

MUNICIPAL TICKET IS LED BY CLEVELAND

The city ticket for Gresham is now complete and offers no competition except for the positions of marshal and councilmen.

- For mayor—Chas. Cleveland. For recorder—C. G. Schneider. For treasurer—J. H. Metzger.

The term for each office to be filled is two years.

All the candidates are well and favorably known and there is little choice as to capabilities.

The candidates for marshal are new to the office, except Kelly, who is the present night marshal and has had experience as marshal and as councilman.

Of the nominees for councilmen A. W. Botkin and B. W. Thorne are the present incumbents, whose terms expire at the end of this year.

Chas. Cleveland is well qualified by experience to be mayor. He has long been a resident of Gresham and is a substantial citizen and taxpayer.

Voters will vote the city ticket in their respective precincts in connection with the general election and the vote should be heavy.

CLUB MEMBERS FAVORED AT LIVESTOCK SHOW

Cash prizes totaling $4815 are ready for members of the boys' and girls' livestock clubs who win places at the Pacific International Livestock exposition starting November 1.

Portland People Injured in Auto Accident at Orient.

Three members of an auto party which had been to Mt. Hood Sunday on a pleasure trip were hurt at about 7 p. m. when their car, a Franklin sedan, skidded on the slippery road near Orient, struck a stump and turned over on its side, pinning a 14-year-old boy underneath the machine.

Bargain Period for Dailies.

From now until October 31. Daily Oregonian and Outlook, one year, $6. Regular price $6.35. Daily and Sunday Oregonian and Outlook, one year, $7.75. Regular price $8.

GRESHAM'S NEXT MAYOR.

CHARLES CLEVELAND.

The Outlook is safe in predicting that Mr. Cleveland will be elected mayor of Gresham at the election next Tuesday.

"SUBSCRIBER" STATES HIS POSITION STRONGLY

Boring, Oregon, Oct. 25, 1924.—Editor Outlook:—It has been noticed that you have been backing Coolidge for a long time.

What good has the republican party done the last four years for the farmers? One farmer after the other is holding auction sales and selling out because they can't make a living on their farms.

The republican party has been in complete control of every branch of government during the greatest disaster that has ever befallen American agriculture. Its leaders have done nothing except devise schemes to plunge the farmers deeper into debt.

Coolidge has not lifted a finger to encourage a syndicate of Wall street bankers to take charge of insolvent banks in the West, thus increasing the power of the money power.

Dawes is one of the Morgan banking group that is primarily responsible for the present distress of the farmers.

The republican party and Coolidge stand squarely behind the federal reserve system, because that party is absolutely controlled by the financial powers that now dominate the federal reserve system and use it for their own advantage.

For 30 years LaFollette has been fighting to secure a square deal for the farmers. He has fought not only to control the farmer had a fair, uncontrolled market for his products, but also to see that he was not robbed by tariff-protected monopolies and trusts on the supplies needed on the farm.

American labor knows exactly where LaFollette and Wheeler stand. A SUBSCRIBER.

REPUBLICANS.

Vote 36 X on ballot. A republican district should be represented by a republican congressman. Don't forget Crumpacker, M. E., republican for congress. Crumpacker will win.—Adv. by Congressional Committee.

Political difference isn't as bad as political indifference.

LAFOLLETTE ADMIRER WRITES HIS VIEWS FOR OUR READERS

Boring, October 26, 1924.—Editor Outlook:—Will gladly accept this opportunity to give our views on the political situation.

More than ever will voters scratch their tickets on November 4. Nearly everybody says so. Party ties are being loosened, and what is the reason? Economic conditions are being overbalanced, and the farmers, the laborers, the small business men and many others feel that they are getting the rind, and get only a smell of the genuine bacon. Now the question is: Who gets the bacon? To get the bottom of things, let us analyze the situation carefully.

Mr. E. A. Enquist of Warrendale believes in the status quo; leave things as they are. Re-elect Coolidge, a republican congress, and of course don't touch the power of the supreme courts. After election he will come to the conclusion that many think differently.

Now Mr. Editor or Mr. Enquist or anyone else: Where do we farmers get with the rind? If we got only a very thin slice we would be satisfied; so would the laborers, and the small business men; as a rule we are satisfied with a little, but our complaint is, we don't even get that.

We farmers sell in the open market and buy in the closed market; sell wholesale and buy retail. The railroads get a 5% per cent profit guaranteed on 19 billions of dollars of capitalization, of which 8 billions is water, and we pay a good share of it in high freight rates, and the rest in taxes.

We are being deflated by a merciless federal reserve system, which is owned and operated by our big bankers. Where can we look for help? Have a single friend whom we can trust to give us a square deal? Yes, we have found friends, who are siding in with the producers, consumers, and the square-deal business men.

