DEEP CREEK

A birthday dinner was given Saturday evening in honor of Dave Fosberg. A party was given in Mr. LeKander's honor last Friday night. Covers were laid for 16 guests. The birthday cake was an attractive one and contained 58 candles. At a late hour the party adjourned.

A debate was given at the Deep Creek school Thursday on the subject, "Resolved that Oregon was justified in passing the school bill." On the affirmative were Dorothy Hanson, Anita Anderson and Lloyd Hedden and on the negative Evelyn Hedden, Ina Richey and Ethel Berglund. The following acted as judges: D. Erdman, Mrs. V. E. Fosberg and F. Carlson. Their decision favored the affirmative.

Miss Bernice Jude of Portland spent the week-end with the LeKander sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. Borling were dinner guests at John A. Anderson's.

Art Berglund and Amelia Krebs spent Tuesday evening in Portland.

Mrs. Nels LeKander spent the week-end with her daughter, Mrs. W. G. Bednar of Damascus.

Mr. Bodin and Miss Lane of Portland were visitors at the John A. Anderson home Sunday.

Mr. LeKander and daughter Alice spent Monday evening at John Anderson's.

Rudolph Krebs of Sandy Ridge visited with his home folks Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson spent the week-end in Portland. While there a dinner was given in Mrs. Anderson's honor and that of her two grandchildren, the occasion being their birthday.

Services have been conducted every night except Saturday at the Baptist church by John Bruce and Herbert Zerble.
