

FATHER OF LOCAL MEN PASSES AWAY AT WAMIC

News was received here early Thursday morning of the death of James McMurry, aged 69 years, at Wamic, eastern Oregon. He died that morning at his home of a complication of chronic diseases. Mr. McMurry, while never having lived in Gresham, was a resident for about 20 years of Clackamas county, and was a frequent visitor at this place, having four sons here, Almon, Veryl, Clyde and Harry. Besides his wife Mr. McMurry is survived by three other sons, John and Joe who live in eastern Oregon, Frank, of Toppensish, Washington, and two daughters, Mrs. Emma Tazzoli, living between Gresham and Portland and Mrs. Olive Eubanks, of Wamic. All the children will be present at the funeral, which will be held at The Dalles. The wives of the four brothers here will also attend, with the exception of Mrs. Harry McMurry.

Teaches Ford to Dance

Henry Ford is going to give old-time dances at his Wayside (Mass.) Inn this winter. He has hired Mrs. B. F. Lovett of Hudson, Mass., to teach him, his wife and their friends the old steps. Mrs. Lovett is now in Detroit to show Mr. Ford how to do the "Doe-see-doe."

FAIRVIEW

"A Tranquil Life" will be the theme of the sermon Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at the Smith Memorial Presbyterian church, by the pastor, Rev. E. R. D. Hollensted. Sunday school will be at 10 a. m. as usual.

One thousand tractors, besides plows and other agricultural implements and spare parts for them, valued at a little less than $1,000,000 are being sent to southern Russia where they will be distributed to the farming districts.

O. A. C. EXTENSION SPONSORS SCHOOL

A sewing school will be conducted at the Powell Valley schoolhouse, on September 15, 16, 17, from 9:30 until 4 o'clock each day, under the direction of Miss Esther B. Cooley, assistant in clothing, from extension service of the Oregon Agricultural college. These schools are held in different communities during the year and are very worthwhile and highly appreciated by those attending.

The individual equipment necessary is as follows: needles, thread, pins, thimble, tapeline, shears, tailor chalk, muslin or cambric pieces to practice slit pockets and bound buttonholes, two colors or embroidery floss or yarn for decorative stitches. Owing to the limited time, it is more satisfactory for members of the class to bring old garments for refitting and suggestions for remodeling rather than to attempt cutting and finishing of new garments.

Those who are interested in attending these classes, phone Mrs. Gustafson, Gresham 289, for reservations in the class, as the number is limited.

Each lady is requested to bring one article for lunch, such as salad, pie or sandwiches, on each of the three days of the lectures, and at noon a luncheon will be served picnic style.

POWELL VALLEY

About 80 ladies attended the Deborah Ladies Aid which met at the home of Mrs. John Hulander on Wednesday afternoon, and in addition to their regular meeting a pleasing program was rendered. The Rev. O. J. Wilner in a short address welcomed Mrs. J. A. Liedfors home from a year's absence in Sweden. The rooms were beautifully decorated in autumn leaves and refreshments were served. It being the tenth birthday of Dagmar Liedfors, she was remembered in the evening by a number of friends dropping in to share her birthday cake with her.

The Powell Valley school began Monday morning with an enrollment of 50, there being 26 in Miss Marian Robertson's room and 24 in the primary grade, with Mrs. Helen Camp as teacher. It is expected the present attendance will be increased by at least 10 pupils in a week or so.

The Parent-Teacher association will hold its first meeting for this school year at the schoolhouse on Friday evening, September 19. Mrs. C. A. Lundquist is president of the P.-T. A. and is an untiring worker for the interests of the association.

Miss Ethel Nordblom, a girl in the sixth grade, has been unable as yet to begin school, being kept at home with a siege of inflammatory rheumatism.

The Rev. O. J. Wilner will use as his text Sunday morning at the Mission church the words, "Come unto me all ye that labor," and in the evening at 8 o'clock, "There appeared a great wonder in heaven." On Saturday afternoon at 2 the confirmation class will meet in the church. On Tuesday evening the young people's society will study the characteristics of Peter the apostle.

