FAIRVIEW

John Jonas and family and Miss Marjorie Brown of Portland, spent the week-end at Seaside.

Fairview Grange met in regular session last Saturday evening. At that time it was planned that the members of the grange and their friends would be invited to eat in one large group at the picnic dinner in connection with Farmers' Field Day in Gresham next Saturday. At the same time tentative plans were made for a grange picnic to be held on the next regular meeting date of the grange, August 9. Mrs. Janet M. Lumsden, master of the grange, was presented with a beautiful sandwich tray by the grange and a number of granger friends brought gifts in honor of Mrs. Lumsden.

WE HAVE ALWAYS FOUGHT FOR PURE

meats. We won't allow a piece of meat to come into this market that doesn't live up to what we expect of it. It must be able to stand the tests we give it. Folks know when they buy a pound of meat of us they have purchased 16 ounces of wholesome purity.

CORBETT

The James McGowan company is operating its seining beach on Reed's Island and is erecting a barn on the island for the comfort of the horses used on the seine.

Mrs. Jessie Soward and daughters from Gresham are camped at the Chamberlain auto camping ground.

Columbia Grange held its monthly meeting Saturday, July 5, with a fair attendance. T. J. Kreuder and daughter and Mr. Rooney from Portland were visitors.

Mr. Harmon and son of Portland were week-end visitors at the Lewis Reed home.

The beautiful country place of Mr. and Mrs. Julius L. Meier at Corbett was the scene recently of a charming social affair, when Mr. and Mrs. Meier entertained for their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ehrman, Jr., of San Francisco. About 100 guests were present. Swimming, tennis and other out-door sports were enjoyed and a buffet lunch was served.

Victor Johnson went to a Portland hospital Wednesday and will probably be operated upon for ulcer of the stomach.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Bell left Wednesday for San Diego, California, after a six-weeks' visit with relatives and friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bell are now occupying the Grant Bell residence.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Fox of Eastmoreland and Mrs. Frances Fox of Troutdale were Corbett callers Tuesday.

Mrs. Clara Smith attended Chautauqua Saturday and Sunday.
