What One Mother Did

One customer of this bank—a mother—is sending several daughters—splendid types of womanhood—to college.

How this can be done is a mystery to the neighbors as these people are of very moderate circumstances.

That mother has foresight and the ability to put off little pleasures in order to enjoy huge ones later.

For long years she kept adding to her savings account—"Our Education Fund"— she called it, and it was a joy to behold her radiant face when the first bankbook was filled with entries.

Had this plan not been followed those daughters could not have been educated.
The load was so great that it had to be spread over many years.

We recommend this course and invite your deposits.

Save $3 a week and in ten years you will have $1918.92.
