

The great governor of the universe has led us too long and too far on the road to happiness and glory to forsake us in the midst of it.—Washington.

Rum is, in my opinion, the bane of morals and the parent of idleness.—Washington.

His Cin-ema.
 Poor Old Man—"Lady, could yer gimme a quarter to get where me family is?"
 Kind Lady—"Certainly, my poor man, here's a quarter. Where is your family?"
 P. O. M.—"At de movies."

Arnet Ree and Sam Peterson, of Kill Deer, North Dakota, visited Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Whetstone this week. They were on their way home having spent the winter in Los Angeles. They were especially pleased with what they saw of this part of Oregon and expect to return with their families the coming summer.

Mrs. Amber Leland of Springdale spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Emma Gilmore.

Cards have been received by the relatives here announcing the marriage in Tulare, California, of Mrs. Minnie Atkinson of Portland and Dr. M. C. George of Newberg on January 23d, last.

Word has been received by Mrs. H. C. Larsen from Mrs. Melville T. Wire of Astoria, telling of the recent operation of a "burson" growth on the wrist of the Rev. Mr. Wire. This is the fourth time he has had a similar operation. It is expected that this will bring permanent relief.

Cleveland Bliss and Ellsworth Raker recently took the examination for second lieutenant in the national guard. The results have not been announced.

Regular meeting of the Ladies' auxiliary of the American Legion will be held Tuesday evening, February 26 in Metzger's hall. All members are urged to be present at 8 o'clock.

Secretary Leslie Walrad has notified all members of the Gresham commercial club of an important special meeting Monday night at the city hall to settle up all matters pertaining to the recent former's banquet.

Mrs. H. C. Larsen entertained a party of young people from the denominational church last Monday. The evening was a most enjoyable one to all. A dainty luncheon was served.

The regular meeting of the Gresham Rebekah lodge will be held on next Monday evening, February 25. The degree staff is expected to be present for work.

Friends of Mrs. Ruby Buckle will be pleased to learn that the obstruction which threatened the life of her infant son has been removed without a surgical operation. Vomiting was induced and the membrane closing the throat was broken.

Mrs. Maud Glover of California is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Wonacott.

A surprise party of interest to many Gresham people was given early this week in Portland in honor of the 20th birthday of Robert Morgan at the home of his brother Will and wife. Those attending from here were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gibbs and son Clifford and Henry Morgan and family. From the Lusted district those attending were Fred Morgan and Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Kilinski.

Work on Fred Todd's new paint and wall paper shop in the Boughner building on Powell street is nearly completed and already Mr. Todd has a good showing of stock in both lines on his shelves. He will use the west half of the building, which has a neat store at the front and a work room at the rear, and has rented the east half of the building to Alan Hamilton for an electrical shop. The carpenter work for Mr. Todd is being done by his father, Dr. R. H. Todd. W. K. Hamilton is fitting up the electrical store for his son.

The adjourned meeting of the stockholders of the Multnomah & Clackamas County Mutual Telephone company will be held at Metzger's hall on next Monday afternoon, February 25. An effort is being made to get as full a representation of stock as possible on account of important business to come before the meeting.

George Washington

Was not only a statesman and a soldier but he was also a business man. He handled his property and managed his farms with careful foresight, economy and thrift. He kept close accounts of all expenditures and was saving.

February 22d is Washington's birthday anniversary. No finer tribute could we pay him than to determine to be as wise, as patriotic and as thrifty as he.

BIG AUCTION SALE OF CHOICE DAIRY COWS AT COTTRELL, OREGON Wednesday, Feb. 27

widow of John Hamlin, formerly of Gresham, took place yesterday in the Gresham cemetery. Mrs. Hamlin died in Oregon City, where the funeral services were held.

A delightful birthday party was given last night at the home of Mrs. J. McClure in honor of the 84th birthday of her father-in-law, Hugh McClure. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Cooley, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Osburn, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Warden and daughter Muriel, Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Whetzel and son Earl, Hugh and Elsworth McClure, grandsons of the guest of honor. Mr. McClure came here from his home in Michigan in December for a visit with his relatives. He will leave soon for his home, stopping in Livingston, Montana, to visit his son. From there he will go to visit relatives in Pennsylvania and from there home, traveling all the way alone. He has announced his intention of making another trip west.

Principal R. E. Cannon of the high school and Mrs. Cannon have taken into their home a little boy, John, with the expectation of adopting him later. The child is a bright little fellow 5 years old and all seem delighted with the arrangement.
