BORING READER LIKES BOBBED HAIR FOR WOMEN

Boring, Oregon, March 21, 1924.—Editor Outlook:—The bobbed hair craze has struck Boring and vicinity squarely and only a few of the more elderly matrons have escaped thus far. But this craze, unlike so many, is such a sensible and sanitary one and we hope is not only here, but every where to stay. In a few more years long tresses on women will be as rare as they are on men at the present day and we would no more wish to go back to them than to the trailing and hooped skirts of the past. Bobbed hair is no longer the sign of the flapper for old and young alike are really enjoying this new style.
BORING READER.
