Park Your Worries Outside

When you bring your automobile to this garage, you can park your troubles outside, because your car will then be in the hands of experts who know how to locate trouble and fix it.

Why experiment with expensive machinery? In forcing a bolt or part you may break or damage a much more expensive part—and in the end bring it here to be fixed. It is cheaper to have expert mechanics on the job in the first place.

Whether it be Garage Work, Tires, Gasoline, Oil or Accessories you need, we can supply you and guarantee first class workmanship at lowest prices.

GRESHAM LOCALS

D. M. Roberts and son, Kenneth, are spending several days in the neighborhood of Albany hunting pheasants.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sweet of Eureka, Montana, spent the past week with their cousin, Mrs. Susie Sherwood, on their return home after spending the summer in California. They were greatly impressed with this section around Gresham, and may return later to make their home here.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Newton and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Boydston, with five children have moved into the D. C. Ely house recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Millikin. They come from south of Gresham, near Anderson station. Mr. Boydston is employed on the pipe line construction work.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Parker and Mrs. A. R. Goger, the latter couple from the Pleasant Home vicinity, composed a party which drove to Longview Wednesday and spent the day in sight-seeing through the immense lumber mills of the Long-Bell company. Here there are paid guides who have a regular schedule for conducting visitors through the plant, which is traversed throughout with board walks. They made what is called the loop trip, going by way of Vancouver, Kelso and Kalama, then ferrying across the Columbia to Rainier and home on the Oregon side. Mr. Parker was sent out by the Columbia river scaling bureau to Felida, Washington, Thursday, to scale a few rafts of logs.

Programs have been received by Principal C. M. Quicksall of the Gresham grade school for Frances Willard Day, October 24, which will be rendered in a suitable manner by the pupils of the school with the assistance of the ministers of the town. The program will be at 10:45 in the auditorium of the school. The public is invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Wilkins and son,

Rollie, and Cecil, Wayne and Lee Wilkins, on their way from Yakima, Washington, to join their parents at Newport, Oregon, stopped off with their sister, Mrs. George Duncan for a visit of a day or so.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Hauck, who moved to Gresham from Pennsylvania about two months ago, were pleasantly surprised Wednesday evening by about twenty of their newly-made friends, headed by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gibbs, marching in on them with refreshments a plenty. The evening was pleasantly spent in games and other diversions. They reside in the Gustave Johnson house across from the Beaver State Motor company where Mr. Hauck is employed. His wife was formerly a teacher.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Simpson, of Pendleton, have moved into Mrs. J. S. Carlson's house on Hood avenue. They have moved here for the purpose of trying out the western Oregon winter climate with the possible intention of remaining permanently.

If all the hobgoblins, skeletons, false faces, witches and black cats on display in Hepp's store windows were to meet a timid person on a dark night, it is hard to conjecture just what might or might not happen. Here in this popular little racket store are to be found Hallowe'en novelties in abundance, decorations and favors and cards and candies for social gathering incident to this merriest of all seasonal holidays. Mr. Hepp is sure to have something to please everyone from the tiniest youngster to those of mature years in celebration of the Hallowe'en festivities.

A chicken dinner will be served by the Methodist Ladies' Aid in the dining room of the church on Friday evening, October 24. The decorations of the room will be suggestive of Hallowe'en. Already reservations have been made for two birthday parties in connection with the dinner, with nearly 50 covers provided for.

The Rev. H. L. Streich of St. Louis, Missouri, arrived Wednesday and is making a tour of all the Evangelical churches along the Pacific coast. He is the general secretary for the young people's leagues and the ladies' aids and the brotherhoods of this denomination. From here he goes to California.

Will McLain of Gold Beach, Oregon, is here for a visit of a day or two with his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth McLain. His occupation is that of a fisherman, but he will go from here to one of the Puget Sound cities to work for the winter.

