

GRESHAM TEACHERS ARE WELL RECEIVED

The public library was comfortably filled Monday evening by an appreciative audience who listened to an interesting program sponsored by the W. C. T. U., the church societies, and the P. T. A. of Gresham, in connection with the formal reception tendered the high school and grade teachers. The auditorium was beautifully decorated in autumn foliage and potted plants. Mayor K. A. Miller gave the address of welcome, also a brief history of the school days of Gresham since 1860, at which time there was but one painted school building east of east Portland, and that one employing but one teacher. Mrs. J. A. Bushong spoke in the interests of the W. C. T. U. and their efforts to combat the cigarette evil. The Rev. H. R. Gebhardt, president of the Gresham P. T. A., and other ministers of the town, each contributed with timely offerings to the program. The Rev. C. W. Huett emphasized the need of reinstating the Bible in the public schools.

R. E. Cannon and C. M. Quicksall, principals of the high and grade schools respectively, both were emphatic in their statements that the tax payers and patrons of the schools have not as yet fully anticipated the growth of the community, and that it is an inevitable conclusion that in the not far distant future the school buildings, especially the high school, will prove inadequate as far as seating capacity is concerned. The enrollment at the high school has now reached 274, with every possible seat in the assembly taken. Mr. Cannon rated the increase in attendance each year at 15 per cent, with a six per cent limitation tax to meet the situation with. Enthusiasm was shown last evening when the subject of a swimming tank was broached, and it is possible this idea may take more definite shape in the future.

Every musical number on the program was well received. Dr. H. H. Ott, accompanied on the piano by his wife, gave two euphonium solos which were much enjoyed. The violin selections by the Rev. E. G. Ranton, accompanied by Miss Lois New, a teacher in the Orient school, were fine, and the boys' glee club under the leadership of Miss Dorothy Dickey sang its best. Following the program the 27 teachers were presented informally to all present, after which refreshments were served.

Gresham P. T. A. Will Show Films.

The Gresham Parent-Teacher association will put on a moving picture show in the auditorium of the grade school Friday evening. Three reels of "Mary Mixup", showing charity work in a mill town, will be run, also two reels of "The Champen" and a Pathe review. This show is said to be very fine, probably surpassing anything that has ever been thrown on the screen here at the school. The same moving picture machine will be taken to Pleasant Valley Thursday evening where six reels will be shown, however, not the same six that will be put on at the Gresham grade school on the following evening.

EMMONS JELKEN TAKES BRIDE FROM SALT LAKE

Emmons Jelken, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jelken of Rockwood, and Miss Wilda Huntsman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Huntsman of Salt Lake City, Utah, were married on Wednesday evening, October 15, at the home of the groom's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. V. W. McCormack on the Base Line road. The ceremony was read by the Rev. J. Stanford Moore, pastor of the Rockwood community church, in the presence of relatives and intimate friends. There were no attendants.

The bride was beautiful in a gown of gray crepe back satin. She wore a corsage bouquet of bride roses and Lillies of the Valley and carried a white prayer book.

Autumn leaves with seasonal flowers formed a beautiful setting for the wedding. The couple stood under the archway, which was decorated with colorful autumn leaves.

Following their short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Jelken will make their home in Portland.

WEDDING ANNOUNCEMENT FOLLOWED BY DINNERS

Several dinners and luncheons have been given within the past week or two in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Bayard Miller following the announcement of their marriage on September 17 last.

On last Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. K. A. Miller, parents of the groom, entertained with a beautifully appointed dinner, covers being laid for 14. The guests were college and high school friends of the young couple. The pleasure of the occasion was enhanced by a beautiful floral centerpiece arranged by Mrs. Chas. Cleveland and place cards designed and painted by her.

On Thursday evening the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Towle, were hosts at a family dinner in honor of the young couple, who have been the inspiration for several affairs in Portland.

MULTNOMAH GRANGE WILL MEET SATURDAY

The regular meeting of Multnomah grange will be held at the hall at Orient on next Saturday, October 25. The usual routine work will be done in the forenoon session and after the dinner at noon the open session of the grange will be held, when several speakers will take part. County Superintendent W. C. Alderson will speak on the consolidation of schools, favoring the project, while Ray Gill, master of Pomona, will take the opposite side. D. Brooks Hogan will talk on dairy feeds. A. L. Barbur, city commissioner of Portland, was expected but will be unable to be present at this time. The afternoon session is open and the public is invited.

