

Flowers for Easter

Flowers are Spring's messengers, bringing the promise of continued happiness to the joyful Easter Season.

What could be a more suitable Easter gift for mother, wife, sweetheart, aunt, or dear friend than an Easter lily? The sturdiness and vigor of our potted lilies insure many beautiful blooms over the longest possible period.

Little Leona Vedder was taken to the Good Samaritan hospital and operated on Friday for mastoiditis, the after effects of the measles. She is getting along fine.

Mrs. C. A. Johnson of Tillamook, was a recent visitor at the homes of her brothers, Paul and Guy Vedder.

P. W. Thoren of Decatur county, Kansas, is visiting with his son, Oscar W. Thoren and his daughters, Mrs. O. J. Wilner and Mrs. E. Myers of Powell Valley. He is accompanied by his daughter, Miss Ethel Thoren.

Glen Mercer spent the week-end at Corvallis where he was initiated into the Phi Kappa Alpha fraternity in connection with Oregon Agricultural college. He plans to return to the college in the fall to continue his studies.

The Camp Fire Girls held an initiation and ceremonial in the parlors of the Methodist Episcopal church last Tuesday evening. Those who were initiated were Elizabeth Horning and Frances Welling. Joyce Kidder, Eleanor Botkin and Dorothy Cooper lighted the candles of "work, health and love," and they were extinguished by Helen Hisey, Eleanor Botkin and Lillie Nelson. Refreshments were served following the work.

The regular meeting of the Auxiliary to the American Legion will be held in Metzger's hall next Tuesday evening, April 22. This will be an important meeting and a good attendance is desired.

Walter C. Burch has returned from Roseburg where he had been for about six weeks.

It is reported on good authority that the company making the excavation for the new pipe line will be in a position to deliver dirt on the fair grounds within the next two weeks. There are low places around the grounds and the race track where fills will be made and a movement is on foot to have a fill made inside the race track suitable for a baseball diamond. This dirt will cost the fair board nothing as the company seeks a place to dump the surplus dirt.

The general meeting of the Methodist Ladies Aid will be held at the church on Wednesday afternoon, April 23. Reports of each of the circles for the year will be given. The S. and S. circle will act as hostess.

Mrs. Myrtle Ball and daughter Anna of Portland are visiting with the former's mother, Mrs. P. A. Gould.

Carl Dahl is showing an exhibit of Bixby's shoe polish in his windows and also shows a shining cabinet, to be given free to the person guessing the nearest correct number of beans in a jar. More complete information is given elsewhere in this paper.

The eighth grade exemption tests are being held at Gresham and in Portland today. They were held at Corbett yesterday. Mr. Alderson says the class at Gresham is the largest ever held, there being about 100. The test is in charge of the county school superintendent assisted by the principals of the various schools.

The districts represented here are Gresham, Fairview, Rockwood, Lynch, Cedar, Powell Valley, Victory, Orient and Pleasant Valley.

Oscar W. Thoren has improved his woodworking shop by the installation of a band saw. He has remodeled his old shop and has made of it a dry kiln capable of holding 5000 feet of lumber.

Melvin S. Carman, a former resident of Gresham, died at his home in Portland Wednesday, aged 76 years. Funeral services were held this afternoon and interment at Mt. Scott cemetery.
