

GRESHAM LOCALS

Attorney and Mrs. Clifford G. Schneider entertained at dinner on Sunday the former's mother, Mrs. Ella Schneider and sisters, the Misses Eva and Alberta Schneider of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Wells and son Donald of Independence, Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Schneider of Pendleton and Boyd Wolf of Portland.

The Gresham Odd Fellows lodge will confer the initiatory degree on two candidates at its next regular meeting on Thursday night, January 3. All members of the degree team and members of the lodge are urged to be present.

The Misses Clara and Florence Auclair entertained a few friends Saturday evening in honor of Mrs. Emmett Welling of Baker, Oregon, who is visiting relatives and friends in Gresham. A delightful evening was spent with games, and refreshments were served. Those present besides the hostesses and guest of honor were the Misses Eva Tacheron, Evelyn and Mabel Metzger and Mrs. Herbert Ryan.

Mrs. Inez Miller from the University of Oregon and Mrs. Ethel Miller of Rickreall spent last week visiting with their mother, Mrs. Elizabeth McLain and attending the sessions of the Oregon State Teachers' association. They have returned to their work and their mother has gone to Power, Oregon, to spend several weeks with another daughter, Mrs. J. W. Miller.

Fred and Frank Southard have gone to California on a business trip. Harry, the 7-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Powell is ill with diphtheria at the family home in Portland. The child was recovering from measles when attacked by diphtheria. He is reported to be improving.

Another shower was given in honor of Miss Ethel Calkins last Thursday evening by Mrs. Bert Long, Mrs. Mary Dodge, Miss Maude Michel and Miss Marian Robertson, the affair being given at the Robertson home. Twenty-three guests were present, among them being Miss Helen Cowgill, high school and Normal school classmates and those closely associated with Miss Calkins in her work. Holly and roses formed the decorations and the gifts were placed on a Christmas tree. An interesting feature of the evening was a "Life of Miss Calkins," in rhyme by Miss Alta Gentry.

Mrs. H. J. Fleischer has accepted a position as teacher in the Stayton high school and is moving there with her children to take up the work at once.

Dr. and Mrs. Merritt L. Kleaver of Yreka, California, have been visiting for the past few days with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Teevin and brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Chiodo. They came by automobile and are on their way home. Mrs. Kleaver will be remembered as Miss Nora Teevin.

Miss Gertrude Dowsett, a senior at O. A. C., returned today to resume her studies after spending the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Dowsett. A guest at the Dowsett home is Charles Clyde of Chippewa Falls, Wisconsin, a nephew of Mrs. Dowsett.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Calkins have returned from Newport where they went to spend Christmas. Their nephew and another man whom they went there to visit are coast guards and were called out the day before Christmas to search for a man who was afterward found to be drowned. On account of the terrific storm the guards could not come into the harbor until the day after Christmas. They had been in an open life boat for 46 hours and were drenched and chilled and almost exhausted.

A letter to the Outlook from James Lawrence, who is spending the winter in California, tells of a fine time with old friends and relatives. He has visited in Lodie with Mr. and Mrs. Dan Metzger, in San Francisco with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kern and in Los Angeles with Mrs. Rose Markley. He is spending the winter in Pasadena with relatives of George Page.

Miss Willa Bushong, who has spent the past week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bushong, is returning today to resume her studies in Seattle-Pacific college, where she is a senior. Kenneth Calkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Calkins, went to Ione, Oregon, on Monday to attend the wedding of Miss Doris Frank of that place. Miss Marion Calkins is visiting with relatives in Portland this week. Visitors at the Calkins home over Christmas were George Engle and the Misses Ella and Lettie Engle of Portland.