Pigs need good clean water accessible at all times. Water in the feed is the same thing to the pig as water in the trough so long as there is not too much in the feed, causing the pig to consume too much water in order to get enough feed. While information is not complete on this subject, the Oregon experiment station authorities think that the entire ration for fattening a pig should not contain more than 60 per cent water.

Cream Prices.

The Sandy Creamery is paying 42 cents at the creamery and 40 cents on the route for butterfat.—Adv. tf

CLUB GIRL ADVISES OTHERS TO PRESEVERE

Irene Davis, a Wisconsin girl interested in livestock, has written an account of her efforts, her apparent failure and her final success in a letter which was published in The Calf Club News, a publication in the interests of the Holstein-Friesian Calf Club of America. The little girl's experience will be of interest to the many boys and girls of this vicinity who are interested in livestock. Her letter follows:

I am a girl interested in calves and sewing. Queer combination isn't it? Last year I decided to join the "Rock County Calf Club" and show my calf at the Janesville fair.

The calf I drew was very pretty but far from being fat, and, work as I would, not a bit of fat would she produce, but I gave her the best care and by fair time she was in the best of condition. Her name was Colantha Superba Korndyke.

To my disappointment, however, she was placed fifteenth place in a ring of twenty-seven calves.

To the discredit of a fifteen-year-old young lady like me, I was ready to quit for keeps but mother and father came to the rescue and persuaded me to enter her again.

This year I showed her again at the Janesville fair in a class of 50 heifers. Colantha curled up her nose at the rest of them (if a cow can curl up her nose) and then decided that the top of the line would be more appropriate for her than the foot, so she stepped on it and went to the top, put on her brakes, and stood there.

Next year Colantha is destined to go with the noted "Rock County Show Herd."

Now, Mr. Cooper, please send your waste basket on a vacation when my letter arrives and invite it to stay until my letter is safely printed in the "Calf Club News."

Car Registration Still Going Up.

Motor vehicle registration is still going up throughout the world. The national chamber of commerce estimates there were about 18,100,000 in use January 1, 1924, 88 per cent of which were in the United States. The United Kingdom comes second with 642,853, while Canada is a very close third with 642,571 vehicles.

California and Alabama are at the head and foot respectively of the table showing motor vehicle registration to the number of people in the state. California has a car for every three persons. Alabama has nineteen people to every car. Halfway is Missouri with seven individuals to each motor vehicle.—Firestone News Service.

Mr. Workingman

When discussing the coming election with a man whom I shall call Mr. Fairies who said that he might vote for Mr. LaFollette, the following questions and answers were brought out:

Q. You own a lot on which you wish to build?

A. Yes.

Q. You are saving a couple of hundred dollars that you may have sufficient security to borrow enough with which to build a house?

A. Yes.

Q. If you had all arrangements made and LaFollette were successful in securing electoral votes to throw the election into congress (his followers do not hope for more), would you still continue with your building operations or would you wait to see what the effect on business conditions would be?

A. (very positive). I would do the same as everyone else, I would wait to see what happened.

He said it Mr. Workingman.

Everybody would wait to see what happened and the result would be PANIC. We want work, not panic.

Are you paying for your home on the installment plan?

Think it over.

Miss Sara Dotson visited over Saturday and Sunday with relatives and friends at Astoria and at Altoona, Washington.

Mrs. Annie Hevel is recovering from an infection in her face which affected her for the past ten days and which has been painful and serious at times. She has been cared for by her sister, Mrs. Ida Williams.

Mrs. Nellie Wilmot of Seattle, sister of Mrs. Carrie Hansen, is here for a visit with her sister during her convalescence from her recent illness. Another sister, Miss Harriet Alexander of Camas, Washington, spent the week-end here.

