Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wonacott and daughter Maxine and Mrs. Wonacott's mother, Mrs. Lena Needham, arrived by automobile yesterday from San Francisco, where Mrs. Needham went recently to visit with her daughter and other relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Hammar and daughter, Regina, expect to leave on next Thursday morning, Dec. 20, for Brantford, Kansas, where they will attend the golden wedding celebration of Mr. Hammar's parents on December 26. When the invitation came Mr. Hammar wrote that he could not get away at this time. However, an urgent telegram and three tickets from his father caused him to change his plans and accept the invitation.

Guests of the Rev. and Mrs. D. Q. Barry at the Baptist parsonage for several days last week were Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Parrish, their daughters Josephine and Evelyn and son Harold.

NOTICE TO PUBLIC.

I will be absent until about Jan. 15. My work will be in charge of A. Ruegg and C. Owsley. Phone orders for plaster and cement work, Gresham 195x.
AL. HAMMAR.

Christian Faith.

Christmas is at hand, that feast which above all others expresses with the highest poetic grandeur and the most infinite tenderness the genius of the christian faith. Whatever our beliefs may be, we all raise high our voices in a supreme appeal to the opinion of the world, that it may help us and help our endeavors, and aid us to fulfill that promise, at once human and divine, "Peace on earth, good-will to men."—M. Motla.

POMONA WILL MEET WITH PLEASANT VALLEY GRANGE

Multnomah Pomona grange will meet with Pleasant Valley grange on Wednesday, December 19, in an all-day session. R. W. Gill will preside and Mrs. Mary E. Palmer, the lecturer, has arranged for a good program. There will be work in the fifth degree in the evening. Pleasant Valley grange will furnish dinner and supper.

EASTERN STAR PAST MATRONS TO INSTALL

Installation of the newly elected officers of Gresham Chapter Order of Eastern Star will take place on Wednesday evening, December 26, when three past matrons will put on the work. Mrs. O. J. Brown will be installing officer, Mrs. O. A. Eastman installing marshal and Mrs. Carrie Powell installing chaplain. Miss Florence Honey, a past organist, will have charge of the music.

Great Christmas Sport.

What has become of the boy of half a century ago who on Christmas morning would take his single-barrel muzzle-loader with 15 cents worth of ammunition and fare forth in the snow to shoot rabbits, and think he was having the best time ever?

Christmas Opportunities.

Talking about Christmas opportunities to do good, there's an opportunity for every fellow with a Christmas heart, and always has been. And, it is not always hard to locate, either.

GOLDEN MOON.

By MARY SAIKI.
Golden moon, golden moon!
Let down your golden light,
For a soul has taken flight,
Light the way to the Father's throne,
Leave him not out there alone,
Golden moon, golden moon.

Go to the dear one left at home,
Send to her your brightest ray,
Tell her what I can not say,
Say that her loved one now is where
He's ever safe in the Father's care,
Golden moon, golden moon.

Golden moon, golden moon,
Send down your softest ray
To take the sad tears away,
Hasten all comfort to bring
On your swiftly gliding wing,
Golden moon, golden moon.

Golden moon, golden moon,
With your promise of golden love,
The message you brought from above,
Do tell her that she's very dear
To those that are still left here,
Golden moon, golden moon.

Golden moon, golden moon
Whisper soft as cradle song,
Tell her it will not be long
Till once more they'll meet above
On that beautiful shore of love,
Golden moon, golden moon.

Prosperity on partial payments

Do you know that every man can buy PROSPERITY by partial payments as easily as he can buy a piano, a car, a sewing machine or a home?

Start a Savings Account at this bank TODAY with say $3; add an equal amount each week and stick to it.

In five years this investment will equal $864.14.

In ten years you have $1918.92. Other amounts in proportion.

Those who live-up all their income court disaster. Let us defer some of the pleasures of the passing moment—forget about spending it and in a few years it will mean a home, a farm, a business.

If we don't—look out. It is old age, rheumatism and a pick and shovel.

"The first years of man must make provision for the last."—Johnson.

Christmas Time.

I have always thought of Christmas time, when it has come around, as a good time, a kind, forgiving, charitable, pleasant time, the only time I know of, in the long calendar of the year, when men and women seem by one consent to open their shut-up hearts freely. And, therefore, though it has never put a scrap of gold or silver in my pocket, I believe that it has done me good, and will do me good; and I say, God bless it—Charles Dickens.
