Worth Being An American.

Candidates advocating public ownership of basic lines of industry, are seeking high public office in state and national affairs.

It is difficult to understand why in a country such as this we should have intelligent persons seeking to destroy the freedom, initiative and ambition of the private American citizen, and doing it ostensibly in the name of the people, in the interest of the commonwealth and for the betterment of living conditions.

We only need to look over the world to realize that America, under private development and initiative with a government which encourages the individual to his best efforts, has outstripped every other nation where official control of industry and the people has held them down almost to a condition of servitude.

Why should we adopt policies which take away individual rights and liberty?

Why should we want government ownership, state ownership or municipal ownership after we have seen its operation in other countries, in our own country during the war in connection with our railroads and shipping, in Canada, in our great cities and in numerous undertakings where the expenditure of public funds has been squandered through the inefficiency of well-meaning but incompetent public officials?

Private initiative and individual ambition, not public ownership and governmental restriction, have made our country the richest nation in the world today with only six per cent of the world's population.

TRANSFER COMPANY TO HAVE FILLING STATION

A modern filling station will be installed on one of the most attractive corners in Gresham by the Gresham Transfer company, a partnership firm consisting of B. L. Walrad, of the Walrad Mercantile company, and his son, Burton L.

Location for the station has been leased for a period of five years from Mrs. John Metzger on a corner of the residence property, and comprises a lot fronting 65 feet on Main and 100 feet on Third street. Several shade trees growing on the lot have already been removed and the actual work of excavation and building will begin at once.

It is planned to make the filling station modern and up-to-date in every respect. It will be beautified by lawn and neat fence and will be made attractive.

GRESHAM P.-T. A. WILL HOLD IMPORTANT MEET

Patrons and teachers of the Gresham school district will hold one of the most important meetings of the season on Thursday afternoon at 2:45 in Miss Inglis' room in the schoolhouse, when the annual election of officers will be held and plans outlined for the work of the association during the school year.

Several matters are claiming the attention of the members of the organization, one being the caring for the deficit on the motion picture machine which was purchased last spring. The next show will be on Friday evening of this week instead of Monday evening, as heretofore. A change has been made in the film supplies and a decided improvement is expected in the pictures. These pictures will include educational subjects and a comedy.

ANNOUNCEMENT IS MADE OF WEDDING SEPT. 17

Announcement of a wedding which took place on September 17, and which was kept secret even from the parents of the bride and groom, was made public on Saturday evening, when Mr. and Mrs. Bayard Miller went first to the home of Mrs. Miller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Towle, and then to that of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. K. A. Miller, and announced their wedding, and also the fact that their housekeeping apartments were ready and they would occupy them at once. The young people received the parental blessing and have been busy since then answering the greetings of their many friends. The wedding ceremony was performed at Stevenson, Washington, on the evening of September 17, at the Methodist parsonage, and was witnessed by college friends.

The surprising thing about the whole matter was that the secret was so well kept and in the meantime the apartment recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Shults, when they moved to their place on Powell street, was renovated and furnished for the young couple.

The romance which culminated in the happy marriage started back in early high school days, when Edella Towle and Bayard Miller were classmates in the Gresham high school. Overseas service for Miller intervened and both resumed their studies at Oregon Agricultural College, where they completed their courses in 1923. Miss Towle was a member of Alpha Xi Delta sorority and Mr. Miller of the Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity.

The groom is vice president of the Multnomah & Clackamas Mutual Telephone company. He is employed in the Bank of Gresham, of which his grandfather, A. F. Miller, is president and his father, K. A. Miller, is cashier. Mrs. Miller will continue her work in her music studio.

Livestock Should Be On Every Farm.

BRING DAIRYING WESTWARD

NINETY per cent of the annual alfalfa crop is grown west of the Mississippi river, whereas 70 per cent of the dairy cattle are east of it. Now, we must either ship this hay at high freight rates to the dairyman of the east or bring the dairy industry westward. The latter is the better policy, for a carload of hay is worth around $87.50 less freight charges to its destination, whereas a carload of butter is worth $10,980. Therefore, it is more profitable to have cows on your farm, to feed them on hay grown here and to market the concentrates such as butter, cheese, milk and cream.

There is no one in a community more interested in furthering its prosperity than a bank, and that is why we, here at the First State bank, are both ready and willing to enable you and every farmer of industry and good judgment to put dairy cows on the farm.

If you are interested in livestock raising in all of its phases—breeding, feeding and production—why not attend the Pacific International Livestock Exposition at Portland this year, Nov. 1st to 5th? Here under the great roof of the amphitheatre, covering more than 10 acres, there will be over 4000 head of purebred beef and dairy cattle, sheep, goats, hogs and horses. You should not miss it!
