

GRESHAM LOCALS

Burkhardt Gantenbein of Tillamook, Oregon, was a recent guest with relatives here.

Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Ott and children returned from Seaside Tuesday evening from a few days' stay at the popular beach resort.

Miss Katherine Honey has returned from an extensive tour of the middle west and eastern states and will begin her work next week as music instructor in the Irvington school, Portland. While away Miss Honey visited in Boston, New York, Washington, Chicago and other cities, and made a trip into Canada.

W. F. Honey has gone to eastern Oregon on a business trip.

A test case is on in the circuit court, the suit being filed Thursday, of the Oregon Pickle & Canning Co. vs. K. Kobayashi, a Japanese truck grower near town. The litigation involves the violation of the contract of Kobayashi with the pickle company. The complaint asks that he be enjoined from disposing of the product from his two-acre tract of cucumbers to any other than the pickle factory here.

Mrs. Ella Seals, of Seattle, is here for a couple of weeks visiting at the home of her niece, Mrs. C. E. Rusher.

Mrs. Vera L. Tucker has on display in the Walrad store a splendid collection of dahlias grown on her "Tucker-hill" farm half a mile south of Gillis. She is showing only about 100 varieties of the 500 she actually has in her garden area. The Amunra or Egyptian Sun God and the Union Jack are favorites, with the brilliant yellow "City of Portland" not far behind. The exhibit will continue over Saturday.

Miss Ruth Nystrom and two small nephews, Billy and Lester Anderson and Miss Nellie Anderson left Friday for a week's trip to Seaside, driving through in Miss Nystrom's coupe.

Miss Zelma Shaw of Portland, who has spent the past week visiting with her aunt, Mrs. Leslie St. Clair, has returned to her home.

The W. F. Honey home was the scene on Tuesday evening of a delightful reunion of graduates of Hamline University of St. Paul, Minnesota, members of their families and friends. About 40 persons were present. Local people there were Mr. and Mrs. Mark Nickerson and children, Mr. and Mrs. Carrol D. Bush, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. St. Clair and Miss Winifred, and members of the W. F. and George F. Honey families. The affair was in honor of Dr. George S. Innis of Tacoma, a retired member of the faculty who served the university for 40 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Blackburn and four boys of Ferndale, California, in driving through from a tour of the east to their western home, stopped off Sunday and Monday for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Kidder. The two ladies were girlhood friends in Beloit, Wisconsin.

Joe Peak, the manager of the sporting goods department of Aylesworth & Martin, in his recent trip to Seaside and incidentally his initial score on the Seaside golf course, made the best amateur play of several days, according to bystanders, landing the course in 41.

William Beers is lying at his home in a weakened condition from dropsy and its attendant complications and the physician has warned him his condition is serious.

Among recent Government Camp visitors were Mrs. Ernest Brugger and her sister-in-law, Miss Gertrude Brugger; Herbert Mullenhoff and a boy friend, Howard Hopper. The first mentioned of the boys climbed the mountain, while Hopper went as far as Crater Rock.

"Here's to you, oh boy!" says a card from M. M. Squire and W. H. Mitchell, who with their wives have been touring California and apparently dropped down into Mexico for some purpose or other. They are expected home soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Kinder returned Tuesday night from Seaside, where they had spent several days with the latter's sister, Mrs. J. C. McSherry. On Sunday morning Mr. Kinder and his wife, with Miss Cora Johnson, will motor to Seaside where on Labor Day the Lambda Chi Alpha, a college fraternity of which the county club leader is a member, will hold their annual reunion. This will be a non-official gathering for a general good time and it is expected nearly 50 will be present.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Riggs and Mr. and Mrs. H. Buckle, of Portland, were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Emery Wednesday evening. The ladies came out in the morning and spent the day, the gentlemen arriving in time for the six o'clock dinner. Mrs. Buckle was formerly Miss Ruby Emery.

Albert, Adolph and Alfred Zinger and Lloyd Middleton will leave Saturday evening for Tillamook on a week-end outing including Labor Day. Their interests will be divided between Netarts and Rockaway, in camp life and fishing expeditions.

The many friends of W. L. Robertson will be glad to know he is still holding his own and is able to be around. It was reported some time ago his condition had terminated in tuberculosis, but a thorough examination by a competent lung specialist a few days since assures him his lungs are not affected.

Verne Shipley of Grass Valley, Oregon, a cousin of the family here, dropped in from the eastern part of the state for a short visit on Tuesday.

Dorothy Davies, who has spent the summer at her grandfather's home, J. J. Robertson, will return to her home at Gladstone in a few days to begin her school year.

Miss Pearl Ruegg leaves today for Tacoma, Washington, where she will visit for a few days with relatives.

The Rebekah Welfare club has announced that its regular meeting has been postponed from September 1 until the first Monday in October, at which time it will meet with Mrs. Harry Warden.

