BORING

Alfred Yaun, Boring truck man, had the body of his truck completely wrecked yesterday while unloading a load of cement at the mixer near the depot when the brakes failed on a loaded gravel car being moved to the mixer. Yaun and another man on the truck, also a man on the mixer escaped serious injury by jumping.

A large still hidden in the woods near Siefers was uncovered in the recent fire there. It apparently had not been put into operation and was removed in the night, supposedly by the owner.

Mrs. Mary Frances Johnston died April 23, 1924, of pneumonia, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Samuel E. Lyon, at the age of 66 years, 5 months and 27 days. She leaves a husband, three children and six grand children to mourn her departure. Michael S. Johnston of Clackamas, Oregon, Francis R. Johnston and family of Cascade Locks, Oregon, Marion Johnston of Clackamas, and Mrs. Samuel E. Lyon and family of Boring. Interment was in the cemetery at Damascus Friday, April 25, 1924, at 12 o'clock.

A surprise party was given Neil Armstrong in honor of his 15th birthday Saturday evening, April 26, at the home of his parents, the following guests were present: Chas., Marie and Mrs. O. A. Palmer, Mildred and Lillian Driessel, Clifford, Lewis and Clarke Lund, Naomi and Letha Child, Tom and Wallie Telford, Sam, Dale and Gracie Mallicoat, Goldy and Harry Bjur, Lynden and Joanna Lund, Helen Maulding, Georgia Beck, Norval and Gertrude Naas, Elsie and Donald Stone, Virginia Taylor, Margaret and Lilly Gantenbein. Many beautiful and useful presents were received. Games were played and refreshments, consisting of punch, ice cream and wafers, were served. A general good time was reported.

A packed house witnessed the picture, "Human Wreckage," at Mr. Waller's hall Sunday evening. The picture is by Mrs. Wallace Reid and is a powerful argument against the dreaded dope evil. The proceeds go toward maintaining a hospital for the cure of dope users. A large crowd also attended the free picture show and lecture at the L. O. O. F. hall Sunday evening. It was presented by the Anti-Saloon League and showed the many and crude ways of making and peddling moonshine, also the bad effects of its use and many tragedies resulting from trying to quell this unlawful practice where sheriffs and deputies are shot down while trying to enforce the law. There was much regret that these two pictures could not have been shown different nights for any thinking person would surely have wanted to see both as they were both good and so appropriate at this time.