C. H. Calkins and son, Kenneth, enjoyed an interesting trip to Camp Lewis over the week-end, where they had a view of the mammoth dirigible, the Shenandoah, which was anchored at the aviation field at that place. They left here Friday evening at 7:30, motoring to Shelton, Washington, a distance of 170 miles, where they visited with Harry Calkins and family, also Mrs. Kenneth Calkins, who is the public librarian there. Arriving at the landing field near Tacoma Saturday evening at 5 o'clock, they saw the soldiers on picket duty endeavoring to hold back a crowd estimated at 50,000, gathered there from all parts of the country to see the giant ship. They stayed there four hours watching them refuel and land their crew from the 75-foot tower to the ground. At times the big balloon would pour out a 4-inch stream of water, saturating the cars beneath it. The men reached home Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Gilberson drove to Salem Sunday to visit with Miss Myrtle Rusher, a Willamette University student.

Several college students came home for the week-end to visit with their respective families. Mrs. Ethel Miller came up from Corvallis where she is in charge of the Children's Farm Home school, and visited her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth McLain. The Misses Rose Potter and Mildred Metzger were here from Monmouth Normal and Glen Winters came up from O. A. C. for a two-day stay with his mother, Mrs. W. A. Winters. Alden Miller spends nearly every week-end at home. Miss Caroline Tallman visited at home a week ago Saturday and Sunday.

A 7-pound baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Byron Pullen October 17. Mrs. Pullen is a sister of Mrs. Jack Stafford.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Latourell, of National City, California, have been here for the past ten days on business connected with their property at Latourell Falls. They had spent the summer here and returned to their California home, when business interests made it imperative for their return to Oregon.

John A. Hamilton and wife have vacated the Alf Nelson house and moved to Buckley avenue, on the Powell Valley road.

George Leslie, Jr., and family of Portland were Sunday guests of the formers' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Leslie.

Sherman Kilgore and family of Springwater, near Estacada, have moved into the Albert Cleveland house at the north end of Main street. He is a dog fancier and raises blooded English bulldogs for the market. They are expecting to purchase a home as soon as some suitable place can be found. Mr. Kilgore is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Kilgore.

Mrs. Charles Melugin and son, Howard Powers, of Lebanon, Oregon, arrived Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gregg Cox for a visit of two days.

WEST LINN SCORES 27 TO 12 VICTORY

By L. T. ST. CLAIR.
Gresham high school football team lost to West Linn, on the West Linn gridiron, Friday, score 27 to 12.

The score does not indicate the battle put up by the light but game local boys who, although outplayed in the first half by a team 10 pounds to the man heavier and with every member of the team a veteran, came back strong in the second half and clearly outplayed their opponents and scored two touchdowns, one by battering the heavy West Linn line and the other when they opened up an aerial attack that could not be broken up.

Gresham, using Chalker as a battering ram, pushed over the first touchdown shortly after the second half opened and a few minutes later Brown completed a forward pass which put the ball on the West Linn 2-yard line. Chalker again bucked it over. They failed to convert either goal.

By taking advantage of a number of breaks West Linn rolled up 19 points during the first half but Gresham, with that "never die" spirit came back strong in the second half and held them to one touchdown and a safety.

This week Friday the local eleven will tangle with their ancient rival, Estacada. The game will be played in enemy territory. It is expected that a good sized load of students and fans will accompany the team and help them put over a win.

Gresham Man Has Auto Wreck.

E. Gilberson, delivery man for the Walrad Mercantile company, met with an auto accident last Saturday which rendered him unconscious for a short time and badly damaged his coupe. As he was coming out from Portland where he resides, to begin his day's work, he saw two machines approaching from the east and the one in the rear was making an attempt to pass the head auto. Mr. Gilberson saw it would be impossible to do this without hitting his car, so he swerved to the right in the hopes of avoiding the collision. The driver of the oncoming car applied his brakes but it was too late and his machine skidded, forcing Gilberson into the ditch. After regaining consciousness, he secured help and had his car towed to Gresham. The four wheels are pretty well demolished, three fenders, one side glass and the windshield are broken and one of the tires cut.

County P. T. A. President Entertains Helpers.