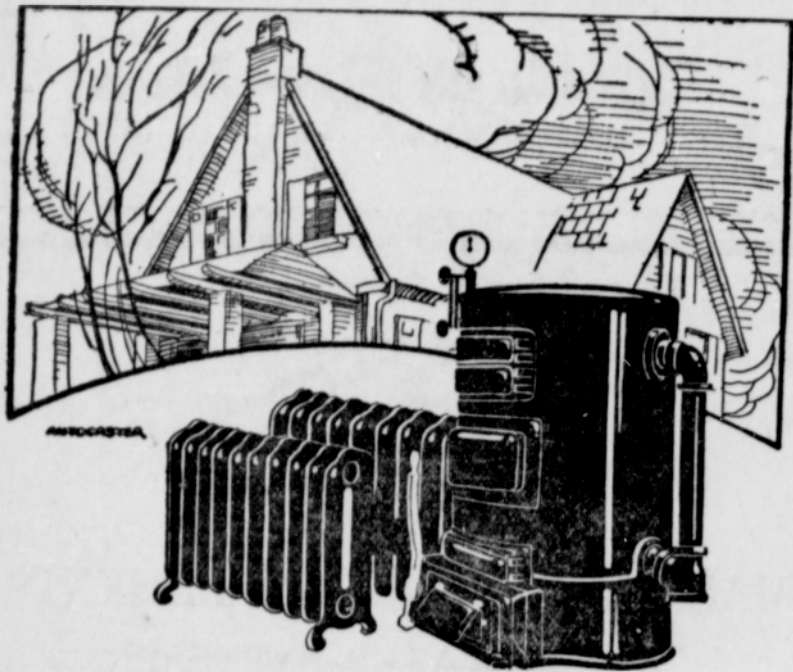

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Todd returned Wednesday evening from a pleasant trip by auto to New Westminster, B. C., where they visited relatives.

ALBERT ENGLISH DIES IN CALIFORNIA CITY

Albert English, father of Mrs. B. F. Cogswell, died at Turlock, California, August 22, aged nearly 90 years. A telegram summoned Mrs. Cogswell and she left immediately for her father's bedside, arriving shortly before his death but found him in an unconscious condition. Mr. English spent several years with his daughter here and at Eagle Creek, and made many friends who admired him for his keen intellect and his kindly disposition. He had been living for the past two years with a daughter in Denair, California. He was a native of Indiana and spent several years of his young manhood in Minnesota, later coming to the Pacific coast, where he has lived in various places for the past 40 years.

Funeral services were held at Turlock and the body was taken by Mrs. Cogswell for interment to Spokane, where it was laid in the family plot beside that of his wife and son. Relatives and friends gathered in both cities to do honor to his memory.

Free Methodist Services Announced.

After convening on the camp ground for the past two Sundays, the Free Methodist Sunday school will be held in the church Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. Other services are as follows: preaching, 11 a. m.; young people's meeting at 6:30, with P. F. Black as leader; preaching again at 8 in the evening; prayer meeting Thursday evening at 7:30. There will be special music at each service.

Undenominational Services Announced.

Services of the Undenominational Temple are announced as follows: Sunday school beginning at 10 a. m.; preaching service at 2 p. m. by the Rev. S. F. Pitts; prayer meeting on Tuesday evenings; Bible study Friday evenings. Everyone welcome to all services.

The Sunday afternoon services especially are being well attended. People are driving from many outside towns each Sunday and a good interest is being maintained.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank Peak have as their house guest their nephew, R. B. Coffey, commander of the U. S. S. Arizona. In company with Dr. and Mrs. V. L. Brooks, the latter a daughter, who are here from Kansas on an extended tour of the northwest, they drove to Seattle a few days ago, where the Arizona is anchored, and returned with Mr. Coffey who will visit until Saturday. The veteran commander who is a graduate of the United States naval academy at Annapolis, Md., and who formerly held the position of commander on the U. S. S. Pennsylvania, is thoroughly enjoying his few days' leave of absence from his ship.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Brown and children of Denver, Colorado, who are touring the country by auto, are camped on the premises of F. H. Crane. Last Wednesday, August 20, a baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Brown, and in deference to the kindness of their host, the baby was promptly named Frederick Grant Brown, the first name being that of Mr. Crane.

A STRONG BANK

Mrs. Geo. Kenney and her sister, Mrs. W. J. Miller, of Linnton, Oregon, are home from a ten-days' tour of Yellowstone National Park. They traveled over the Northern Pacific railroad to Lewiston, Montana, where they took the bus to Mammoth at the entrance to the park. The regular sight-seeing route which is under the management of competent guides proved very interesting, the grand canyon and falls of the Yellowstone river alone being worth the trip. They returned via the O. W. R. & N.
