

GRESHAM OUTLOOK

Published every Tuesday and Friday at Gresham, Oregon, by the Outlook Publishing Co., H. L. St. Clair, Editor and Manager.

One year, $1.50, six months, 85c, three months' trial subscription, 50c. Combination rates with all the Portland Dailies.

ADVERTISING Rates reasonable. Our representative will call. Official paper of the Town of Gresham. Official paper of the Town of Fairview.

Entered as second-class matter March 3, 1911, at the Postoffice at Gresham, Oregon, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

The next thing will be to investigate the investigators.

It doesn't pay to elect a small man for a big job.

If you want a thing done right begin it right.

Much of this present-day whiskey is aged in wood, but the wood is provided by the undertaker.

It is reported that Hiram Johnson is running for president. If so that's all there is to it.

Heredity is something that most men believe in up to the time their sons and daughters begin to act like durned fools.

"Barney" Goldstein, formerly United States district attorney and past exalted ruler, Portland Elks, is a candidate for state senator on the republican ticket.

One of the Strongest and Most Useful Men in the Senate.

Senator Charles L. McNary of Oregon is a senator who does not consume very much time in the senate debates, but at such times as he has something worth while to contribute to the discussion. It would facilitate the business of the senate if more senators were like him in this respect.

J. E. Bennett is one of the 39 candidates whose names will be on the republican primary ballot. He should be one of the 13 to be chosen. He is not a lawyer but a business man of wide experience and was almost nominated two years ago. His slogan is, "Honesty, Economy and more Pay Rolls for Oregon." He says if nominated and elected he will fight for clean, sensible legislation and that only, supporting those measures tending to better the condition of the citizens of this county and state, and will as vigorously oppose nonsensical legislation.

Army Notes of Interest. In 1925 but 609,910 World War veterans of draft age will be available for service in the event of an emergency. Of every dollar paid by the average citizen for government purposes, 48 cents goes for city taxes (this is based on the expenditures of 21 of the large cities); 42 cents for federal taxes and 10 cents for state taxes. Of the amount paid for federal taxes, but six cents goes for national defense and the army gets but two and one-half cents of this. In other words, we spend for national defense but six per cent of all taxes paid, and of this six per cent but two and one-half per cent goes for maintenance of the army, including its civilian components.

$1,210,000,000 FOR ONE LAW. The sixty-eighth congress has been convened four months.

The average expense of running the government is $10,000,000 a day. This money comes principally from the pockets of the business men and citizens.

After 121 days at $10,000,000 a day we have passed one appropriation bill. Does anybody care? Not a tinker's dam. The political coyotes have exhibited themselves in action—a new sensation every day. Indictments, resignations, talk of impeachments, private characters assailed, general destruction and a disgraceful party scramble for advantage has aroused the public cheer.

Has leadership vanished from the earth? Have both the party in power and the party out of power become paralyzed by the monotonous march to the machine tom tom? Have we become so sordid, so pleasure crazed, so selfish, so sodden that we don't care what happens either in village, county, state or nation so long as we can turn the tide to personal advantage and find our joy in gloating at character assassination?

John wants a contract to build catch basins in the village or haul the official garbage. Result? Silence of his soul and a vote for the gang. Bob wants to swing a few road contracts in the county or state and get a rake off—result? Tries to silence or prostitute the press, mislead the people and make them like it. Dick would exploit the nation by slipping over a special tariff schedule—call in Wall Street to ruin whatever opposition appears. Wrap the American flag around the building of "American industry" and make the people cheer. Have the people become so brow-beaten that they dare not even whisper, or are they so self interested that they will not stand up?

One hundred and thirty-six years ago Washington wrote to Lafayette: "The greatest danger to this new republic will be the listlessness of the voters."

Think it over. The answer of course lies in the ballot, a ballot not aimed at the destruction of this party or that but one aimed at placing in office men who really represent a viable Americanism, men who will answer publicly for their activities and their votes, men, who are not afraid to be heard.

Good Old Days "The old gray mare had her faults. But you didn't have to jack her nigh forefoot and whirl it around about 17 times, to get her started on a cold February morning." — Wahoo (Neb.) News.

COOPERATE—CAN YOU DO IT?

stress like this, it is not harming the rest of the cat any more than itself will be harmed. The hind legs work as fast as they can and in perfect harmony with the muscles that control the front legs—all with a view to covering as much ground as possible in as short a space of time as is consistent with good form!

In other words, Nature has arranged in her perfect plan for cooperation between parts whose interests are identical and competition between groups of these parts whose interests are opposed.

Herbert Spencer, famous scientist, said, "Society flourishes by the antagonism of its atoms." I cannot believe this. It seems to me that to win any great success the individual must be subordinated to the collective wish—the cat's hind leg must think first of the welfare of the whole cat and lastly or not at all of its own welfare, or if the cat loses its life, the leg dies also.

If men are to progress it must come through intelligent cooperation between groups of like minded individuals whose interests and aims and plans are woven through with a common warp of a sort. If bridges are to be built, roads made, factories established, agriculture forwarded, marketing simplified and education brought to perfection, men must work together and not against one another. No bee can run a hive—it takes a swarm working enthusiastically and happily together upon a participating plan.