A Miss O'Keefe, living east of the Vista house on the Columbia river highway, was brought in to the office of Dr. Botkin Wednesday to be treated for an injured finger, which had been caught between two blocks of wood, crushing it badly.

E. E. Welling is greatly improving the interior of his restaurant property by having two private dining compartments installed in one side of the main dining room. These will be equipped with glass-topped tables and will be curtained, thus insuring privacy for exclusive dining parties. He is planning on replacing at least half of the present bar with a third dining booth to correspond with the other two, and also is putting in a more up-to-date soda fountain. He says in time he expects to have nothing but the modern glass-topped dining tables in the main room, where the tables with cloth are now in use.

Mrs. J. F. Kasper left Friday for her home in Seattle after a ten-day visit with her friend, Miss Marie Blom.

Miss Beatrice Capen, of Portland, is spending the week at the home of her aunt, Mrs. C. H. Calkins.

Dr. Mary Becker is improving the appearance of her residence and office by the addition of needed clapboards and the painting of the entire exterior of the building.

Conveniently located—GRESHAM

The Great Northern Manufacturing company, of Chicago, represented by E. A. Erick, territorial manager, is putting on its annual aluminum sale at the A. W. Metzger store today. Nearly 100 ladies were present at the opening of the sale.

Mrs. R. W. Gibbs returned Tuesday from Bend where she has been with her daughter, Miss Leila Gibbs, who has been ill in the hospital at that place.

Glenwood Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Davidson have gone to Independence for three days of pheasant hunting.

Miss Alberta Hinderman of Portland, a Marinello graduate, has bought the interest of Mrs. Marie Whetzel in the Gresham Beauty Shoppe and has taken up her employment here. She will occupy the apartment in the First State Bank building with her partner, Mrs. Ruby Imbrie. Mrs. Whetzel has gone to Centralia, Washington, where she will remain for a time with her sister.

An interesting program was put on by the local grange Saturday, which consisted of a talk by Mr. H. B. Auger, an instructor at Jefferson high school and a member of Gresham grange, giving an account of his recent travels through California and other southern states; an address by District Deputy T. J. Kreuder, also musical numbers by the Misses Agnes Virrell and Helen Althaus and Mrs. H. S. Clow.

S. B. Hall and W. D. Kinder will leave Sunday for Corvallis, where they will attend the annual conference of the extension service staff for the state of Oregon. This conference is an important gathering, as not only the past year's work is reviewed, but plans are formulated for the coming year in the extension work. Mrs. Kinder will accompany them.

Jefferson Myers, state treasurer and candidate to succeed himself, was a Gresham visitor this week, shaking hands with voters.

A republican rally will be held in Metzger's hall next Thursday night, October 23, at 8 o'clock. John Day, chairman of the county central committee, says there will be some rousing good speeches. Thomas B. Kay and Maurice Crumpacker are named and there will be others. The hall should be well filled.

Mrs. Carrie Hansen, who has been ill at the home of Mrs. H. C. Larsen for the past week, is practically recovered and will be able to resume her work of hemstitching next week.

R. E. Cannon is making extensive improvements on his place on Main and Third streets. A sleeping porch has been fitted up and a roomy garage is under construction.

A number of Portland relatives and friends came out Friday evening to help Mr. and Mrs. John Marston celebrate the former's birthday. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kellar, his sister, Miss Dorothy Kellar and brother, William, also Mr. and Mrs. Chester Forrest were among those present. A regular dinner with everything to eat was served.

THE CHINESE BUILT A WALL

to keep out their enemies.

It was slowly, and firmly built—one stone at a time.

As soon as we earn a dollar we are beset with the multitude of appeals to "spend it all."

Like the Chinese we must build up a wall of resistance to withstand the persistent attacks of those who seek to have us spend it.

"Keep your savings in this bank and in due time you will have built a wall of protection between you and the uncertainties of the future.

"Keep adding little to little and soon there will be a great heap."—Virgil.
