Mrs. Ethel Smith Stewart of Portland spent Sunday and Monday with her mother at Ferndale Place.
Mrs. Olivia Leland and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Reed gave a dinner to a few friends Friday. Those present besides the hostesses were Mrs. Clara Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Chamberlain, Mrs. Jessie Soward and daughters, Hortense and Ida.
Mrs. P. D. Settlemeier and sister, Arlie Kincaid, and cousin, Pearl Chamberlain, attended chautauqua, at Gladstone Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Chamberlain and family, Mrs. Maxy and children, Mrs. Jessie Soward and daughters and Geo. Perry went on a camping trip to Lost Lake, Wednesday.
Miss Grace Crowston, who has attended the University of Washington the past school year, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Mary Hicks and other relatives in this vicinity.
This community was shocked and grieved by the sad news that Mrs. Chester Knieriem of Portland had passed away Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Grace Furgurson Knieriem was one of Multnomah counties successful teachers, having taught three years at the Mountain school and one year in the Springdale district, gaining many friends at each place. She was united in marriage in June, 1918, to Chester Knieriem, who, with their infant son is left to mourn her untimely death.
There was a good attendance at Sunday school Sunday and Mrs. Maxey preached a very helpful sermon.

FAIRVIEW

Mrs. Etna Wagner and children of Rainier, Oregon, are visiting friends in Fairview this week.
Mr. and Mrs. Ray Simpson and children, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Lewis and daughter, Kathleen, spent the past week at Netarts, Oregon.
Mr. and Mrs. Ira Brooks and Mr. and Mrs. George Burlingame drove to Tygh Valley over the week-end.
The Women's society of Smith Memorial church spent a social evening Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bunn. Mrs. Christine Donough gave some excellent readings and the pastor, the Rev. E. R. D. Hollensted, in a brief speech, presented a gift from the members and friends of the church to Mr. and Mrs. George Lumsden, whose marriage occurred recently. The gift consisted of an electric iron and a serving tray, which Mr. and Mrs. Lumsden accepted in graceful speeches. Ice cream and cake were served. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. H. H. Pratt, Mrs. Leslie St. Clair, Mrs. Earl Townsend and Mrs. Eliza Stone.
Mrs. R. R. Morrill, assisted by Mrs. H. M. Hayles, entertained at the former's home on Friday afternoon in honor of Mrs. George Lumsden, the company consisting of a dozen women who had been active in the wedding arrangements for Mr. and Mrs. Lumsden. The hostess presented to each lady a package containing some article of household use, with cleverly worded directions for working it, and the time was spent in needle work on these articles which were then given to Mrs. Lumsden.
Donald Grant, who has been for the past three weeks working at Manhattan beach, is at home for a brief visit. He will return in a short time to the beach.
Mrs. George Lumsden entertained the primary class of the Smith Memorial Presbyterian Sunday school at her home last Wednesday afternoon, when a happy time was enjoyed by the little folks. Those present were George, Thomas Lee and Helen Shaw, Jackie and Jackson Park, Virginia, William and Violet Tegart, Lucile Province, Harry, Mary and Luvie Park, Carl Rudie, Dan, Don and Frankie Schmitt.
The Epworth League of the Fairview Methodist church will give an ice cream social and short program at the home of Miss Rachel Peterson on Saturday evening, July 26.

BORING

Mr. and Mrs. Mulligan of Portland and Dr. Craven and family from Los Angeles visited at the homes of W. H. and O. W. Boring Saturday.
L. C. Armstrong and family left Monday for a two weeks' motor trip to Grants Pass and vicinity.

Pleasant Home M. E. Church.
Next Sunday, July 27, the pastor will preach on the subject, "Christ's Strength in the Christian's Weakness." The male quartet will sing. The Epworth League will meet at Boring at 8 p. m. Lester Boring will be the leader. The topic is "The Bible in the Life of the World." Anyone needing means of transportation may notify the Rev. E. G. Ranton.

The Rev. M. B. Paranougian will speak in behalf of the Near East Relief on Sunday, August 3. Having been born in the Near East and having kept in touch with the country through reading that native Americans cannot do, he is well qualified to tell in an interesting manner the needs of the people there. At 7 p. m. the Epworth League will meet with the other Leagues of the circuit at the Gresham church and remain for the evening church services.

On Sunday, August 10, the services will be in charge of the Rev. Oliver Gill, the faithful local preacher of the circuit. There will be no League service. The Leaguers will be at the Falls City institute.

Boring M. E. Church.

The Boring-Pleasant Home Epworth League will meet at the Boring church on Sunday, July 27 at 8 o'clock. Lester Boring will be the leader.
The Rev. M. B. Paranougian will represent the Near East Relief on Sunday, August 3. Mr. Paranougian was born in Armenia and has kept in close touch with his native country since coming to America. His story will be very interesting.
Oliver Gill will be in charge of the church services on Sunday, Aug. 10.
