and Mrs. P. C. Spooner became members at this meeting. Final plans were made for building the playshed.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Eri are rejoicing over the birth of a baby girl on November the 21st. Mother and child are doing well and Mrs. Gilbert Hauglum is acting as nurse.

Mrs. Olaf Lindholm passed away at a Portland hospital Thursday morning after undergoing an operation for cancer. Mrs. Lindholm was a native of Sweden and the family came from Kansas to Kelso about 21 years ago where they have since lived except for a few years spent in Portland. She is survived by her husband, one son, Andrew Lindholm, and four daughters. She was a member of the Swedish Baptist church.

Eri & Jonsrud are building a good sized warehouse in connection with their store which will be a big help in their growing business.

POWELL VALLEY

The Deborah Ladies' Aid of the Mission church is very grateful to all who contributed to the success of the bazaar Saturday evening. About $166 were realized, which will be expended along different lines of church activity.

Mr. and Mrs. David Johnston spent Sunday with C. A. Lundquist and family.

Arthur Fager and Oscar Arvidson accompanied Carl Arvidson home from Portland and remained over Sunday with him at his home.

Mrs. Augusta Palmblad has returned from Portland and will spend some time with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gustafson and family.

Mr. and Mrs. John Strebin have purchased the Morgan property on the Canyon road and have moved into their new home. Tuesday evening about 25 friends gave them a pleasant surprise.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Klinsky will occupy the farm recently vacated by John Strebin and family.

Chas. Soderquist went to Portland Monday to look after business affairs. Charley Lundquist is improving his property by the addition of a new garage, also a porch on the north side of his residence.

The pupils of the Powell Valley school will be entertained Wednesday by a Thanksgiving talk by Mrs. Thilman. There will also be appropriate musical selections. The new victrola is now in use and is proving a great pleasure to the children.

Among those who took part in the shower given on last Thursday evening in honor of Miss Ethel Calkins were Miss Audrey Johnson, Miss Agnes Lundquist and Miss Helen Larson, whose names were omitted from the account in the last Outlook.

During the war farmers were urged to raise more wheat and people were urged to eat less; now farmers are urged to grow less and eaters are urged to eat more.
