

Services at the Methodist Church.

All departments of the church are taking on new life and vigor as the summer days draw to a close and the vacationers are returning to their homes. The low mark in the Sunday school, the Epworth League and the services of the church has been passed and each service finds increasing numbers.

The fourth quarterly conference of the Powell Valley circuit brought out representatives from all points of the circuit for the business session Thursday afternoon, when reports of all the line of work showed good progress for the year. A comparison of statistics for the four years since the organization of the parish showed consistent progress from year to year. About forty members of the conference ate dinner together at six o'clock, and the Leaguers who attended the recent institute at Falls City roused a considerable enthusiasm with their songs and yells. The conference came to a close with an old fashioned love feast conducted by the pastor of the Gresham church, the Rev. A. S. Hisey.

Next Sunday the Sunday school will convene at 10 o'clock. The church services will be conducted by the pastor, whose topic for the morning sermon will be "The Rivers of God." The choir will hold its regular weekly rehearsal this evening.

The devotional topic for the Epworth League will be, "Methodism in the Growing Republic." Genevieve McAllister will be the leader.

A little son weighing 7½ pounds was born Wednesday, August 20, to Mr. and Mrs. Harry McMurry.

GRESHAM LOCALS

H. H. Young, who has lived in Gresham for a number of years, left today for Canyon City, Colorado, where he may make his home. Mrs. Young and the children will remain here until a location is chosen.

William C. Elliott, wife and daughter, of Tacoma, Washington, are visitors this week at the home of Mrs. Marion Johnson and Miss E. E. Johnson. Mr. Elliott is an attorney and active in political, civic and educational affairs in his part of the state.

Miss Hester Thorpe and two Portland young ladies left Saturday for a vacation trip to the principal cities of the Pacific northwest on Puget Sound.

C. C. Gray is moving into Mrs. Leslie's new house in Thompson addition. Paul Stone and family will move into the house which the Grays have vacated.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon J. Kelley and children and niece, Miss Anna Stafford, leave Monday for Lake Forest, Ill., where they will make their home. The Kelleys have lived in Gresham for the past two or three years, Mr. Kelley being employed at the pickle factory.

Mrs. Adelaide Beers, widow of the late Rev. Alexander Beers, is visiting relatives here and attending the Free Methodist camp meeting. Mrs. Beers is a teacher in a school at Los Angeles and she will return next week to her home.

Members of the Zion Evangelical church to the number of 45 enjoyed a trip to Welches and a picnic dinner at noon last Tuesday. Games and visiting occupied the afternoon.

The Gresham Garage has recently installed a 28-ton garage press for use in the shop. Among other things it will be used to press bushings in and out and to remove axle shaft gears.

Mrs. John Brown returned Friday evening from a visit with her son Frank and family at Seattle. While away Mrs. Brown was taken on a trip to Bellingham, Washington, and to Vancouver and Victoria, B. C. Her daughter, Mrs. Miriam Adkins of Heppner, who has been spending several weeks here, kept house during Mrs. Brown's absence.

Mrs. Irrissa Cone, of Cottage Grove, widow of the late J. H. Cone, was in Gresham Wednesday looking after business matters. She was the guest of Mrs. S. S. Thompson.

The S. E. Circle of the Methodist Ladies' Aid will meet Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with Mrs. W. A. Winters.

Mrs. O. N. Ford and son, O. N. Jr., started Wednesday for Minnesota to visit Mrs. Ford's relatives.

AUGUST AND SEPTEMBER ARE GOOD MONTHS TO PAINT

Wood surfaces are in the best of condition to receive paint because summer heat has dried them out thoroughly.

Then, winter is coming on with its storms. Unless kept out by paint, rain and snow will find their way into crevices and pores of the wood and set up rot and decay.

A small investment in Sherwin Williams Paint now while your house is still intact will save expensive repairs and lumber bills that always come when buildings are left unprotected from the weather.

Oury Hisey left this morning for Syracuse, New York, where he will take a two-year course in pulp and paper manufacture in the school of forestry of Syracuse University. He was accompanied by three fellow graduates of Willamette University, Victor Logan of Umatilla, who will teach in the Athena high school, Robert Notson and Harry Hull, who are going east to take post graduate work at Columbia University. The young men are driving a Ford car.

Mrs. A. Burton has returned from Cannon Beach where she has been for the past week with her son Will Torrey and family of Portland.

Mrs. Frances Phelps and two children of Lebanon, Oregon, have been visiting with Mrs. Alta Gentry and other friends in this vicinity.

E. C. Barnes, regional mechanic for the Standard Oil company, has been in Gresham for the past week inspecting the automatic equipment of the local substation. The company's local equipment consists of two large tank trucks, one large package truck and two roadsters. Mr. Barnes states that the fine road conditions in eastern Multnomah are greatly appreciated by the company's representatives.

Emmet Kelly, night marshal, returned Wednesday from a vacation of about two weeks spent near Welches on Salmon river where he has a cabin. Mrs. Kelly and the children will remain in the mountains for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Cannon and children have returned from a fishing trip to Alesia bay, where they report the finest sport of the kind they ever enjoyed. They caught several fine salmon, one of which weighed 38 pounds. They reported plenty of blue back trout, clams and crabs. They were accompanied on their return by Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Barclay and children of Tidewater, who are enjoying a visit with the Cannon family.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Look of The Dalles, with their two daughters and little son, are visiting with Mrs. Look's mother, Mrs. P. A. Gould and other relatives. They are enroute to their home from Victoria and Vancouver, B. C., and other northwestern cities.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Heiney of Santa Barbara, California, are visiting with Frank Heiney and other relatives. They drove up by way of Crescent City and describe the mountain roads as almost impassible. They drove for miles over a one-way road with infrequent turn-outs, which required much backing and maneuvering.

Guy Mathews, a former Gresham high school student and son of Benj. Mathews of Gresham, is manager of the new Granada theatre at 75th and Glisan streets in Montavilla. It will open next Sunday with Jackie Coogan in "A Boy of Flanders." The Granada is a member of the east side theatrical organization of which Roy White, another former Gresham boy, manager of the "Bob White" of Arleta