The shoulder-to-shoulder idea is not a new one, nor do I project it here as new. I am leading, this time, from the general to the specific in order to get my thought before you; whereas it is usually my plan to work from the specific to the general. Variety is the spice of life.

You know there are two kinds of cooperation—the conscious and the subconscious. When you buy a ticket to Chicago you do not get a whole train to yourself—you ride with several hundred other good folks, all of whom happen to be going your way and whose interests are, for the time at least, identical with your own. You are unconsciously cooperating with those other folks on that trip. You go for a few dollars, whereas if you hired a train all to yourself it would cost you a young fortune. That is unconscious cooperation, the kind that goes on about you every day and the fruits of which are so obvious that a discussion of the economics would be valueless.

But the conscious-kind of cooperation is the type that requires an effort; oftentimes it requires an heroic subjugation of self that some men cannot stand.

What I am actually getting at is this, "Can you cooperate?" I know that your instinctive answer will be, "Of course!" but I am taking a prerogative that only "Old Jeff" can take with his readers and ask that you think deeply before you make me such a cock-sure answer. Think a "moment, brother. Do you cooperate with others whose interests are or should be identical with your own?"

Do you consciously cooperate with others? Even when this "heroic subjugation of self" comes up for decision? If you can always answer boldly, "Yes," then here is my hand, partner; you are one of a small but powerful minority. There are men, you know, who would rather bust up the whole works than to lose their point—they must have their way even though it means the end of things. And there are still others who believe that they have done their share when they join a cooperative body of one sort or another and have placed themselves in a position to authoritatively criticize the management!

Even though you do not like the way the other fellow wears his tie, cooperate with him if his interests and yours are the same. Letters cooperate and make words, words cooperate and make sentences, sentences cooperate and make paragraphs. Individuals like you and me are the instruments of a Big Plan—each fitted for the most exacting work. But you should and must cooperate with other individuals if harmony is to result. No man is in competition with others—he is for the most part in competition with his own mistakes and errors of judgment. Each of us harms himself a precious lot more than it is in the power of anyone else in the world to harm us. How foolish, knowing this, to refuse to work in unison with other folks.

In all this wave of cooperative effort that is now swelling over the land, and in which you, my friend, are undoubtedly called upon for a brave part, let "Old Jeff" ask but one thing: that whenever the word is mentioned, you think of the mental side of the question, and ask yourself, "How can I help the other fellow on his own job?" That is real cooperation.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.

Department of the Interior, U. S. Land Office, Portland, Oregon. Notice is hereby given that on April 7, 1922, the BRIDAL VEIL LUMBERING COMPANY, of Veon Building, Portland, Oregon, filed application No. 67265, under the Act of May 20, 1920 (41 Stat. 605) to select the timber on certain lands within the OREGON NATIONAL FOREST.

April 30, 1924, said Company filed an amended application for the timber on the same lands; said amended application is for the timber on the following described lands: NE 1/4 SW 1/4 and NW 1/4 SE 1/4 Sec 7, T. 18, R. 6 E., W. M., containing 120 acres.

In lieu of the following described lands: T. 1 N., R. 6 E., W. M., Sec. 20, NE 1/4, SE 1/4, SW 1/4, SE 1/4; Sec. 20, NE 1/4, E 1/2 NW 1/4, SE 1/4; Sec. 20, SW 1/4, E 1/2 W 1/4, Lots 1, 2, 3, 4, Sec. 21, NE 1/4, NW 1/4, SE 1/4; Sec. 32, All; Sec. 33, All.

T. 18, R. 6 E., W. M., Sec. 5, Lot 1, Lot 2, SW 1/4 NE 1/4, and Lot 3.

The base lands offered contain 3459.68 acres and are within the exterior boundaries of the Oregon National Forest. Said amended application contains the following reservations, affecting the base lands: "Reserving, however, all the timber on the NE 1/4 NW 1/4 and SW 1/4 Sec. 5, T. 1 S., R. 6 E., W. M., with the right to alter or remove the same with the necessary rights of way therefor up to the 30th day of April, 1925, and reserving also its railroad right of way over and across said Secs. 19, 20 and 30 to be located upon the old railroad right of way over and across same, or as necessarily or conveniently altered or removed with the right to remove its rails, ties and equipment therefrom up to the 30th day of April, 1925, and reserving also its railroad right of way over and across said Secs. 19, 20 and 30 to be located upon the old railroad right of way over and across same, or as necessarily or conveniently altered or removed with the right to remove its rails, ties and equipment therefrom up to the 30th day of December, 1922."

Any and all persons claiming the above lands or timber adversely, and wishing to file a protest or notice of objection to the allowance of the above application; and the subsequent disposition of same to the applicant; should file notice of protest or objection in this office within thirty days from the date of the first publication of this notice. (The dates of the first and last publication of this notice are given below.)

Date of first publication, April 22, 1924. Date of last publication, May 20, 1924.