W. C. T. U. PLANS MANY LINES OF ACTIVITY

The W. C. T. U. meeting which was held at the library Thursday afternoon was well attended and full of interest. Among some of the important business transacted was the election of nine delegates to the county convention which will be held on the 13 and 19 of this month at the Methodist Church South in Portland. The following ladies expect to attend as said delegates: Mrs. W. F. Honey, Mrs. Frank Peak, Mrs. J. A. Bushong, Mrs. B. L. Walrad, Mrs. C. J. Lundquist, Mrs. S. S. Thompson, Mrs. H. S. Clow, Mrs. George Rank and Mrs. John Clanahan.

At this meeting also three ladies were selected as delegates to the Portland Federation of women's organizations which will be held Saturday at the Portland hotel. They are Mrs. W. F. Honey, Mrs. B. L. Walrad and Mrs. H. S. Clow.

A special meeting of the W. C. T. U. has been called for Monday afternoon at the Methodist church parlors. At this time four delegates to the state convention to be held at Corvallis in October will be elected. The election of officers for the coming year for the local union will also be held at this meeting. Last, but not least, the payment of dues will be asked for.

The local union has decided to assist in the state fair booth, the proceeds to be used in the interests of the children's farm home at Corvallis. "The woman with a hundred pockets" will be present with her pockets well filled. Donations valued at about 10c each will be gratefully received for this purpose, the same to be left at Walrad's store.

TROUTDALE

Troutdale is doing quite a lot of building this fall. Bissinger & Co. have started work on the wool pulley. The main building, which is 123 x 163, will be two stories, all concrete. The warehouse will be of wooden structure and is 167 x 120. Zanello Bros. of Portland, have the contract for building. The architect is from the firm of Leland S. Rosner of San Francisco, California. Hackett Digger company of Portland have the contract to furnish the sand and gravel for the concrete work. They sublet the furnishing of 2000 yards of the concrete material to Knarr & Son, Troutdale. They expect to have the building completed and machinery installed ready for work by the first of the year. The company employs from 70 to 80 men.

Fred Pelton, one of the foremen for Bissinger & Co., has purchased lots of W. C. Spence on the Columbia river highway and has started excavating for a basement. He will build a modern bungalow.

Milton Fox has sold his cottage on Dora street to a Portland man.

The new residences of Harry McGinnis and P. H. Peterson are nearing completion.

Carl Shutz, who recently purchased land from McGinnis & Kendall, has the excavating for a basement finished and will start the building of his new residence immediately.

Mrs. Anna Latourel arrived Saturday from San Francisco, California. She will spend the winter here at the home of her mother, Mrs. C. S. Wilson.

"Tranquil Life" will be the theme of the sermon by the Rev. E. R. D. Hollensted at the Troutdale community church on next Sunday evening. Services will start at 7:30 instead of 8. Sunday school at 10 a. m.

From now on the Troutdale library will be open on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday afternoons and evenings. Mrs. H. E. Waite is the new librarian.

Mrs. Frances Fox was quite ill the first of the week but is convalescent now.

Mrs. Minnie Beidermann of Baker, Oregon, is the guest of Mrs. Frances Fox.

School started Monday. Mrs. C. I. Thomas is substituting for Mrs. Shaw, who is in Ohio at the bedside of a sister, who is very ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Copeland and family recently returned from a short vacation at Rockaway, Oregon.

Mrs. J. N. King of Astoria, Oregon, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence King of Warrenton, Oregon, and Mrs. Pogston from Colorado were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. McGinnis, Tuesday.

Mrs. Mary Parsons and Mrs. Eunice Robinson went to Portland Sunday to meet and spend the day with Indiana friends. They had not met for several years.

Clarence Parsons, M. B. McGinnis and A. Lisl shipped celery this week to Louisville, Kentucky, to be exhibited in the celery king contest of 1924 at that place September 16 to 20, which is an annual event staged by the Market Growers Journal of Louisville.

Mrs. Ella Hensley and granddaughter, Ella Richardson, spent the weekend in Portland visiting relatives.

Evidently all the expert testimony of the alienists didn't make much impression on Judge Caverley.
