UNION-DAMASCUS FARM BUREAU HOLDS MEETINGS

The Union-Damascus Farm Bureau has been active during the past month. It has held three successful public meetings. The "carpet rag" social held the evening of April 19, reflected a great deal of credit on both the program and supper committee. The program, though short, was one of the best ever held in this community. As for the supper it was as truly delicious as promised. The playlet by three of the younger Farm Bureau members was well given. The rest of the program was by outside talent. Piano solos were given by Walter Mudge and Miss Hendrickson and violin music by W. D. Kinder. Leslie Walrad's singing was as always, a treat, as also was Mrs. Donaldson's reading, while the "Wreck of the Hesperus" as given by her small son was truly remarkable. At first disappointment was felt that the crowd was not quite so large as is usual at entertainments in this community but those present entered into the spirit of the thing and apparently had a good time. The carpet rag balls sold readily. Supper was served to those purchasing, together with the ones making the balls, while others could buy their supper by the plate. In all more than $25 was netted.

The following Thursday a well advertised open meeting was held. Current questions of importance and interest were discussed by State Senator Tooze, M. S. Shrock and Edward Shearer, the two latter being candidates for nomination as state representatives.

On Saturday evening, May 3, was the regular monthly meeting. After a brief session, which included the usual reports, the discussion of the recommendations of the legislative committee of Clackamas county was taken up. This occupied the earlier part of the evening after which supper and a social time was enjoyed in the basement.
