VICTORY

The Victory Parent-Teacher association held the last meeting of the year at the schoolhouse on Friday evening, May 9. The meeting was especially arranged in honor of the fathers of this district. The Rev. A. S. Hisey of Gresham gave an excellent address and Miss Myrtle Rusher sang several selections which were greatly enjoyed. The association has not attempted to raise much money during the year but a number of programs have been given. An oil stove has been purchased to be used in heating the children's lunches and a number of small articles have been bought for the school. Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: Mrs. Alta Stafford, president; Mrs. Frank Swanson, vice president; G. W. Allder, secretary; Mrs. Kerslake, treasurer. The circle gave a rising vote of thanks to Mrs. Nelson, the teacher, for her good work during the past year. They also tendered their thanks to Mrs. H. L. Douthit, the retiring president, for her services during the past three years. Mrs. Douthit refused to take the presidency for the next year.

All of Victory district's eighth grade pupils passed the state examinations with high grades. They are Margaret Erickson, Robert Kerslake, Floyd Stafford and Lawrence Douthit. A school picnic at Laurelhurst park in Portland was enjoyed Thursday.

TROUTDALE

Edna Bramhall, age 11 years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bramhall has the honor of receiving the first prize on an essay on the "Care of the teeth and what it means to the health." The contest was state wide and put on by dental schools and dentists of the state. Fifth grade pupils from all over the state competed. The prize was $10. Miss Edna appreciates the fact that she merited the prize much more than the prize itself.

Mrs. Wm. Crawford spent last week in Portland helping care for her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Hensley, who underwent an operation at Good Samaritan hospital on Wednesday.

C. C. Bush sold Fords this week to Mrs. Lillian Lun, telegraph operator at Cascade Locks, a coupe; Ed. Shroy, Troutdale, a touring car; and T. E. Mercer, Gresham, a Tudor sedan.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Cook and children were dinner guests on Monday at the home of the former's brother, Hardy Cook, in Portland.

Sunday dinner guests at the L. A. Harlow home were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Perry and family of Portland and Miss Fay Parsons.

Mrs. Harry Bramhall and daughter Edna visited one day this week at the home of Mrs. Helm at Alder creek. Mr. Bramhall is building a fine new residence for Mrs. Helm.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Spence and children of Portland visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Spence Sunday.

Mrs. L. A. Harlow attended the Half-Hour Study club at the home of Mrs. F. H. Fleming in Portland on Tuesday.

J. L. Cook sold a Chevrolet touring car to his new salesman, Mr. Lester. All of the eighth grade pupils have received passing grades. The members of the class are Mary Weise, Amy Kendall, Alice O'Neil, Beatrice Thompson, Myrtle Holoman, Robert Harlow, Paul Howell and Henry Weise.

Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Thomas are very busy these days cutting and marketing asparagus.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Lampert has the measles. The Parent-Teacher association met on Friday afternoon. The election of officers and the social hour took up most of the time. The following officers were elected: Mrs. John Denison, president; Mrs. Harry Holmes, vice president; Mrs. W. W. Robinson and Mrs. Lee Evans, directors. Mrs. A. D. Kendall, secretary and treasurer, will hold over until fall. Past presidents were hostesses and served ice cream and cake during the social hour.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Ogden have built up quite a milk route in Troutdale in a short time. They deliver daily 50 quarts and many extras during a week, besides they separate 10 gallons of milk daily. New customers are being added all the time. Their cows have been government tested recently and found to be in perfect health. Cleanliness is the slogan at their small dairy. Each bottle is cleaned with a long handled brush, scalded and rinsed, so Troutdale patrons can rest assured they are getting perfectly pure and clean milk.

Jess Coons and Morris McGinnis made a trip to Vancouver, Washington, Sunday in the former's motor boat to tow back a government steel life saving boat, which Coons recently purchased. He will install an engine and build a cabin in the boat which is to be used on the Sandy river for smelt fishing. When the boat is finished it will be christened the Smelt King.

Visitors at the J. L. Cook home were Mr. and Mrs. Hardy Cook of Portland on Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Smith of Palmer on Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Smith and daughter Irma and Mabel of Lusted on Monday.

Following are the names of the pupils who will receive their eighth grade diplomas at the graduating exercises to be held in Lincoln high school on the coming Saturday: Elsie Mattson, Trella Howell, Richard Beadle, Robert Wright, Alvin Hillman, Albert Norblom, Cecil Gustafson and Clifford Nelson. The last named boy will take part in the program with his biographical sketch of Samuel Simpson. He was the winner in the elimination contest for this section of the county, the prize being $5 in cash.

Rev. O. J. Wilner returned from Seattle Monday where he had been in attendance at the annual conference as a delegate from the Powell Valley district. The services for the coming Sunday will be as usual, Rev. Mr. Wilner preaching at 11 o'clock from the theme "The Most Glorious Invitation." In the evening at 8 o'clock he will speak from the subject "The Author of Eternal Salvation."

On Monday evening Rev. Nathaniel Franklin of Chicago spoke on Sunday school work and other topics. He was assisted in the services by the Rev. Mr. Ludeen of Portland. Next Thursday evening at 8 the Rev. Robert Johnson of Idaho Falls, Idaho, will preach in the Mission church.

PLEASANT HOME

The children of the community are planning for the Daily Vacation Bible school which will open at the Baptist church next Monday morning at 9 o'clock. Plans are under way to care for all who come and interesting games, volleyball, baseball, hand-work and Bible drills and contests are in the program. Every child in the community is asked to attend and each will find something interesting to do and to learn.

CORBETT

At the oratorical contest which was to have been by the students of the eighth grades in schools east of Sandy but two schools participated, District 39 and 21. Adaline Evans won the prize of $5 at the basket social and will have a part on the graduation programs Saturday. The same evening $30 were raised for the grade boys baseball suits.
