Troutdale Library Notes.

J. J. Hudson's latest novel "Abbe Pierre" takes its title from old Abbe Pierre Clement, narrator of this delightful love story. From his garden house in the little Gascon village of Aignon he watches the growing romance between the handsome young American and Germaine, the daughter of one of his best friends.

Rosita Forbes in her "Sultan of the Mountains," portrays Raisuli as a modern Robin Hood. It is a book of adventure, history and vivid pictures of the desert.

In the "Gracious Hostess" Mrs. Lute has written a different sort of book of etiquette. This is really a practical book and not only tells how to do a thing but why it pays to do it this way.

"Deep Channel" by Margaret Montague is the story of two timid souls, each afraid of life, yet each drawing from the other the needed spark of courage. They defy law and convention and snatch a brief happiness.

These books are included in the new books just added to the Troutdale Library. There are also a number of new books for the younger readers.

DANA S. FRAME TAKES UP NEW LINE OF WORK

Dana S. Frame, who has been on the Bacon place on the Base Line road for the past year, running the purebred herd of registered Holsteins for Dr. Joseph G. Beattie, has moved to Portland and has become associated with the firm of Stewart & Johnson, realtors, in the Northwestern Bank building. The herd of cattle has been transferred to Columbia county. The Bacon farm has been rented to F. G. Price from near McMinnville, who will occupy the place October 1 with his parents and sister.

Mr. Frame is well known among the farmers and dairymen of the county, having had charge of cow testing in the county in the years 1916 and 1917. His knowledge of farming conditions will be an asset to him in his new position, as his firm makes a specialty of farm lands and acreage.

POWELL VALLEY

Miss Marie Olson, who has been attending Behnke-Walker business college for the past year, has secured a position as bookkeeper in an insurance office.

Alice and Chester Nelson, aged 10 and 5 respectively, celebrated their birthdays on Sunday by inviting in a number of friends for the occasion. Mr. and Mrs. John Strebin took Sunday dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Nelson.

Sunday school will be held at the Lutheran church on Sunday at 10 o'clock, following by preaching at 11, by the Rev. Axel Green, of Portland.

Mrs. J. A. Liedfors entertained a number of ladies on Tuesday afternoon, at which time she served them with "hgontron" preserves with cream and cake. The hgontron is a berry peculiar to Sweden alone, although a similar fruit grows in Alaska, and the nearest to it in America is the gooseberry. Mrs. Liedfors also brought with her from her recent trip to Sweden a number of new recipes for cakes and cookies which were sampled to the satisfaction of all present.

Services at the Mission church on Sunday will be as follows: Sunday school at 10 a. m., followed by preaching at 11 o'clock by the Rev. O. J. Wilner from the theme, "The War in Heavenly Places." Preaching in English at 8 p. m., "Godliness is Profitable Unto All Things." Young People's prayer meeting at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening; confirmation class 2 p. m. Saturday.

CAMP HILL

The Camp Hill Women's club met recently with Mrs. H. E. Johnson. It was decided to take up the study of parliamentary law for a half hour of each meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert of Boise, Idaho, have bought two acres on the corner of Laurel avenue and Powell Valley road, of H. F. Bay, and expect to build soon. Mr. Gilbert is connected with the paint department in Marshall-Wells.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Fairbanks have returned from a fishing trip to eastern Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Daw are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son, born Sept. 16. Mrs. Daw and baby are doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Clevett and children of Spokane, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Bay, have gone to Bellingham, Washington, to make their home. Mr. Clevett is in the hardware business.

Mrs. Alexander Thompson and Mrs. Charles P. Edwards attended the luncheon Monday given by the Research club at the Multnomah hotel. Mrs. Thompson spoke on "Why we should vote for Davis," her first speech since returning home from the democratic convention. She is a member of the club and was given an ovation when she was introduced.

The Chanticleer Poultry club held their last meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Cook, at which time they presented their club leader, Mrs. John Lynch, with a hand painted nut set. The boys have done good work this season, taking first and third prizes on their poultry.

GILLIS

The Rev. Mr. Brower, a Christian Adventist minister, and his wife, of Portland, will be present at the Gillis community church Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, at which time Mr. Brower will preach. If sufficient interest seems to be manifested at this meeting, the organization of a Sunday school will take place at the conclusion of the preaching service. It may also be possible to make these meetings of weekly occurrence if the community so desires.

COUNTY COUNCIL P.-T. A. HOLDS INITIAL MEETING

The Multnomah County Council of Parent-Teacher associations held its first meeting of the school year at Lynch school last Saturday, which proved to be a most inspiring and encouraging meeting. Lynch, Pleasant Valley, Buckley, Gilbert, Russellville, Riverdale and Maplewood schools answered the roll call. The treasurer's report showed the financial condition of the association to be on a sound basis. Mrs. Elmer H. Cook, president of the association, was elected a delegate to the state convention but on her stating that she would be unable to attend Mrs. E. S. Hoek was chosen as her alternate.

Mrs. Hoek reported the activities of the association at the county fair and Mrs. J. Lynch, chairman of the department of boys' and girls' clubs spoke of the great activity of these clubs and the fine exhibits which were shown at the fair. She said that club boys and girls drew $914 in prizes at the fair. Mrs. Chas. Edwards was appointed chairman of the literature department. After lunch a program was rendered by the pupils of the school. Mrs. A. C. Emmons, state chairman of country life department, gave a very fine discussion on nature study, which was followed by Mrs. Markham on the spiritual side of nature study. Mrs. J. F. Hill gave an address on "Religion in the Home" and contrasted the religious home with the one in which God is not recognized. H. B. Stevens of the University of Wisconsin brought out very ably in his discussion on cheap and trashy magazines, their evil influence on the American home and society.

Mrs. T. D. Smith pleaded with the mothers to help stop the petting parties which are becoming so common on the highways.

Park Your Worries Outside

When you bring your automobile to this garage, you can park your troubles outside, because your car will then be in the hands of experts who know how to locate trouble and fix it.

Why experiment with expensive machinery? In forcing a bolt or part you may break or damage a much more expensive part—and in the end bring it here to be fixed. It is cheaper to have expert mechanics on the job in the first place.

Whether it be Garage Work, Tires, Gasoline, Oil or Accessories you need, we can supply you and guarantee first class workmanship at lowest prices.
