Frank Lawrence, who has been visiting his brother, James Lawrence, for the past ten days or so, was called very suddenly to his home in Meridan, Kansas, the first of this week by the serious illness of his son. He left on Wednesday afternoon, over the O. W. R. & N. for his Kansas home.

Mrs. John Bramhall of Portland, a former resident of Gresham, with a Miss Jackson of Richmond, Indiana, were in Gresham Wednesday visiting friends.

C. at the International Livestock Exposition to be held in Portland November 1 to 8. Five men will compose the team, a coveted honor among the animal husbandry students.

A. E. Kessler has disposed of his barber shop to R. R. Bailey, who will take possession about the first of the month. Mr. Kessler has been in his present location for the past ten and a half years and has decided it is time to make a change. He and his wife expect to spend a few weeks at St. Martin's springs later on. Mr. Bailey has been in the employ of W. J. Todd over a year and previous to that ran a shop in Portland, having had in all 20 years' experience in the barber business.

The Auxiliary to the American Legion will hold its meeting Tuesday evening at the Odd Fellow's hall in Gresham, at which time Mrs. Rose Wilcox, of Estacada, delegate from the first district to the national convention which convened in St. Paul in September, will give an account of her trip.

Upton H. Gibbs, of Estacada, for a number of years editor of the East Clackamas News, was a caller at the Outlook office Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. George A. Johnston and her daughter, Mrs. Hazel Knox, entertained Tuesday afternoon at a farewell lunch for Mr. and Mrs. David Magnuson, who will leave soon for their former home in Alabama. Beside the hostesses and guests of honor those present were Mr. and Mrs. Otto Magnuson, Mrs. Oscar Thoren and Mrs. Sloan.

The juvenile band, which was organized during the spring under the direction of Dr. H. C. Johnson, was disbanded during the summer months, but will now be re-organized. For that purpose the dozen or so boys comprising the band will meet at the Gresham theater Monday evening, November 3, at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Hans Larsen visited her granddaughter, Miss Florence Hill, in Portland Wednesday.

The local Odd Fellow lodge is planning a big basket social and musical entertainment on the evening of November 13 at their hall here.

Mrs. H. V. Haslam, her son, the Rev. Oliver Haslam, both of Seattle, and her daughter, Mrs. C. B. Herald, who lives near Oregon City, visited on Thursday with Mrs. Haslam's sister, Mrs. J. A. Bushong.

A meeting was held this morning at the courthouse in Portland of the tax supervising board to discuss the paving of the road from the 12-Mile corner on the Base Line to Sandy boulevard. The appropriation is said to have been allowed by the county commissioners, but this board met to consider the necessity of the project at this time. A number of citizens from both Gresham and Fairview drove in, including George Page, Ed. Aylsworth, B. L. Walrad, W. C. Metzger, D. W. McKay, R. R. Morrill and Geo. Barr. Several spoke in favor of the road improvement. The supervising board will take the matter under further consideration.

Local radio fans greatly enjoyed and appreciated the president's message from Washington Thursday evening, the small home-made crystal sets bringing in the words as plainly as the more expensive tube sets. Party ties were laid aside and all who had access to a radio listened with interest to this address which is regarded as the next best thing to a personal visit from the chief executive. All are pronouncing the president a typical down-easterner with his Yankee drawl.

A Passenger from Babyland

*A passenger came from baby land,
A queerer and quainter you never have seen,
With a mite of a foot and a bit of a hand,
And a voice that is only a loud demand.*

—Cooke.

As the potentialities bound up in that quaint little figure begin to manifest themselves—how we long to train and educate them!

Often a rare spirit is condemned to mediocrity due train and educate them!

When a baby comes start a savings account for him that very day. Keep it up month by month and in the end your babe, now helpless in your arms, will be able to receive the training and education necessary for his development.