There are Justice Kenyon and Senator Brookhart of Iowa; Senator Norris of Nebraska; Shipstead and Magnus Johnson of Minnesota; Ladd and Sinclair of North Dakota; Walsh and Wheeler of Montana; and there are more. And to whom do they look for leadership? It is a man who for nearly forty years has fought the battles of the common people, whom the people of Wisconsin have re-elected for senator with a majority of three hundred thousand.

It is a man who was urged by petitions signed by a quarter million people, urging him to run for president. Even here at Damascus these petitions were enthusiastically signed. This leader, the last hope of the common people is LaFollette.

WALTER RAMSER. (To be concluded in next issue)

B. H. "Harry" Johnson, a resident of Gresham for nearly twenty-three years, whose forefathers came to America about 1790 from Scotland, is a candidate for marshal of the city of Gresham.—Paid Adv.

There is where some more of the bacon went. Another member, Daugherty, protected the grafters, and told them: "Here is the bacon; help yourself."

Another member, Mellon, has a cinch on his part of the bacon by being one of the owners in the aluminum trust. No wonder he favored a big reduction of income tax on the millionaires, he himself being one of the wealthiest in the land, and only a slight reduction on the poor.

Dawes, candidate for vice president, was found guilty of wilful deception and fraud by the Illinois courts; he got some of the bacon. And Coolidge himself is not guiltless, for a counselor of the chief makes him a partner in crime.

As governor of Massachusetts he protected the rich and let the poor shift for themselves. He did not take into account his cabinet members when their corruption was beyond doubt, and even promised his rich friends not to rock the boat.

He favors the rich man's Mellon tax plan, the rich man's Fordney-McCumber tariff, the rich man's Esch-Cummer railroad law. In other words, saving the bacon for the rich. In fact, Wall street openly comes out for Coolidge as their best man. But to be sure of the bacon Wall street opposed McAdoo, who has a few spots of progressive color, for democratic candidate, and nominated Davis, one of its best lawyers and truest friends, who said, that he felt proud of Wall street, and the country cannot get along without Wall street.

Now Mr. Editor or Mr. Enquist or anyone else: Where do we farmers get with the rind? If we got only a very thin slice we would be satisfied; so would the laborers, and the small business men; as a rule we are satisfied with a little, but our complaint is, we don't even get that.

We farmers sell in the open market and buy in the closed market; sell wholesale and buy retail. The railroads get a 5% per cent profit guaranteed on 19 billions of dollars of capitalization, of which 8 billions is water, and we pay a good share of it in high freight rates, and the rest in taxes.

We are being deflated by a merciless federal reserve system, which is owned and operated by our big bankers. Where can we look for help? Have a single friend whom we can trust to give us a square deal? Yes, we have found friends, who are siding in with the producers, consumers, and the square-deal business men.

There are Justice Kenyon and Senator Brookhart of Iowa; Senator Norris of Nebraska; Shipstead and Magnus Johnson of Minnesota; Ladd and Sinclair of North Dakota; Walsh and Wheeler of Montana; and there are more. And to whom do they look for leadership? It is a man who for nearly forty years has fought the battles of the common people, whom the people of Wisconsin have re-elected for senator with a majority of three hundred thousand.

It is a man who was urged by petitions signed by a quarter million people, urging him to run for president. Even here at Damascus these petitions were enthusiastically signed. This leader, the last hope of the common people is LaFollette.

WALTER RAMSER. (To be concluded in next issue)

B. H. "Harry" Johnson, a resident of Gresham for nearly twenty-three years, whose forefathers came to America about 1790 from Scotland, is a candidate for marshal of the city of Gresham.—Paid Adv.

OUR NEXT PRESIDENT.

CALVIN COOLIDGE.

If straw votes are an indication Calvin Coolidge will be elected to succeed himself as president of the United States at the election next Tuesday.

STUDENT BODY PLANS WINTER'S ACTIVITIES

A lyceum course of four or five numbers has been planned by the student body of the high school, which will give not only worth-while entertainment to the students and patrons of the school but funds to carry on the work of the organization and it is hoped that a generous amount will be added to the student loan fund for the purpose of assisting worthy students in high school and college.

The first entertainment of the course will be given at the gymnasium on November 14, when the Knowlton Quartet, composed of professional singers of Portland, will give a concert. Both Principal Cannon and Miss Dorothy Princey have heard the quartet and they highly recommend both the singers and their repertoire.

The senior class will give its play, "Mrs. Templeton's Telegram," on two nights in December. The dates will likely be December 18 and 19 or 19 and 20. It is believed that the giving of the play on two evenings will accommodate more people and that the crowds can be more easily and safely handled. Miss Machen and Miss Stephenson of the high school faculty will coach the play.

