GRESHAM LOCALS

The announcement has been made in the Portland papers of the death at Hudson, Indiana, on May 11, of the Rev. M. L. Hardingham, whose body is being brought to Portland for burial. The Rev. Mr. Hardingham was well known in this part of the county several years ago, having been pastor of the Gresham and Fairview Methodist Episcopal churches. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Jennie Hardingham, well known to many here, and by one son, Mervyn, who was born at the Gresham parsonage.

Many Gresham flower lovers have visited the huge pancy gardens of Mrs. W. D. Linderman on the section line road just west of Gresham, and have been astonished at the variety and beauty of the flowers. Mrs. Linderman is raising the flowers commercially, and besides supplying the needs of many local people she sells them on the public market in Portland on three days of each week.

Mrs. Martha Stearns of Astoria visited one day last week with her sister, Miss Sara Dotson, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. St. Clair.

At the annual society meeting of the Free Methodist church on Wednesday evening J. A. Bushong was elected lay delegate to the annual conference to be held in Salem, Miss Mabel Shipley is the reserve delegate. Other officers of the church elected were Miss Minnie Robertson, Sunday school superintendent; P. E. Black, class leader; J. J. Robertson, trustee for three years; J. A. Bushong, P. F. Black, Mrs. B. W. Emery, Mrs. Jessie Cathey and Miss Minnie Robertson, stewards.

The executive committee of Gresham Post No. 30 American Legion will meet at the Gresham Outlook office Tuesday evening, May 20. All members are urged to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Gibbs went to Hermiston, Oregon, recently to visit Dewey Gibbs and family.

Rev. and Mrs. A. C. Brackenberry of Portland were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Wiles.

GRESHAM BUSINESS MAN TAKES PORTLAND BRIDE

W. A. Hessel, head of the Hessel Implement company, was married yesterday in Portland, the bride being Miss Gertrude Grace Lewis, daughter of John O. Lewis of Portland. The wedding took place at the Grace Memorial Episcopal church, the Rev. Oswald Taylor officiating. Miss Louise Fisher of Portland was bridesmaid and Dr. H. H. Hughes of Gresham the best man. Mrs. Chas. Fowler played the wedding march and Mrs. Iris Martinson Oakley sang "O Promise Me." The church was beautifully decorated with pink and white blossoms and greenery. A reception was held after the ceremony at the home of W. J. Morris, cousin of the bride, where a buffet lunch was served.

Gresham guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Elkington, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Busick, Dr. Harry Ott and Dr. Hughes.

Mr. and Mrs. Hessel are enjoying a short honeymoon at Lake Chelan in Washington. On their return they will occupy the Hessel home on West Powell street.

GOSPEL TEAM SERVICE AT METHODIST CHURCH

The evening service at the Methodist Episcopal church will be in charge of a gospel team from the Epworth League of the First Methodist church of Portland. Miss Hattie Ogilvie will be the leader of the team. The three delegates who attended the Portland District Epworth League at Astoria will tell the Leaguers about the wonderful good time they had at the convention. The League will meet at 7 o'clock for the devotional meeting which will be led by Margaret St. Clair.

In the morning the pastor, the Rev. A. S. Hisey, will occupy the pulpit. His topic will be "Concentration of Purpose." The choir will sing "O Love Incarnate."

Nathan Hale

"I regret that I have but one life to give my country"—said Nathan Hale the famous young American patriot of the Revolutionary war.

When some men can rise to such heights of self-sacrifice—when every father is equally willing to give his life in the defense of his home and family—does it not seem that ALL of us fathers could sacrifice something out of every pay check to provide for the safety and future of our children?

"Dost thou love life? Then do not squander time, for that is the stuff life is made of."—Franklin.
