

GRESHAM LOCALS

The Free Methodist quarterly meeting will begin on Friday evening of this week and continue over Sunday, the Rev. Walter T. Klotzbach, of Portland being in charge of the services, which will be held each evening.

A temporary filling of rock screenings is being placed in the forms of sidewalk on the north side of Powell street on the property of John Metzger, Peter Lenard and Arthur Dowsett. As soon as the ground is settled well, a cement walk will replace the rock.

The Misses Rose Potter, Mildred Metzger and Lillian Lekander registered on Monday morning as students in the state normal at Monmouth. They are all graduates of the 1924 class of Union high school.

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Gillen and the former's mother, Mrs. John Millsap, of Day City, Oregon, spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Duncan.

Mrs. M. D. Kern carried off a number of prizes at the Clackamas county fair at Canby last week. She won first prize in an exhibit of fruit and preserves. She also won first place on canned meats, vegetables and sweet pickles. In a display of three varieties of preserves, dried cherries, prunes, pears and apples she took second prizes.

W. S. Schultz has returned from a short trip to the prune orchards in Yamhill county. He reports the yield as exceptionally good this year.

Bert Gibson, the 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gibson, has been suffering from an acute attack of appendicitis. He is rallying from the attack and it is hoped to get him through without an operation.

Mrs. Frank Speybrock and her father, Al. Maybee, have gone to Hood River to engage in work connected with the apple industry there.

Harry Warden has gone to Hood River to work in an apple orchard for some time. Later he will be joined by his wife and daughter, Muriel, who will enjoy an outing in that vicinity.

Charley Weeber of Pleasant Home was a week-end caller at the L. V. St. Clair home on Cleveland avenue and Section Line road.

Mrs. Ralph Davidson gave a birthday dinner Sunday at her home in honor of the 52d birthday of her mother, Mrs. R. W. Gibbs. Besides Mr. and Mrs. Gibbs, David Weaver and his sister, Mrs. Kate Wissler, were present.

During the afternoon Mrs. Wissler was stricken with a light stroke of paralysis, but at present is better. She and her brother are leaving for Roseburg today, where he is an inmate of the old soldier's home.

Mrs. Frank Wiseman and son Joy of Canby, visited over Sunday with her sister, Mrs. O. W. Thoren.

W. C. Burch, who has been engaged as lookout and dispatcher in the Columbia district, 12 miles northwest of Stevenson, Washington, for the past three and a half months, has returned home for the winter. He is a veteran in the forestry service and understands the taking of wind velocity and other fine points of the work. He expects to return to his work for the government about the first of June.

Mrs. D. E. Towle took care of her daughter's seven-months' old son from Thursday until Sunday while the parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Townsend, of Fairview, were at Condon and Pendleton, Oregon. With Mr. Townsend's grandmother, Mrs. W. A. Townsend, they first drove to Condon, then to the Round-up at Pendleton.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Ogilbee are expecting to move into Portland in the immediate future. He is a printer and has been going back and forth to his work, but will find it more convenient to be near his place of employment. Miss Grace Ogilbee, who is a teacher in the grade school, will remain in Gresham, making her home with Mrs. Geo. Hayden.

Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Cowing and family, who live on the Base Line road east of Page's store, together with Mrs. Cowing's mother, Mrs. Libby, of Cottage Grove, are spending a day or so at Hood River. Upon their return from there, they will motor to Cottage Grove with Mrs. Libby, who has been spending the summer here but who is now returning to her home.

Mrs. Wilson, daughter of Mrs. Vivian Gordy, and her four children have moved into the Wood house on Maple avenue. Mr. Wilson has been seriously ill in Seattle for several weeks with complications following an attack of influenza.

Word was received yesterday from Portland where Mrs. Amelia Price was visiting with friends that she had suffered a severe paralytic stroke, affecting one entire side. She was taken to Multnomah hospital for treatment. Mrs. Mary McAllister visited her at the hospital today.

Theo. VanDoninck is displaying some very fine grapes of an unknown variety, which were grown on his lot at the rear of the City bakery. The clusters are large and heavy and the grapes of excellent quality. Mr. VanDoninck obtained the cuttings in Belgium on his visit to that country three years ago, but they were used merely as packing around some pictures, with no thought of their ever developing into strong, healthy plants. They are said to grow better here than in his father's garden in Belgium.

The mother of Johan Halldorson, well known to many Gresham people, died in Portland last Saturday and funeral services were held on Monday at the Portland crematorium. Gresham people attending the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. George F. Honey, Mrs. W. F. Honey and Mrs. Mark Nickerson.

Mrs. Walter A. Forbes has returned from Good Samaritan hospital in Portland, where she recently underwent a major operation.

Relatives and friends of Mrs. E. A. Taylor gave her a birthday surprise on last Friday, when they gathered at her home in the forenoon during Mrs. Taylor's absence, prepared a sumptuous dinner which was ready at noon when she returned. A pleasant afternoon was spent. Those present were Mrs. Fannie Wells, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Richardson and children, Mr. and Mrs. Orval Mitchell, Mrs. C. A. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Empey, The Empeys, who are from Taft, Oregon, are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell, the latter being a sister of Mr. Mitchell.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Grass and daughter Virginia of Los Angeles are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Metzger, parents of Mrs. Grass, and family. A case of scarlet fever has been reported in the Gresham school, that of little Eleanor Beers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. McKinley Beers. She was taken sick last week and is said to be recovering. No other cases of school children have been reported.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Dodge of Ashland, brother-in-law and sister of Mrs. Clara Sunday, paid her a visit on Sunday.