BORING SUPPORTERS OF MACDONALD TO MEET

All voters of Boring and vicinity are urged to attend a political meeting at the I. O. O. F. hall on Saturday evening, November 1 at 7:30, especially held in the interest of the candidacy of Simon MacDonald of Oregon City, who is seeking the office of sheriff of Clackamas county at the forthcoming election.

Grape Vines.

Wordens, Concord, Niagaras, one year old. Splendidly rooted, sure growers. Low prices. Order now for fall planting. Harold Oberg, Craig Tabor, fourth house north off Barr road, Gresham, R. 7, Bx. 966.

Autoblog want ads will bring buyer and seller together cheaply and quickly.

WEAVER-GUYNUP CASE IS DECIDED

Judgment was rendered Monday for the plaintiff in the case of David Weaver vs. Aaron G. Guynup and Mary Frances Guynup, his wife, by Judge Tazwell, sitting in circuit court. W. J. Cooper of Gresham appeared for Weaver and Leroy Lomax of Portland for Guynup. As a result of the decision, deeds to property in Gresham and Portland which Guynup was charged to have fraudulently obtained are cancelled and the property returns to David Weaver. The costs of the case will be borne by Guynup.

Suit to recover his property was instituted in March of 1924, when Weaver discovered that deeds which he had given in trust to Guynup to enable the latter the more easily to sell the former's property had been put on record in the county clerk's office. It was claimed by Weaver that he had given the deeds on April 26, 1922, on the promise of Guynup that he would return them to him on Feb. 1, 1924, unless he had found a purchaser before that time.

The defense disclaimed any fraud in the deal and insisted that the property was obtained through a bona fide sale, but failed to make any payments as to amount or date of payment. The Gresham property involved is a valuable tract on the south side of Powell street east of the grange hall, with several hundred feet frontage and running south, a part extending to the flat along Johnson creek. Prior to giving of the trust deed Weaver sold to Guynup a strip adjoining Raker's garage, with frontage of 60 feet on Powell street.

Following the recording of the trust deed, Guynup sold the strip which he had bought of Weaver, together with an additional strip 20 feet wide, to the Gresham Masonic lodge. This transfer was made last December, the Masons paying $1300 cash for the property. Notwithstanding the conditions under which Guynup is said to have obtained a deed to the property, the lodge will not lose its title to the 20-foot strip of land, according to Attorney Cooper, the courts protecting the innocent party in a deal of that kind.

Birthdays Celebrated October 24.

Two birthdays were celebrated with parties at the chicken dinner given by the Methodist Ladies Aid last Friday night. Miss Georgia Stapleton was the honor guest of one party of about 20, composed of relatives and friends. Following the dinner the party adjourned to the Stapleton home where Miss Georgia found a beautiful grand piano given by her parents in celebration of her 18th birthday.

H. L. St. Clair sat at the head of a table around which gathered the members of his family, the Outlook force and a few friends. A beautiful birthday cake with 53 candles came as a complete surprise to Mr. St. Clair.

TELEPHONE NOTICE.

Anyone wishing new telephones or advertisements, or subscribers wishing changes in their addresses, please notify the telephone office before November 1 for the new directory.—Adv.

Pianos, Radios, Phonographs. $25 puts a new piano in your home. Radios and phonographs on easy terms. Paul Palmblad, Gresham, phone 467 or 289.—Adv.

A BARGAIN Take it Quick!

The Daily Outlook, by mail, four months, from now to February, 1925, for $1.65. Daily and Sunday, same, for $2.35.

This special short-term subscription carries you through the three big events of the winter.

- 1. The Presidential campaign and election. 2. The state legislative session in Oregon. 3. The short term of congress, which convenes after election and may be called upon to elect the next president.

SEE THE OUTLOOK ABOUT IT. Phone 1561.

Table showing subdivision lots with dimensions and street names: WALLULA AVE., DIVISION ST. (Section Line Rd.), FLORENCE AVENUE, WILSON AVENUE, JUAN AVENUE, SEVENTH STREET.

HOOD VIEW---New Subdivision in Gresham

Attractive new subdivision property. This new 20-acre tract is located on the south side of Section Line road and east of Wallula avenue. Has been subdivided into 35 tracts, averaging 100 x 200 feet.

KRIDER & ELKINGTON

Gresham, Oregon, Phone 234

Proving her worth in a flight across the Atlantic, from Germany to the United States, our newest Zeppelin ZR 3 is at home in a hangar at Lakehurst, N. J. Insert shows Capt. Geo. W. Steele, from Marion, Ind., who now assumes command.