

GRESHAM LOCALS

About 100 people enjoyed the picnic yesterday at Laurelhurst park of the Powell Valley circuit of the Methodist Episcopal Sunday schools. The schools represented besides Gresham were Pleasant Home, Pleasant Valley, Rockwood and Fairview.

Mrs. C. A. Rogers was brought home Saturday from the hospital in Portland where she underwent a major operation two weeks before, and is recovering her strength.

Mrs. Carrie Powell is suffering from a broken arm, the result of a fall. The trouble was at first thought to be a severe sprain and after several days an X-ray was taken, which revealed a fracture in the bone near the shoulder extending several inches in length.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bailey and children spent Sunday and Monday at Warrenton and Seaside.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Patrick and the latter's mother, Mrs. R. T. Smith, are moving to Garden Home, where Mr. Patrick has employment in the general merchandise store of Mrs. Patrick's brother, Bob Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Strye of Chehalis, Washington, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Strye's father, John Schenk and family.

Mrs. H. E. Johnson of Boise, Idaho, is visiting with her son, W. R. Johnson and family.

The Rev. A. S. Hisey went to Salem Monday to perform a wedding ceremony, the groom being Lawrence Davies of Portland, a former resident of St. Helens during the pastorate of Mr. Hisey at that place. The bride was Miss Edna Gilbert of Salem. Both young people are graduates of Willamette University. Mrs. Hisey and Helen were guests at the wedding.

Mrs. Catherine Harmon of Lents was in Gresham on business Saturday.

Mrs. Harmon is just getting around after a serious illness of about six months.

George W. Baker and wife and two children of Kelso, Washington, the former a brother of Mrs. Gertrude Schanno, spent part of Saturday and Sunday with her. They were on their way to Toledo and will stop again on their return home.

William Morgan and family came out from Portland Sunday and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Morgan. Their little son, who cut his leg very severely a few weeks ago while at play, is now able to walk again.

The Misses Elsa and Gladys Sharp gave a miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Clara Mason at their home Friday evening at which ten young ladies were present, the same being the young ladies class of the Baptist church, of which Miss Mason has long been a member. A number of useful gifts were presented to the bride-elect and the evening was otherwise pleasantly spent. Refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gibbs entertained Mr. and Mrs. Harold Murr, of Seattle, on Sunday.

The Rev. and Mrs. B. Y. Yates, who formerly lived in Gresham passed through town Monday on their way to the Sandy neighborhood for an outing over the holiday. They were accompanied on their trip by Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cathey and children.

Marshal and Mrs. G. A. Cox and son Guy are expected to return home today from a few days' vacation spent in the Yachats region.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Douglas, of Baker, who have been to the coast, on the return trip visited with their old friends, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Larsen.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Nichols and Mr. and Mrs. H. Nichols, and son Roy, all of Boise, Idaho, are guests at the home of Mrs. Marion Johnson.

W. L. Gorsage and family have returned from a vacation trip to Sea-

LOOKING AHEAD

Now is the time when you should look ahead and plan on how you are going to heat your house this winter.

If you will drop into our store and have a talk with us we are convinced you will realize the necessity and convenience of furnace heat, either pipeless furnace, pipe furnace or hot water.

We are agents for several reliable makes of Furnaces and can quote them as low as $85.00.

INSTALL NOW and you will be ready when the first winter weather comes.

Phone us and we will call at your place and give you an estimate on whatever furnace would be most suitable to your needs.

side, and Mr. Gorsage has again assumed his duties at the post office.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Finley of Portland have returned from a wonderful auto trip of 10,000 miles which extended as far east as the New England states, and which included such points of interest as the capitol at Washington, Mt. Vernon and historic places in and around Boston.

William M. Knodell, of Fairfield, Illinois, editor of the Wayne County Press, was a welcome caller at the Outlook office today. He was accompanied by his cousin, J. E. Fraley, with whom he is visiting for a short time.

On Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Quicksall and two boys Harry and Ralph, returned from their eastern motor trip which has occupied the past three months. They have traveled in ten different states since leaving here, but are enthusiastic in their praise of Oregon and say there is none better. Most of their visit has been in the state of Illinois where the mother of each resides, the two homes being but three miles apart. On their return trip they toured the Yellowstone National park, spending four days there. As this park is controlled by the government, there are no hold-up prices or other conditions of like nature and their stay in this place was all too brief. Among many places of interest they toured the ten-sleep canyon, so named by the Indians because it required ten days for them to make the trip from Buffalo to Cody, Wyoming. This canyon is only eclipsed by the Grand Canyon of the Colorado. They returned by way of a new road called the short cut or Cody road, which shortens the distance from the east by 200 miles.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Metzger and daughters, Evelyn and Mabel, Roy Burton and Bill Ferris spent the week end at the Tillamook beaches.

Jackson Jones' left on Monday evening for Camp Perry, Ohio, where he will be one of 13 riflemen to represent this state at the national match. This makes the second time this honor has been conferred upon Mr. Jones.

A holiday outing party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Johnson and children, the Misses Lillian Lekander and Adele Schenk, and Clifford Zurchur spent Labor Day at Lost Lake in the vicinity of Hood River where they visited with Edw. Schenk, who is employed in the capacity of forest ranger on the south shore of the lake.

Miss Marian Robertson spent the week-end at Pacific City with friends.

Miss Elizabeth Hales, of Portland, assumes today the duties of librarian for the local branch. Miss Hales, who is a graduate of the University of Oregon, is also graduated from the Carnegie library school, a branch of the Carnegie Technical school, of Pittsburgh. In addition to her appointment at the library, she will have entire charge of the library work in the high school. It is presumed that by the end of this week an assistant will have been assigned her. The library will now be open every afternoon from 2:30 till 5:30 and on the evenings of Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 7 to 9.
