FAIRVIEW

The young people of this community are busily engaged, as well as their elders, in berry picking, cherry picking, field work of anything to bring in wages or help in the gathering of the crops, or in building up funds for their further schooling. Among those so employed is Donald Grant, who has been for the past week or two at Manhattan beach shingling a beach house, and at the same time enjoying the stay at the beach.

Freedom

"Proclaim liberty throughout all the land unto all the inhabitants thereof."

PLEASANT HOME

Mrs. H. F. Wilton enjoyed a visit for several days last week from her daughter, Mrs. C. E. McDonald of Tacoma.

PIONEER OF BULL RUN SECTION FOUND DEAD

Nell Lowe, a pioneer of the Bull Run section, was found dead in the road near his home last Saturday afternoon, June 28, aged 67 years. He had been in ill health for some time with diabetes and doubtless died from some heart trouble in connection with that disease. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Annie Lowe, and four children, Mrs. Maggie Finley of McMinnville, Lloyd Lowe of Mayfield, Washington, Mrs. Golda Arron of Bull Run and Mrs. Elsie Warren of Corbett.

Funeral services were held this forenoon at the Gresham Methodist Episcopal church, the Rev. A. S. Hisey officiating. Interment was in the Douglas cemetery.

ROCKWOOD

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Cook had their 20th wedding anniversary on last Sunday, which was remembered by a number of their friends who came in during the evening to help them celebrate. Luncheon was served under the trees. Those present were Mrs. Jim Shaw and daughter Esther of New York City, Mr. and Mrs. Will Kerr and family, Jim Morse and Fred Thompson of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Garner and family, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dickenson, Mr. and Mrs. K. W. Harvey and children, all of Rockwood. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Jelken and family returned Sunday from a trip at the Oregon beaches which they have enjoyed during the past week.

A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Verner McCormack, nee Edith Jelken, on Sunday, June 22, at the Portland sanitarium.

A surprise shower was given on last Saturday to Miss Clara Sales, whose marriage to Clyde Stone of Fairview will be an event of the near future. Many beautiful gifts were presented and a delightful time was enjoyed by all.

SPRINGDALE

The Springdale Needle club enjoyed a very pleasant time at the home of Mrs. McKay last Wednesday. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. W. Henkle, July 2.

Mrs. Henkle recently had her tonsils removed and is now nearly recovered.

Mrs. Howard and her two daughters, Rosalind and Ardith of Mason City, Iowa, are guests of Mrs. Alec Trickey.

Mr. and Mrs. Reeves have returned from California. Their daughter, Mrs. B. Belle and her husband have also returned and are making their home in Portland for the present.

W. W. Northway has been quite ill but is now improving rapidly.

ILL EFFECT OF "SMALL TALK"

More Harmful to Mind and Nerve Than Serious Conversation, According to Woman Physician.

"There is greater nerve strain in keeping up conversation of small talk than in discussing a serious topic," asserts Dr. Agnes Savill of London. She is among the foremost of British women physicians and is famous for her work on electrotherapeutics. In a lecture at the Institute of Hygiene on "The Dangers of Society to Health," she added, according to the New York World.

"Society girls have their brains and mental equipment adjusted to this level of scrappy exclamations early in life and it spoils their subsequent development and their capacity to reach a better stage of intellectual growth. "Society life encourages the pernicious habit of the too-frequent cigarette. It encourages girls to take cocktails and whisky-and-sodas.

"The hectic life of continual excitement, the absence of all repose, all time for meditation, the perpetual change, the cigarette smoking, irregular and unhealthy meals—no wonder these girls become the prey of disease."

They Learn It Early.

Four-year-old Margaret Allison was picked up by a big Chicago policeman. Tears were streaming down her cheeks. To stop her weeping he offered her a penny. It worked—for a moment—then tears came again. This happened repeatedly until Margaret had obtained about ten pennies, two nickels and a dime. When Margaret found out the policeman's change had been exhausted the crying stopped and she requested to be taken home in an automobile. At that Margaret wasn't consciously a little vamp. She had become lost and was only trying on the policeman the same arts she practiced successfully at home.

No Magic Gold Finder.

There is no instrument that you can use to discover gold supposed to have been buried in an iron pot or steel safety box, writes the director of the United States geological survey. Iron ore beds extending over large areas have been prospected for with success by means of the so-called "dip needle," but this instrument would not indicate the presence of a single pot or vessel in a particular spot. Neither is there any instrument that would indicate the presence of gold and silver or their ores. Iron attracts the "needle," but gold and silver, however attractive to man, are not magnetic.—Pennsylvania Farmer.

The Dose.

The chairman of the prison visiting board smiled benignly: "Now," he said, rubbing his hands together, "if there is any prisoner here who has a complaint to make, or a question to ask, we will be glad to hear from him."

Hungry Mike, the yegg, arose respectfully.

"If you please, gents," he said, "I wanta ask a question about you people comin' here t' ast questions. I wanta ast, is you bein' kind t' us prisoners a part of our sentence, or do we get that punishment extra?"—Richmond Times-Dispatch.
