Women Will Wear
Fancy Handkerchiefs

It has been officially decided, with the concurrence of a number of the fair sex, that the handkerchief will be the badge of Gresham fair boosters or fair boosters of the fair, and it is expected that these will be in evidence throughout the fair, and especially on Gresham day, that is, the handkerchiefs will be in evidence on the fair boosters of the fair.

These, be it remembered, are not the useless little squares of linen or silk, but big, generous, colorful handkerchiefs of silk, suitable to wear on the head, knot around the neck or on the arm. It is believed that this badge will find instant favor partly because of the wonderful variety of colors, partly because of the element of utility. One can find the particular combination of colors to go best with one's complexion or with hat or gown or hose. Then, after the fair, the handkerchiefs will still be useful in a many ways which the ingenuity of the women will discover. By all means, they say, let the badge be a handkerchief, rather than a cow girl hat or a ribbon.

The handkerchiefs may be obtained of Aylsworth & Martin, the price being only one dollar.

GRESHAM LOCALS

Vera and Marjorie, the small daughters of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Stone, underwent tonsillar and adenoid operations at the Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat hospital in Portland Wednesday.

A Young People's Missionary society was organized Friday evening for the Free Methodist church at the home of Miss Mabel Shipley. P. F. Black was chosen president and Miss Willa Bushong, secretary. A male quartet was present from Portland and rendered several selections.

Nearly 160 persons enjoyed the big get-together picnic of the Gresham cannery workers and office force which was held at Dodge Park Monday. The weather was ideal and by 11 o'clock several truck loads had gathered on the grounds. The popular cannery game "barnyard golf," otherwise known as pitching horseshoes, was the main diversion of the gentlemen, while a number enjoyed bathing. The ladies also took to the water, there being a number of excellent swimmers among them. The lunch was pronounced a wonderful spread. Besides the regulation picnic lunch, ice cream, watermelon and punch were served. The visiting cannery workers who will return to their homes in a few days are much pleased with the treatment accorded them this past berry season.

Ettel Jones of Bremerton, Washington, is here for a short visit with his father, Frank C. Jones, and sister, Mrs. Floyd Mack and family. He will take in the county fair while here.

Mrs. A. W. Shipley left Wednesday for Santa Cruz, California, for a visit of several weeks with her son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Stanley, and to get acquainted with her young grandson.

Dewey Gibbs of Hermiston, Oregon, is here on a short visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Gibbs, and other relatives.

John Arndt of Portland, a berry picker on the Bert E. Boice place near Gresham, was severely cut on the head Sunday evening when a Studebaker car, which he was cranking while it was in gear, ran him down and dragged him several feet. The car was brought to a stop by a man standing near. Several stitches were required to close the ugly scalp wound.

An enjoyable party was held at the home of W. M. Beers last Friday evening, July 25, the occasion being the celebration of Mr. Beers 67th birthday. After an evening of visiting and reminiscences ice cream and cake were served. Those present besides Mr. and Mrs. Beers were Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Hoover, Mr. and Mrs. McKinley Beers and family, Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Beers and family, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Donley and family, all of Gresham, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Dixon and family, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Beers and Archie Hickey, all of Portland.

Miss Helen Hoss and little nephew, George Hoss of Colorado, left Sunday after a visit of several weeks at the home of their uncle, J. H. Hoss, of Gresham. They are returning home by way of California.

Mrs. Carrie Powell went to Ocean Park, Washington, for a few days last week and returned Friday, bringing with her Gertrude and Frederick Lee, who have been visiting in eastern Oregon and at the beach since school closed in May.

A card to the Outlook from J. R. Martin of the firm of Aylsworth & Martin, who, with Mrs. Martin is enjoying a trip to Alaska, tells of a most delightful journey. Occasional rain and snow storms make a variety, but in spite of these the trip is proving most enjoyable.

Mrs. Mark Nickerson and her tiny son were brought Sunday from a Portland hospital and are at the home of Mrs. Nickerson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Honey. The baby, which was born on July 11, weighed 2 3/4 pounds at birth and now tips the scales at a little more than three pounds. He was kept in an incubator at the hospital until the past few days.

Raker & Son have installed a new automatic air gas pump, one of the latest models of the Bowser pumps. Glen Winters has been put in charge of the service station.
