FAIRVIEW

The Women's Society of the Smith Memorial church held its annual business meeting and election of officers Thursday at the home of Mrs. A. L. Stone. The basket lunch at 1 o'clock proved to be a real feast. The president, Mrs. Christine Donaugh, presided at the business meeting. The officers for the coming year were unanimously elected. They are president, Mrs. Donaugh; 1st vice president, Mrs. S. P. Osburn; 2d vice president, Mrs. John Jonas; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. E. R. D. Hollensted.

Plans for a tea and sale on March 20 were discussed and the place will be announced later.

A bee for beautifying the grounds of the Smith Memorial Presbyterian church was held last Saturday under the supervision of Dr. Steward Briggs. Shrubbery and plants were set out. The work will be continued next Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock, and all who have plants and bulbs to spare are requested to bring them.

Next Sunday the annual canvas for the year's budget of the Smith Memorial Presbyterian church will be made. Letters with subscription cards have been mailed to all members and friends of the church. Teams of men will call for these from 2 to 5 o'clock, and it is hoped that the canvas may be completed on that day. There has been marked progress along all the lines of the church's work and benevolences, and the coming year bid promise of greater things.

The pastor has received a fund for the painting of two large signs, to be put on the Columbia river highway, making announcements of the service and appealing to tourists and travelers passing within a block of the church, inviting them to attend.

The Rev. and Mrs. E. R. D. Hollensted drove to Albany Monday, where Mrs. Hollensted expects to spend a week visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. K. Peery.

ROCKWOOD

The program given on Saturday evening, March 1, by the P.-T. A., was a great success. The pantomime "Barney Google" caused much laughter and the dialogue was extra good, with "Tootsie," the dog, as star actress. Norwegian and Hawaiian acts were also much enjoyed. The act of the colored artists caused much merriment. The ladies have been induced to repeat the program, this time at the Fairview city hall, on March 15. Winners in various contests which were staged were Mrs. G. W. McCauley, Fred Thompson and "Happy", a guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Dye.

A cooking class under the auspices of the home economics committee of the Rockwood grange will be held in the Rockwood grange hall on Wednesday afternoon, March 12 at 1:30. All ladies are cordially invited to attend. The cooking will be done by an expert from the Portland Flouring mills on a Vulcan Smoothtop range furnished by the Portland Gas & Coke company.

TROUTDALE WOMAN HEADS GRAND JURY

"Ladies and gentleman," is the way the county grand jury will be addressed this month for that inquisitorial body consists of six women and one man. It just lacked one of being all women as the man got on because one woman asked to be excused.

When the jury organized for work Mrs. Francis May Fox, of Troutdale, was selected as presiding officer.

Incidentally Lou Harlow is calendar clerk of the circuit court and is supposed to shuffle the names in the box, having an equal number of names of men and women.

While it is rather a freak situation there is no doubt these women, all good and true, with the aid of one man and the instructions of deputy county attorney Mowry, will be able to do their part in the administration of justice in the county during March.

COUNTY COUNCIL WILL MEET AT CORBETT

The County Council of Parent-Teacher associations will meet next Saturday, March 15, at the high school at Corbett. The business session will begin at 11 o'clock. Lunch will be enjoyed at noon and in the afternoon a program will be given. Brenton Vedder, county school superintendent of Clackamas county, talked on county units and taxation from the Oregon school laws.

Mr. Ault is in Portland tearing down a locomotive for Mickelson & Nelson and will go to that camp and set the locomotive up again.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wilkenson entertained Mr. and Mrs. Steve Splawn and family to dinner Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Watkins visited in the afternoon. Lewis Haughlum is able to be up again after quite a seige of pneumonia. Mrs. Ulm has moved out to the Hedin place, where her husband has been for some time.

The Parent-Teacher association held its regular meeting Friday, March 7. A very good meeting was held. Funds were too low to meet the last payment on the moving picture machine so H. H. Watkins and E. E. Van Fleet kindly loaned the amount until the association can meet the obligation. The next movie will be March 21. All are invited to patronize the interesting and educational entertainment.

SANDY

Oregon City went at basketball over Sandy on the local floor last Saturday night by a score of 17 to 5. However, the game was much closer than the score indicates.

At a special meeting of taxpayers of the Sandy Union High school district it was voted to issue warrants to cover the cost of grading the play grounds of the school. The contract was awarded to Tom Milan. The work is to be completed by April.

The county physician and county health nurse visited the Sandy schools on Thursday of last week and reported health conditions in the grade school among the best in the county.

Jack Greenwood of Cherryville has announced his candidacy for representative from Clackamas county on the republican ticket.
