

GRESHAM LOCALS

Mrs. Andrew Brugger, who was taken to Good Samaritan hospital in Portland last Monday suffering from a broken arm and injuries to her back is described by those who have visited her as being in a hopeful condition. The injury to the back proved to be a dislocation of vertebrae and she is being treated for that.

The regular meeting of the Gresham Rebekahs will be held on Monday evening, March 24. All staff officers are expected to be present for degree work.

The Hessel Implement company has been incorporated with $10,000 capital. W. A. Hessel is president and treasurer, J. C. Hessel, a brother of W. A., is vice president and J. W. Hartford is secretary. Plans are under way for the erection by the company of a machinery and used car warehouse on property leased from John Metzger, just north of the Ely building. The new building will be 40 by 70 feet, of frame construction but covered with corrugated iron on sides and roof. It will be built during April.

Hepp Brothers big special sale is attracting many visitors to the store, which offers practically everything in the novelty lines and many articles besides.

Mrs. Smythe of New York and Mrs. Gillenwater of Eugene, nieces of Dr. Frank Peak, are the guests for a few days at the Peak home.

The regular meeting of the Methodist Ladies' Aid will be held in the church parlors on Wednesday afternoon, March 26, promptly at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. Bartlett of Portland will be there to demonstrate the smooth top gas range. The Dorcas circle of the Aid will be hostess.

The Misses Clara and Florence Auclair entertained on St. Patrick's day with an enjoyable and attractive party. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Wack, Mr. and Mrs. N. Anton, Joe Pateneau, Miss Lucile Wack and Charles Clyde, local people, also Mrs. Ebner, Miss Anna Ebner, Mr. and Mrs. Jack McKenna, all of Portland.

Mrs. Gertrude Schanno went to Centralia, Washington, Wednesday to visit her mother, Mrs. Fred Beuerley. She returned last night.

The ladies of the Gresham grange will give a bake sale at the hall on Saturday, March 22, beginning at 11 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Althaus of Sweet Brier farm entertained yesterday a boyhood chum of the former, Cyrus Locher of Cleveland, Ohio. Mr. Locher was formerly prosecuting attorney for the city of Cleveland and is now a member of the United States Commerce commission. Mr. and Mrs. Althaus took their guest up the Columbia river highway as far as Multnomah falls. He was particularly impressed with the wonderful play ground offered here to the public and the unlimited water power available. He said that farming conditions here are easy compared with those in his own state.

University of Oregon students who are home for the spring vacation are Victor Adix, Louis Maulding and Miss Mary Cogswell. Among the students from O. A. C. are Melvin Brugger, Glen Mercer and Gordon Gibson.

B. O. Boswell, who is at a Portland hospital for treatment, is said to be seriously ill.

Miss Clara Auclair leaves this week for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. Barlow at their attractive country home in Happy Valley. Miss Florence Auclair will join her sister for the weekend.

Miss Myrtle Rusher has been absent from her work at the Walrad Mercantile store for several days on account of illness. She is reported to be improving.

Mrs. Ella Oliphant visited with friends in Gresham yesterday. She has recently returned to her home in the Arleta district of Portland and the Arleta district of Portland after a visit of several months in California.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Clanahan plan to leave in the morning for Seaside to spend two or three weeks with their son, Dr. Earl Clanahan and wife.

Mrs. John Metzger has returned from a trip to Seaside in company with her son Walter Metzger and family of Boring.

L. V. St. Clair has returned to his home here after spending the winter engaged in logging operations near Lewiston, Idaho.

The residence of L. A. Wack was ransacked one evening last week while the family was absent, entrance being made by prying open a window. Things were pretty well scattered around on the upper floor but nothing of value was missing.
