

GRESHAM LOCALS

The W. H. M. S. will meet at the home of Mrs. C. M. Zimmerman on South Roberts avenue Tuesday, June 17 at 2:30 p. m. Miss Mary Crawford, a Deaconess from Portland will be present and speak. All mite boxes that are out are requested to be brought to the meeting. Mrs. G. W. Stapleton, Mrs. Geo. Honey and Mrs. D. E. Towle will assist the hostess. A good attendance is desired.

Portland papers carry the news of the serious illness at the Portland Medical hospital of the Rev. R. E. Myers, former pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church here. Blood poisoning resulting from the sting of an insect was given as the cause of his illness.

Members of the Minnesota and Wisconsin state societies will hold their annual excursion on Wednesday evening, June 18. They have engaged the pleasure boat Swan and leave from the east end of the Morrison bridge, Portland. Mrs. C. Humason is a member of the Wisconsin society.

The ladies of the Zion Evangelical church will hold a sale of home cookery and broilers on Saturday, June 21, beginning at 1:30 o'clock, at the Cecil Metzger grocery. Those who are donating toward the sale are asked to bring their articles early.

Ourey Hisey is visiting for a few days with his parents, the Rev. and Mrs. A. S. Hisey, before taking up an advanced summer course in chemistry at Willamette University. He expects to go in the fall to Syracuse University in New York for a 2-year course in pulp and paper making in the College of Forestry. Mr. Hisey has been business manager of the Willamette Collegian during the past year, and was elected permanent president of his class. He was one of the fourteen members of his class to be elected to membership in Kappa Alpha Nu, local honorary fraternity.

Mr. and Mrs. Peterson and family of Seattle are the guests for a few days of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Larsen. Mrs. Peterson is a niece of Mr. Larsen. The latter's son, P. C. Larsen and family of Portland were guests at dinner on last Thursday at the Larsen home.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dahl and family have returned from a trip extending two weeks in eastern Oregon, Washington and Idaho, where they visited with relatives. They were in Dufur, Oregon, and from there went to Spokane and from there to Wallace, Idaho. On their return they visited in Starbuck, Washington.

I. A. Baker has sold a house and two lots in Lents to Elmer Green of Fairview. The deal was made through Jack Whetstone.

Miss Amy Cooper arrived last night at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Cooper, from Westhope, North Dakota, where she has been teaching during the past year. She expects to make her home here. Miss Cooper was accompanied by Thomas Cooper and Mrs. Fred Hohensea, father and sister of Mr. Cooper, from Alexandria, Minnesota, who will spend some time visiting with their relatives here. The elder Mr. Cooper is a Civil War veteran.

Miss Winifred St. Clair spent several days in Salem, where she attended the graduating exercises of Willamette University. Among the graduates at the university this year were Miss Violet Coe and Oury Hisey of Gresham.

Mrs. Ethel Miller is spending this week with her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth McLain. Mrs. Miller has been in charge of the normal training school at Rickreall. She is going soon to Corvallis to take charge of the summer school in connection with the Children's Farm Home, which will be conducted under the direction of the Oregon Normal.

Mrs. Mabel Burch Fowler and her three children of Roseburg are spending the week with Mrs. Fowler's mother, Mrs. W. C. Burch. Mr. Fowler is a delegate to the state convention of the American Legion in Portland this week.

Clement Holgate, who telephoned to the Outlook early in the week that he had found what he believed to be the first ripe loganberry of the season, was disappointed that an error was made as to his family and location. He is anxious that Gresham should have the honor. Clement is the son of Mrs. G. Fudikar of Gresham.

The four circles of the Methodist Ladies Aid will hold their regular meetings next week as follows: The S. E. circle at the home of Mrs. Arthur Dowsett; the Dorcas circle at the home of Mrs. L. L. Kidder; the S. & S. circle at the home of Mrs. W. F. Honey. All these will be on Wednesday afternoon, June 18. Mrs. Thos. Wiles and Mrs. Russell Akin will assist Mrs. Honey. On Thursday afternoon, June 19, the West End circle will entertain all the circles at the home of Mrs. B. F. Cogswell at Linne-mann.

Mr. and Mrs. John Brown have received the announcement of the marriage of their son, Charley, and Miss Edith Strong of Portland, on June 1. The wedding was at Prosser, Washington, where Charley is in charge of a drug store and where the young couple will make their home.

Mrs. Andrew Brugger has been brought home from the hospital in Portland, where she was a patient for nine weeks following a fall in which a vertebra was dislocated. She is now able to walk and expects to fully recover from the accident.

L. S. Ellerman is to be one of the speakers at the meeting of Damascus Farm bureau at Union school tomorrow.
