

GRESHAM LOCALS

At its regular meeting last Saturday Gresham grange elected the following officers to serve for the ensuing year: master, F. C. Hodge; overseer, A. Ruegg; lecturer, Mrs. Sophie Curry; steward, Mrs. Barbara Sleret; assistant steward, George Honey; chaplain, Mrs. Wm. Hornecker; secretary, Mrs. Minnie Squire; gatekeeper, George Sleret; treasurer, Geo. Leslie; Ceres, Mrs. Belle Thorne; Pomona, Miss Margaret Anicker; Flora, Mrs. Volbrecht; lady assistant, Mrs. Susie Ruegg.

The regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held at the library on next Thursday afternoon, December 13, at 2:30 o'clock.

At the meeting of the Odd Fellows lodge held last week the following officers were chosen to serve for the ensuing year: Harry Johnson, noble grand; Cecil Metzger, vice grand; C. A. Hill, secretary; Roy H. Gibbs, treasurer. The other offices, which are appointive, will be filled later. An important meeting of the lodge will be held on the next regular meeting night and a full attendance is desired.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. N. Taber, who recently moved from Pendleton to Longview, Washington, have been visiting with the latter's father, Wm. Thom and family. Mrs. Taber and little son will remain here for a time until arrangements for a home at Longview can be completed.

S. S. Pugh of Portland visited friends in Gresham on Sunday.

A marriage license was issued in Vancouver, Washington, for Roland W. Rogers and Miss Wilma Atterbury of Portland. Miss Atterbury is a former Gresham girl.

Gresham Rebekahs are filling a box with toys for the children of the Odd Fellows home. Any wishing to contribute may leave articles with Mrs. A. McManus, Mrs. Harry Warden or Mrs. E. B. Kirkwood.

Recent news items from Vancouver, Washington, tell of the successful year just closed by the chamber of commerce of that place and of the sound financial standing. All bills are paid and the treasury shows a balance of $1075 to its credit. A year ago the chamber owed $900 and was facing a suit to collect back rent for the rooms it occupied. Lewis Shattuck, pioneer president of this place and first mayor of Gresham, is president.

Guests honoring K. A. Miller and daughter Virginia last Sunday on the occasion of their birthdays were Mr. Miller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Miller of Portland and his brother, Dr. R. W. Miller of Los Angeles, California.

A fine pre-Christmas program was given at the Methodist Episcopal church last Sunday night by the junior and primary departments which was enjoyed by an audience which filled the house. The older members of the school will give a program on Sunday evening before Christmas.

Turkey shoots will be held December 22 and 23 at the Multnomah county fair grounds in Gresham. They are given under auspices of the Gresham Gun club.

Charles Bronw, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Brown of Gresham and clerk in the Fellows pharmacy in Portland, was one of three men help up and robbed at the Fellows pharmacy last night by three armed youths who entered the store and backed the occupants behind a partition at the rear of the store and robbed them of a few dollars. They took $30 from the cash register.

Mr. and Mrs. Galen Fancher and A. G. Pullen, who have been for several months at Spray, Oregon, where the men were engaged in road work, have returned to this vicinity. They are at the home of their mother, Mrs. W. E. Beegle for the present. They were accompanied here by Mrs. R. A. Starbuck of Umatilla, Oregon, who will remain until after the holidays.