Mrs. Elmer H. Cook, president of Multnomah County Council of Parent-Teacher associations, who resides in North Powellhurst, gave a bounteous luncheon to her executive board Thursday at 12. Covers were laid for nine. Those present were Mrs. Roy Hobson, Mrs. E. S. Hoek, Mrs. J. P. Lynch, Mrs. Chas. Edwards, Mrs. Geo. D. Fortner, Mrs. E. C. Thayer, Mrs. G. G. Forbes and Mrs. H. F. Stevenson.

After lunch the board held a lively business meeting. Among other items of business were the appropriating of $10 to the delegate, Mrs. E. S. Hoek for state convention expenses, and appointing a committee of three, Mrs. E. C. Thayer, Mrs. J. P. Lynch and Mrs. E. H. Cook to revise the by-laws.

Game Hunters Are Fined.

Wholesale violation of the state hunting laws on Friday, Saturday and Sunday of last week have resulted in the arrest of at least seven men who have plead guilty in justice court here and who have contributed $175 to the coffers of the county. L. F. Hammerlynck and W. A. Mattice, Portland men, were each fined $25 for hunting in the state game refuge near Russellville. One man, evidently a distant relative of Jiggs, who was arrested on the same charge, paid his fine but implored the justice of peace not to send the receipt to the house. Carl Bamme was arrested on two charges, that of hunting, being a foreigner, and hunting in the game refuge without license and was fined $25 on each charge. P. E. Leonard, a minor, was arrested for shooting at game birds from the public highway, but on his promise to return to school his case was continued. George P. Lehl and William Eaton were each fined $25 for hunting without a license. A number of these plead guilty over the phone at the game warden's office and paid their fines there, the amount to be remitted to Justice Brown here, who will turn it over to Multnomah county. Mr. Brown states that game wardens are figuratively as thick as bees this year and the laws are being more strictly enforced than formerly.

TAX LAW CAUSES LARGE LOSS, CLAIM

The state income tax law which became effective this year, is already responsible for over forty-one million dollars loss, according to figures which have been compiled by responsible citizens. The itemized list is as follows:

Eight timber purchases cancelled or suspended, $18,000,000.

Eleven construction of lumber mills, towns, logging camps and logging railways, abandoned or suspended, $7,875,000.

Thirty-two other industrial investments cancelled or suspended, $4,578,000.

One year's operating pay roll on foregoing items, $5,680,000.

Eight disincorporations, $4,606,000 capital. Damage listed one tenth only, $460,600.

Ten actual removals from the state, including loss of only one year's pay roll, $2,440,250.

Twenty-two threatened removals, including loss only one year's pay roll, $2,218,500.

Total recorded damage $41,252,350.

There are thirty-one other cases as to which definite amounts are not available, but which would amount to many millions.

Thirty-four cases are still under investigation, estimated would amount to many millions.

There are many other cases in which reported removal or investment elsewhere was stated to have been caused by the income tax but which cannot be verified in writing.

The signers to the statement say: "We have examined the signed statements and exhibits upon which the foregoing tabulation is based and find that the total of $41,252,350 is a conservative estimate of damage properly attributable to the state income tax as a determining factor in influencing decision against Oregon investment in the cases listed. We also find that many additional amounts could have been included justifiably in the total, so that, making every allowance for possible overstatements in individual items listed, the actual loss of investment attributable to the state income tax is materially in excess of $40,000,000."

The signers are Frank E. Andrews, president, Portland Chamber of Commerce; Charles H. Stewart, vice president Northwestern National Bank; Ben Selling, merchant and philanthropist; Chris A. Bell, attorney and member of board of directors of Portland Chamber of Commerce; J. K. Gill, pioneer Portland merchant.

FORMER OREGON MAN IS FOREIGN EVENTS WRITER

Don Skene, a member of the foreign staff of the Chicago Tribune and a former newspaperman of this state, has offered a prize of $12 to the student in the University school of journalism who, during the course of the year, shows the best knowledge of foreign affairs and of the achievements of American journalism in reporting and interpreting foreign affairs.

Mr. Skene visited the University of Oregon last week and made a number of addresses to student groups interested in journalism. While a member of the Paris bureau of the Chicago Tribune, he covered important news events. His latest assignment was to follow the world fliers on an American cruiser from England to America, by way of Iceland and Greenland. When Mr. Skene's vacation in Oregon ends, he will be assigned to the London bureau of the Tribune.
